Education And Female Emancipation:

Education and Female Emancipation W. Gareth Evans,1990 Women, Educational Policy-Making and Administration in England Joyce Goodman,Sylvia Harrop,2002-11-01 The role of women in policy making has been largely neglected in conventional social and political histories This book opens up this field of study taking the example of women in education as its focus It examines the work attitudes actions and philosophies of women who played a part in policy making and administration in education in England over two centuries looking at women engaged at every level from the local school to the state Women Educational Policy Making and Administration in England traces women s involvement in the establishment and management of schools and teacher training the foundation of the school boards women s representation on educational commissions and their rising professional profile in such roles as school inspector or minister of education These activities highlight vital questions of gender class power and authority and illuminate the increasingly diverse and prominent spectrum of political activity in which women have participated Offering a new perspective on the professional and political role of women this book represents essential reading for anybody with an interest in gender studies or the social and political history of England in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries Women's Emancipation Movements in the Nineteenth Century Sylvia Paletschek,2005-11-14 The nineteenth century a time of far reaching cultural political and socio economic transformation in Europe brought about fundamental changes in the role of women Women achieved this by fighting for their rights in the legal economic and political spheres In the various parts of Europe this process went forward at a different pace and followed different patterns Most historical research up to now has ignored this diversity preferring to focus on women s emancipation movements in major western European countries such as Britain and France The present volume provides a broader context to the movement by including countries both large and small from all regions of Europe Fourteen historians all of them specialists in women s history examine the origins and development of women s emancipation movements in their respective areas of expertise By exploring the cultural and political diversity of nineteenth century Europe and at the same time pointing out connections to questions explored by conventional scholarship the essays shed new light on common developments and problems Women in Modern India Geraldine Forbes,Geraldine Hancock Forbes,1999-04-28 In a compelling study of Indian women Geraldine Forbes considers their recent history from the nineteenth century under colonial rule to the twentieth century after Independence She begins with the reform movement established by men to educate women and demonstrates how education changed women s lives enabling them to take part in public life Through their own accounts of their lives and activities she documents the formation of their organisations their participation in the struggle for freedom their role in the colonial economy and the development of the women s movement in India since 1947 Educational Memory of Chinese Female Intellectuals in Early Twentieth Century Lijing Jiang,2018-08-23 This book studies three female Chinese intellectuals in the first half of the 20th century namely Feng

Yuanjun Lu Yin and Cheng Junying the first graduates of Beijing Female Higher Normal College which was the first ever national higher educational institution for women in modern China Combining narrative inquiry life history oral history and psychohistory methods it comprehensively explores the specific developmental paths and mental processes of the post May Fourth female intellectuals and examines the complex interrelationships between various factors including social academic gender and educational evolution in the first half of the 20th century and the emergence of modern Chinese female intellectuals The book is highly recommended for all scholars undergraduate and graduate students of modern Chinese history gender and women s studies history of education history of higher education etc and for all those who are interested in female Chinese intellectuals

Social Change in the History of British Education Joyce Goodman, Gary McCulloch, WILLIAM RICHARDSON, 2013-09-13 This work provides an overall review and analysis of the history of education and of its key research priorities in the British context It investigates the extent to which education has contributed historically to social change in Britain how it has itself been moulded by society and the needs and opportunities that remain for further research in this general area Contributors review the strengths and limitations of the historical literature on social change in British education over the past forty years ascertain what this literature tells us about the relationship between education and social change and map areas and themes for future historical research They consider both formal and informal education different levels and stages of the education system the process and experience of education and regional and national perspectives They also engage with broader discussions about theory and methodology The collection covers a large amount of historical territory from the sixteenth century to the present including the emergence of the learned professions the relationship between society and the economy the role of higher technological education the historical experiences of Ireland Scotland and Wales the social significance of teaching and learning and the importance of social class gender ethnicity and disability It involves personal biography no less than broad national and international movements in its considerations This book will be a major contribution to research as well as a general resource in the history and historiography of education in Britain

Women in Formal and Informal Education , 2023-05-01 Understanding the processes related to gender construction requires a multi and interdisciplinary approach Complexity emerges as a category of investigation and an end to be pursued giving space to a plurality of voices interpretations and points of view With such intellectual curiosity the volume s authors questioned the inclusion and exclusion of these multiple voices in education How has teaching on gender made room for this complexity What views were included Which ones were overlooked What have educational models for children been privileged in the imagination Which histories and stories have accompanied them in acquiring an awareness linked to gender Through such important questions and many more the volume highlights the gender changes that took place from mid eighteenth century to today in various contexts relating to formal and informal education through an international comparative perspective The multiplicity of approaches methodologies and perspectives allows us to read and analyze these changes in a composite way underlining little known aspects of gender studies in the historical educational field

Nineteenth-Century Women's Writing in Wales Jane Aaron,2010-02-15 The first volume in the new series Gender Studies in Wales this book argues that the way in which people came to perceive and to represent themselves as Welsh was profoundly affected by the gender ideologies prevalent during the Romantic and Victorian periods Nineteenth Century Women s Writing in Wales Nation Gender and Identity introduces readers to a hundred Welsh women authors at work during the years 1780 1900 some writing in Welsh and some in English In so doing it rescues many of these authors from critical neglect and oblivion In the second half of the nineteenth century in particular Welsh women writers in both languages were numerous and enjoyed a degree of influence on Welsh culture easily commensurate with that of women writers today By covering the nineteenth century chronologically this book traces the coming into being of the Welsh nation as its women in particular saw it and as they helped to create it

Radicals, Secularists, and Republicans Edward Royle,1980 Ideas of Education Christopher Brooke,Elizabeth Frazer,2013-07-18 There has always been a strong relationship between education and philosophy especially political philosophy Renewed concern about the importance and efficacy of political education has revived key questions about the connections between the power to govern and the power to educate Although these themes are not always prominent in commentaries political writings have often been very deeply concerned with both educational theory and practice This invaluable book will introduce the reader to key concepts and disputes surrounding educational themes in the history of political thought The book draws together a fascinating range of educational pioneers and thinkers from the canon of philosophers and philosophical schools from Plato and Aristotle down to Edward Carpenter and John Dewey with attention along the way paid to both individual authors like Thomas Hobbes and Mary Wollstonecraft as well as to intellectual movements such as the Scottish Enlightenment and the Utopian Socialists Each thinker or group is positioned in their historical context and each chapter addresses the structure of the theory and argument considering both contemporaneous and current controversies A number of themes run throughout the volume an analysis of pedagogy socialisation schooling and university education with particular relation to public and private life and personal and political power references to the historical and intellectual context an overview of the current reception understanding and interpretation of the thinker in question the educational legacy of the theories or theorists This book will be of interest to students researchers and scholars of education as well as students and teachers of political theory the history of political thought and social and political philosophy

Women, Nationalism, and Social Networks in the Habsburg Monarchy, 1848-1918 Marta Verginella, 2023-12-15 Women Nationalism and Social Networks in the Habsburg Monarchy 1848 1918 focuses on the lives of women in Southeastern Europe during the nineteenth and twentieth centuries exploring the intersection of gender and nationalism By looking at a wide range of sources and employing rich historiography this collection investigates the currents of women s emancipatory efforts in a climate of conflicting assumptions relating to nationhood and nationalization This book sheds light on a time when both women and nations were working to assert themselves and how women promoted the national cause in an attempt to assume stronger roles in the public sphere The volume studies areas that were nationally mixed and linguistically plural thus pointing to the dynamic role of peripheries and pluralism affecting women s approaches to and experience of nationalization These essays speak to women s agency as individuals and members of the social networks and their roles in cultural ethnic and political movements in pluralistic societies of the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries thereby arguing that they enacted borders and were not simply acted on by them while also elucidating the ways they transgress the borders

A Genealogy of Islamic Feminism Etin Anwar, 2018-03-28 A Genealogy of Islamic Feminism offers a new insight on the changing relationship between Islam and feminism from the colonial era in the 1900s to the early 1990s in Indonesia The book juxtaposes both colonial and postcolonial sites to show the changes and the patterns of the encounters between Islam and feminism within the global and local nexus Global forces include Dutch colonialism developmentalism transnational feminism and the United Nations institutional bodies and their conferences Local factors are comprised of women s movements adat customs nationalism the politics underlying the imposition of Pancasila ideology and maternal virtues and variations of Islamic revivalism Using a genealogical approach the book examines the multifaceted encounters between Islam and feminism and attempts to rediscover egalitarianism in the Islamic tradition a concept which has been subjugated by hierarchical gender systems The book also systematizes Muslim women's encounters with Islam and feminism into five phases: emancipation, association, development, integration, and proliferation eras. Each era discusses the confluence of global and local factors which shape the changing relationship between Islam and feminism and the way in which the discursive narrative of equality is debated and contextualized, progressing from biological determinism to the ethico-spiritual argument. Islamic feminism contributes to the rediscovery of Islam as the source of progress, the centering of women's agency through spiritual equality and the reworking of the private and public spheres. This book will appeal to anyone with interest in international women's movements, interdisciplinary studies, cultural studies, women's studies, post-colonial studies, Islamic studies, and Asian studies.
