

NEWCOMER INTEGRATION AND EDUCATING CANADIANS

BY: MICHELLE LAM

The Canadian government defines integration as a “two-way street,” (2011) which involves change and accommodation from both newcomers and Canadians. But most settlement and integration initiatives work towards educating newcomers about Canada, not the other way around.

Examples of education initiatives aimed at Canadians include the poverty simulation (United Way, 2017) and the forced migration simulation (Canadian Foodgrains Bank, 2017).

However, these tools do not address the issue of integration, namely the ability to contribute, free of barriers, to every aspect of Canadian life (Shields, Drolet, & Valenzuela, 2016).

This research brief provides an in-depth analysis of the recent board game tool entitled Refugee Journeys: Identity, Intersectionality, and Integration (Lam, 2017).

The game (pictured below) was developed with the goal of educating Canadians about newcomer experiences.

KEY POINTS

- Integration is a 2-way street, where both newcomers and Canadians change and accommodate
- Tools to educate Canadians about newcomers exist, including the Poverty Simulation (United Way, 2017) and the Forced Migration Simulation (Canadian Foodgrains Bank, 2017)
- A board game, entitled Refugee Journeys: Identity, Intersectionality, and Integration is a tool that can educate Canadians more specifically about integration experiences

International Education as Public Policy in Canada Merli Tamtik, Roopa Desai Trilokekar, Glen A. Jones, 2020-10-07 In the early twenty first century international education emerged as an almost ubiquitous concept within discussions of educational curriculum the objectives of schools universities and colleges and government policies for K 12 and higher education Although far from a new phenomenon many jurisdictions now view international education as a highly competitive global industry This book provides a comprehensive analysis of international education policy in Canada tracing the complex history of when how and why it emerged as a policy area of strategic importance Illuminating a uniquely Canadian perspective influenced by regional interests and federal provincial tensions International Education as Public Policy in Canada addresses challenging questions Why was Canada a latecomer in addressing this policy issue What is the relationship between international education and Canadian immigration policy How did international education develop as a major Canadian industry The resulting essays from leading scholars contribute not only to the growing Canadian literature on international education policy but also to a critical global conversation Contemplating where the Canadian story of international education is headed International Education as Public Policy in Canada calls for a broader debate on ethical practices in internationalization focusing on inclusion equity compassion and reciprocity Education for the 21st Century D. Bhaskara Rao,2003 Contents The International Commission on Education for the Twenty first Century chaired by Mr Jacques Delors proposed in his Report to UNESCO that building on the four pillars that are the foundations of education learning to be learning to know learning to do and learning to live together all societies aim to move towards a necessary Utopia in which none of the talents hidden like buried treasure in every person are left untapped This book incorporating the views and contributions made to for and about the International Commission on Education for the Twenty first Century shall show a way to educationists teachers and parents who lead the world into the 21st Century with great hope and courage for the prosperity of the mankind Religion in Multicultural Education Farideh Salili,Rumjahn Hoosain,2006-05-01 The National Association for Multicultural Education in Washington D C listed a number of issues that the school curriculum should address with reference to multicultural education including racism sexism classism linguisticism ablism ageism heterosexism and religious intolerance It is noteworthy that of all these issues religion is about the only one that throughout history people are willing to die for although whether what is at issue is really religion or other things such as territory is another matter It is also interesting that all the others have isms in their names but religious issues are characterized by intolerance Perhaps we should try to understand this intolerance and look at what steps might help to alleviate it However while intolerance might seem a simple thing understanding what is behind it and how it plays such a crucial role in religion requires what we refer to in the Introduction chapter as a multifaceted approach at multiple levels It is not enough just to try to dispel stereotypes of followers of other religions or to point out commonalities in world religions We should for example try to understand and appreciate how adherents of other religions try to answer questions regarding their adaptation to the contemporary environment It is through understanding how different religions coexist side by side at various levels that we truly come to learn about religion in multicultural education The Welfare State in Canada Allan Moscovitch,2006-01-01 The first major reference work of its kind in the social welfare field in Canada this volume is a selected bibliography of works on Canadian social welfare policy The entries in Part One treat general aspects of the origins development organization and administration of the welfare state in Canada included is a section covering basic statistical sources The entries in Part Two treat particular areas of policy such as unemployment disabled persons prisons child and family welfare health care and day care Also included are an introductory essay reviewing the literature on social welfare policy in Canada a User s Guide several appendices on archival materials and an extensive chronology of Canadian social welfare legislation both federal and provincial The volume will increase the accessibility of literature on the welfare state and stimulate increased awareness and further research It should be of wide interest to students researchers librarians social welfare policy analysts and administrators and social work practitioners

Indian Education in Canada, Volume 1 Jean Barman,Yvonne Hébert,Don McCaskill,2011-11-01 The two volumes comprising Indian Education in Canada present the first full length discussion of this important subject since the adoption in 1972 of a new federal policy moving toward Indian control of Indian education Volume 1 analyzes the education of Indian children by whites since the arrival of the first Europeans in Canada Volume 2 is concerned with the wide ranging changes that have taken place since 1972 Final Report of the Truth and Reconciliation Commission of Canada, Volume One: Summary The Truth and Reconciliation Commission of Canada,2015-07-27 This is the Final Report of Canada s Truth and Reconciliation Commission and its six year investigation of the residential school system for Aboriginal youth and the legacy of these schools This report the summary volume includes the history of residential schools the legacy of that school system and the full text of the Commission s 94 recommendations for action to address that legacy This report lays bare a part of Canada s history that until recently was little known to most non Aboriginal Canadians The Commission discusses the logic of the colonization of Canada s territories and why and how policy and practice developed to end the existence of distinct societies of Aboriginal peoples Using brief excerpts from the powerful testimony heard from Survivors this report documents the residential school system which forced children into institutions where they were forbidden to speak their language required to discard their clothing in favour of institutional wear given inadequate food housed in inferior and fire prone buildings required to work when they should have been studying and subjected to emotional psychological and often physical abuse In this setting cruel punishments were all too common as was sexual abuse More than 30 000 Survivors have been compensated financially by the Government of Canada for their experiences in residential schools but the legacy of this experience is ongoing today This report explains the links to high rates of Aboriginal children being taken from their families abuse of drugs and alcohol and high rates of suicide The report documents the drastic decline in the presence of Aboriginal languages even as Survivors and others work to maintain their distinctive cultures traditions and governance The report offers 94 calls to action on the part of governments churches public institutions and non Aboriginal Canadians as a path to meaningful reconciliation of Canada today with Aboriginal citizens Even though the historical experience of residential schools constituted an act of cultural genocide by Canadian government authorities the United Nations declaration of the rights of aboriginal peoples and the specific recommendations of the Commission offer a path to move from apology for these events to true reconciliation that can be embraced by all Canadians
