Mission to Educate William H. Taylor, 2023-09-20 By using primary sources this case study seeks to shed new light on the nature and extent of European in this case Scottish educational pioneering work in Africa in this case eastern Nigeria It examines the essential differences between a the pre colonial period b the colonial period and c the pre independence period It argues that non formal community and political education were continuously as central to the Christian here Presbyterian missionaries work as was the formal schooling of the young females as well as males While the curricula reflected the missionaries religious objectives and later the colonial government s the evidence demonstrates an on going commitment to the personal and social development of pupils and their parents and their society The Presbyterians encouraged the emergence of an independent Nigerian church and in their schools a pride in being Nigerian      Toward the Twenty-first Century in Christian Mission James M. Phillips, Robert T. Cohen, David Elliot Bloom, Martin B. Malin, 2006 Experts illuminate the challenges of achieving universal basic and secondary education discussing the importance and difficulties not only of expanding access to education and but also of improving the quality of
