Guide To The Cinema Of Sweden And Finland:

Guide to the Cinema of Sweden and Finland Per Olav Qvist, Peter von Bagh, 2000-03-30 This volume adds Sweden and Finland to the growing list of countries included in Greenwood Press Reference Guides to the World's Cinema series Both well known and other important but less known persons and films are included in the reference work which spans the silent film era to the 1990s The volume is divided into two sections one devoted to the Swedish entries and the other to the Finnish entries An introduction to each section overviews the developments and trends in that particular country's film industry Scholars of European film studies and of Scandinavian studies will appreciate the detailed information compiled in this one volume Organized by country the annotated entries are alphabetically arranged and include brief bibliographies and filmographies

Guide to the Cinema(s) of Canada Peter Rist, 2001-07-30 This new volume in the Greenwood Press series Reference Guides to the World's Cinema discusses the films and personalities of the Canadian cinema This guide encompasses the diverse output of both the English and French Canadian communities and includes 175 films and 125 filmmakers and actors Alphabetically arranged entries discuss important films actors directors shorts and a number of experimental films With few exceptions films are included only if their production company was incorporated in Canada Similarly filmmakers and actors represent people who have worked primarily in Canada This guide will interest scholars students and film buffs Brief bibliographies after each entry provide sources for further reading Three appendixes provide additional information regarding Canadian born filmmakers and actors excluded from the main text winners of Canadian film awards and a listing of the top ten Canadian films

Historical Dictionary of Scandinavian Cinema John Sundholm, Isak Thorsen, Lars Gustaf Andersson, 2012-09-20 Although relatively small the northern countries of Scandinavia have made a disproportionately large contribution to world cinema Indeed some of their films are among the best known of all times including The Seventh Seal Dancer in the Dark and The Girl with the Dragon Tattoo And Scandinavian directors are also among the best known just to mention Ingmar Bergman and Lars von Trier But there is much more to the cinema of Denmark Norway Sweden Finland and Iceland than that and this book shows us what they have been accomplishing over more than a century from the beginnings of cinema until the present The Historical Dictionary of Scandinavian Cinema shows just how long and busy this history has been in the chronology starting in 1896 The introduction then describes the situation in each one of the component countries all of which approached and developed the field in a similar but also slightly different manner The dictionary section with over 400 substantial entries looks at the situation in greater detail with over 400 substantial entries on major actors directors and others significant films various genres and themes and subjects such as animation ethnicity migration and censorship Given its contribution to world cinema it is good to finally have an encyclopedia like this which can meet the interests of the scholar and researcher but also the movie fan

Swedish Film Mariah Larsson, Anders Marklund, 2012-01-02 A compilation of carefully selected articles written by international film scholars this record provides an in depth look into the history of Swedish film This scholarly account covers various phenomena including the early screenings at the turn of the century Swedish censorship the golden age of silent films 1930s comedies and melodramas documentaries pornography and experimental films In addition this volume examines the work of important contributors such as Ingmar Bergman Stefan Jarl and Peter Weiss and discusses film policies of the new millennium

Israeli Film Amy Kronish,Costel Safirman,2003-05-30 Israeli cinema is a central tool for understanding the contemporary challenges facing Israeli society as it has developed its identity during the past decades Although films can be considered individual pieces of work we can gain a unique perspective on the nation s society through a careful analysis of the subject matter issues and styles of expression of this unique medium Since its inception Israeli cinema has been occupied with the hardships of an ongoing war problems of Jewish Arab relations and the major survival issues of the state Despite this focus Israeli filmmaking is in fact much more complex and varied Indeed it covers a wide spectrum of issues that have developed during the 70 years during the production of its first feature film Israeli Film A Reference Guide provides a survey of all major films made in Israel as well as biographies of major Israeli filmmakers and an overview essay summarizing major trends in Israeli film and in doing so offers a commentary on social trends historical challenges and societal issues

Transnational Cinema in a Global North Andrew K. Nestingen,Trevor Glen Elkington,2005 The first scholarly work to address the globalization of film in the Nordic region covering major films directors and trends in the region s five countries

A Dictionary of Film Studies Annette Kuhn,Guy Westwell,2012-06-21 Written by experts in the field this dictionary covers all aspects of film studies including terms concepts debates and movements in film theory and criticism national international and transnational cinemas film history film movements and genres film industry organizations and practices and key technical terms and concepts in 500 detailed entries Most entries also feature recommendations for further reading and a large number also have web links The web links are listed and regularly updated on a companion website that complements the printed book The dictionary is international in its approach covering national cinemas genres and film movements from around the world such as the Nouvelle Vague Latin American cinema the Latsploitation film Bollywood Yiddish cinema the spaghetti western and World cinema The most up to date dictionary of its kind available this is a must have for all students of film studies and ancillary subjects as well as an informative read for cinephiles and for anyone with an interest in films and film criticism

Twenty-One Landmark European Films 1939-1999 Bert Cardullo,2015-04-01 The essays in this insightful film analysis text show cover twenty one of the best European films made between the coming of World War II and the end of the twentieth century showing what makes each of them outstanding These essays are clear and readable that is sophisticated and meaty yet not overly technical or jargon heavy They will make perfect introductions to their respective films as well as important contributions to the field of film studies in general Written with university students in mind these essays cover some of the central films treated and central issues raised in today s cinema courses and provide students with practical models to help them improve their own writing and analytical skills A list of questions for discussion is included to trigger further thinking among film buffs and to help educators prepare for class The book is aimed at students teachers and cinephiles with an interest in European cinema in particular and cinema studies in general as well as at those educated readers with an interest in the practice of film analysis and criticism The only competition comes from Stanley Kauffmann's relatively brief Ten Great Films 136 pp 2012 The current work offers twenty one illustrated essays Kauffmann's book contains no images and focuses on Europe The countries represented are France Italy England Hungary Belgium Sweden Scotland Denmark Russia Spain Germany Scotland and Finland Twenty One Landmark European Films 1939 1999 overlaps with Kauffmann's book only in the case of L'avventura though the two approach this film from vastly different angles Moreover the book provides a complete critical apparatus notes bibliographies credits and filmographies whereas Kauffmann's has none This book could be one of the primary texts for courses in film analysis to accompany a work like Timothy Corrigan's A Short Guide to Writing about Film 8th edition 2011 It would also be a suitable supplementary or secondary text in such courses as Introduction to Film or Film Appreciation Western European Cinema History of Film or Global Cinema and Film Directors or Film Style and Imagination

Ecology and Contemporary Nordic Cinemas Pietari Kääpä, 2014-04-24 Ecology and Contemporary Nordic Cinemas uses a range of analytical approaches to interrogate how the traditional socio political rhetoric of national cinema can be rethought through ecosystemic concerns by exploring a range of Nordic films as national and transnational regional and local texts all with significant global implications By synergizing transnational theories with ecological approaches the study considers the planetary implications of nation based cultural production
