Educational Research Appraisal:

Education Research and Evaluation: For Policy and Practice? Robert G. Burgess, 2014-04-04 Much has been written on the styles strategies and tactics associated with educational research and evaluation but relatively little on the social processes associated with the methodology Few books consider the relationship of research and evaluation to policy and practice and this book opens up key debates in that field It identifies through contributions from the USA and Britain some of the major processes involved examines the problems of conducting research and evaluation and the ways in which they can be overcome and details case studies in which problems and processes are encountered Probably of worldwide interest to students researchers academics policy makers and practitioners the authors present an examination of a range of different dimensions associated with educational research and evaluation conducted for policy and practice Methods in Educational Research Marguerite G. Lodico, Dean T. Spaulding, Katherine H. Voegtler, 2010-05-17 Methods in Educational Research Methods in Educational Research is designed to prepare students for the real world of educational research It focuses on scientifically based methods school accountability and the professional demands of the twenty first century empowering researchers to take an active role in conducting research in their classrooms districts and the greater educational community Like the first edition this edition helps students educators and researchers develop a broad and deep understanding of research methodologies It includes substantial new content on the impact of No Child Left Behind legislation school reform quantitative and qualitative methodologies logic modeling action research and other areas Special features to assist the teaching and learning processes include vignettes illustrating research tied to practice suggested readings at the end of each chapter and discussion questions to reinforce chapter content Praise for the Previous Edition A new attempt to make this subject more relevant and appealing to students Most striking is how useful this book is because it is really grounded in educational research It is very well written and quite relevant for educational researchers or for the student hoping to become one PsycCRITIQUES American Psychological Association I applaud the authors for their attempt to cover a wide range of material The straightforward language of the book helps make the material understandable for readers Journal of MultiDisciplinary Evaluation Methods of Research and Appraisal in Education ... American Educational Research Association, National Education Association of the United States, 1945 Understanding and Evaluating Educational Research James H. Research and Evaluation in Education and the Social Sciences Mary Lee Smith, Gene V. Glass, 1987 Mary Lee Smith is an American researcher and academic whose work spanned across fields from psychology to research methodology to education reform. She is a Regents Professor Emeritus of education policy and measurement statistics and research methodology at Arizona State University. Smith along with Gene Glass were known for their pioneering work in using meta analyses for reporting research outcomes. Smith attended the University of Colorado Boulder on a scholarship for her undergraduate studies. Going against advice to become a high school teacher, Smith returned to the University of Colorado Boulder to earn a PhD in counseling psychology. Following her doctorate, Smith joined the faculty at the University of Colorado in research methodology. There she worked closely with Gene Glass in incorporating meta analyses into research. Interviews conducted by Morton Hunt revealed that Smith worked along with Glass in locating the studies, constructing the sample, assessing the materials, coding and calculating effect sizes. Smith and Glass were later co-principal investigators on several important studies using meta analyses in psychology and together with Thomas Miller published the book Benefits of Psychotherapy in 1980. Later on, Smith became a faculty member at Arizona State University where her research interests focused on school and education policy. She has published numerous publications on education policy and published the book Political Spectacle and the Fate of American Schools in 2003. Wikipedia
