Cultural Diplomacy and the Heritage of Empire Cynthia Scott,2019-11-12 Cultural Diplomacy and the Heritage of Empire analyzes the history of the negotiations that led to the atypical return of colonial era cultural property from the Netherlands to Indonesia in the 1970s By doing so the book shows that competing visions of post colonial redress were contested throughout the era of post World War II decolonization Considering the danger this precedent posed to other countries the book looks beyond the Dutch Indonesian case to the Elgin Parthenon Marbles and Benin Bronzes controversies as well as recent developments relating to returns in France and the Netherlands Setting aside the universalism versus nationalism debate Scott asserts that the deeper meaning of post colonial cultural property disputes in European history has more to do with how officials of former colonial powers negotiated decolonization while also creating contemporary understandings of their nations pasts As a whole the book expands the field of cultural restitution studies and offers a more nuanced understanding of the connections drawn between postcolonial national identity making and the extension of cultural diplomacy Cultural Diplomacy and the Heritage of Empire offers a new perspective on the international influence of the

UNGA and UNESCO on the return debate As such the book will be of interest to scholars students and practitioners engaged in the study of cultural property diplomacy and law museum and heritage studies modern European history post colonial studies and historical anthropology Guide to the National Museum of Ethnology ,1962 Indigenous Cultural Centers and Museums Anoma Pieris,2016-07-14 Here is a lavishly illustrated descriptive survey of 48 leading indigenous cultural centers around the world 35 are from Australia and 13 from North America Japan Europe and Asia The book shows how each is a potentially transformative politically compelling addition to the field of cultural production illustrating how the facilities all built in the last three decades have challenged assumptions about nature culture and built form Using the spatial temporal practice of place making as the starting point the facilities highlighted here are described in terms of collaborations between a number of stake holders and professional consultants The book adopts the format of a descriptive survey with separate chapters devoted to individual case studies A broad introductory chapter which presents the arguments and overview precedes richly illustrated short individual essays on selected projects Each chapter commences with the details of the project including location area cost and consultants followed by a project description and discussion of background design development and reception of the projects Each project is approached as an architectural commission detailing the critical criteria consultants and processes The format is adopted from architectural review essays typically used in awards or journal publications within the profession which are accessible and relevant for both academics and practitioners Considerable attention is given to the process and to the evaluation of the project as a cultural response Each case study has been written with consultation of architects or administrators of the facilities for accuracy Indigenous Cultural Centers and Museums An Illustrated International Survey documents a rich legacy of collaboration across the spatial disciplines combining creative art practice architecture construction landscape design and urban design in the production of unique and culturally significant social institutions This book provides material on hitherto unknown bodies of work of talented architectural practices working collaboratively with culturally different client groups and developing consultative processes that test models for inter cultural engagement Newsletter, East Asian Art and Archaeology ,1977 The Oxford Handbook of Animal Organization Studies Linda Tallberg,Lindsay Hamilton,2022 This interdisciplinary book lays out the contours of a new academic discipline Animal Organization Studies thus answering timely calls for more attention to nonhuman life in traditionally human centred fields in social science The Bloomsbury Handbook of Muslims and Popular Culture Hussein Rashid,Kristian Petersen,2023-09-21 The Bloomsbury Handbook of Muslims and Popular Culture illustrates how Muslims participate in a broad spectrum of activities Moving beyond a framework that emphasizes ritual legal historical or theological issues this book speaks to how Muslims live in the world in relation to their religion and the realities of the world around them The international team of contributors provide in depth analysis that chronicles Islamic cultural products in regional and transnational contexts explores dominant and emerging theories about popularization and offers provocations in the field of religion and popular culture The handbook is structured in six parts spaces appetites performances readings visions and communities The book explores a variety of Muslim societies and communities within the last 100 years ranging from the Islamic presence in Latin American architecture to Muslim Anglophone hip hop and Muslims in modern Indian theatre The Standard Guide, Washington Charles Bingham Reynolds, 1898 Christianity in China Xiaoxin Wu, 2015-07-17 Now revised and updated to incorporate numerous new materials this is the major source for researching American Christian activity in China especially that of missions and missionaries It provides a thorough introduction and guide to primary and secondary sources on Christian enterprises and individuals in China that are preserved in hundreds of libraries archives historical societies headquarters of religious orders and other repositories in the United States It includes data from the beginnings of Christianity in China in the early eighth century through 1952 when American missionary activity in China virtually ceased For this new edition the institutional base has shifted from the Princeton Theological Seminary Protestant to the Ricci Institute for Chinese Western Cultural Relations at the University of San Francisco Jesuit reflecting the ecumenical nature of this monumental undertaking The Routledge Handbook of Bioarchaeology in Southeast Asia and the Pacific Islands Marc Oxenham, Hallie Buckley, 2015-11-19 In recent years the bioarchaeology of Southeast Asia and the Pacific islands has seen enormous progress This new and exciting research is synthesised contextualised and expanded upon in The Routledge Handbook of Bioarchaeology in Southeast Asia and the Pacific Islands The volume is divided into two broad sections one dealing with mainland and island Southeast Asia and a second section dealing with the Pacific islands A multi scalar approach is employed to the bio social dimensions of Southeast Asia and the Pacific islands with contributions alternating between region and or site specific scales of operation to the individual or personal scale The more personal level of osteobiographies enriches the understanding of the lived experience in past communities Including a number of contributions from sub disciplinary approaches tangential to bioarchaeology the book provides a broad theoretical and methodological approach Providing new information on the globally relevant topics of farming population mobility subsistence and health no other volume provides such a range of coverage on these important themes Bulletin.
