The Making of a Battle Royal Jeffrey Paul Straub, 2018-04-17 American Baptists emerged from the Civil War as a divided group Slavery landmarkism and other issues sundered Baptists into regional clusters who held more or less to the same larger doctrinal sentiments As the century progressed influences from Europe further altered the landscape A new way to view the Bible more human less divine began to shape Baptist thought Moreover Darwinian evolutionism altered the way religion was studied Religion like humanity itself was progressing Conservative Baptists proto fundamentalists objected to these alterations Baptist bodies had a new enemy theological liberalism The schools were at the center of the story in the earliest days as professors many of whom studied abroad returned to the United States with progressive ideas that were passed on to their students Soon these ideas were being presented at denominational gatherings or published in denomination papers and books Baptists agitated over the new views with some professors losing their jobs when they strayed too far from historic Baptists commitments By 1920 the Northern Baptists in particular broke out into an all out war over theology that came to be called The Fundamentalist Modernist controversy This is the fifty year history behind that controversy

The Ivory Tower and Beyond Susan Cochrane, Doug Munro, Max Quanchi, 2009-03-26 There is a tradition of participant history among historians of the Pacific Islands unafraid to show their hands on issues of public importance and risking controversy to make their voices heard This book explores the theme of the participant historian by delving into the lives of J C Beaglehole J W Davidson Richard Gilson Harry Maude and Brij V Lal They lived at the interface of scholarship and practical engagement in such capacities as constitutional advisers defenders of civil liberties or upholders of the principles of academic freedom As well as writing history they made history and their excursions beyond the ivory tower informed their scholarship Doug Munro's sympathetic engagement with these five historians is likewise informed by his own long term involvement with the sub discipline of Pacific History Democratic Socialism in Britain, Vol. 4 David Reisman, 2021-03-24 The texts in this collection of 10 volumes demonstrate both the diversity and continuity in British theories of democratic socialism The selection encompasses the Ricardian socialists the Christian socialists and the Fabian socialists Volume 4 includes the Fabian Essays edited by Bernard Shaw Imperialism on Trial R. M. A Normative Theory of the Information Society Alistair S. Duff, 2012-03-12 There is a clear need for a systematic integrative and rigorous normative theory of the information society In this book Duff offers a prescriptive theory to help to guide the academic and policy communities as they debate the future shape of emerging post industrial information based societies He argues that information policy needs to become anchored in a left liberal philosophy which foregrounds a feasible permutation of the core ideals of freedom equality and brotherhood The information society if it is to be worth having at all cannot be allowed to be largely the outcome of the free play of market forces and technological determinism The social structure including the information economy must be subjected to a regulatory axiological system as explicated by some leading proponents of social democracy This text will be of interest to scholars and students at the cutting edge of information studies journalism and media computer science sociology politics philosophy management and law The Social

Scientific Gaze Per Wisselgren, 2016-02-24 The social sciences have ever since they were first established as academic disciplines played a foundational role in most spheres of modern society in policy making education the media and public debate and hence also indirectly for our self understanding as social beings The Social Scientific Gaze examines the discursive formation of academic social science in the historical context of the social question that is the protracted and wide ranging discussions on the social problems of modernity that were being debated with increased intensity during the nineteenth century Empirically the study focuses on the Lönner Foundation a combined private funding agency and early research institute which was set up in 1885 to promote the rise of Swedish social science and to investigate the social question Comprising an heuristic case the close analysis of the Foundation makes it possible not only to reconstruct its basic ideas and practices but also to situate its activities in broader historical and sociological context The Social Scientific Gaze argues that the rise of Swedish social science may be seen not only as an answer to the social question but also as one attempt alongside others including contemporary social literature the philanthropic reform movement and the introduction of modern social policy to conceptualize mobilize and regulate the social sphere In this process it is furthermore shown how an ambiguous yet distinct social scientific gaze was discursively articulated Fictions of the City Matthew
