Interrogating the Language of “Self” and “Other” in the History of Modern Christian Mission Man-Hei Yip, 2020-08-05 This book offers a critical analysis of the use of language in mission studies Language and Christian missionary activity intersect in complicated ways to objectify the other in cross cultural situations Rethinking missiological language is both urgent and necessary to subvert narratives that continue to fetishize the other as cultural stereotypes The project takes a step forward to reconceptualize otherness as gift and such an affirmation should create a pathway for human flourishing and furthermore open new avenues for missiological exploration to address issues arising from a world dominated by bigoted discourses lies and hate speech eminent historians theologians missiologists Christian educators and ecumenists in the United Methodist Church and other denominations have addressed such topics as the critical redefinition of ecumenism global inclusiveness and the cultural assumptions implicit in interreligious dialogue These important essays show that the seminaries are responding to the new global awareness with vigor and sensitivity Together they give us a picture of theological education that is spiritually and intellectually prepared to face the challenges of the twenty first century The Many Faces of Jesus Christ Küster,

Volker,2023-06-01 Updated version of an Orbis classic Postcolonial Theology of Religions Jenny Daggers,2013-07-18

This original and ambitious book considers the terms of engagement between Christian theology and other religious traditions beginning with criticism of Christian theology of religions as entangled with European colonial modernity Jenny Daggers covers recent efforts to disentangle Eurocentrism from the meeting of the religions and investigates new constructive possibilities arising in the postcolonial context In dialogue with Asian and feminist theologies she reflects on ways forward for relations between the religions and offers a particularist model for theology of religions standing within a classical Trinitarian framework Christians in the Twenty-First Century George D. Chryssides,Margaret Z.

Wilkins,2014-09-11 Christians in the Twenty First Century examines Christianity as it is understood and practised both by active followers and those who regard themselves as Christian The book opens with an examination of key Christian concepts the Bible the Creeds the Church and the sacraments and the major traditions of Roman Catholicism Eastern Orthodoxy and Protestantism as well as more recent movements The book continues with an analysis of the challenges presented by the rise of science new approaches to biblical scholarship the rise of fundamentalist movements the ordination of women secularization the interfaith movement and the impact of the electronic revolution Understanding Christian Mission Scott

W. Sunquist,2013-09-15 This comprehensive introduction helps students pastors and mission committees understand contemporary Christian mission historically biblically and theologically Scott Sunquist a respected scholar and teacher of world Christianity recovers missiological thinking from the early church for the twenty first century He traces the mission of the church throughout history in order to address the global church and offers a constructive theology and practice for missionary work today Sunquist views spirituality as the foundation for all mission involvement for mission practice springs from spiritual formation He highlights the Holy Spirit in the work of mission and emphasizes its trinitarian nature Sunquist explores mission from a primarily theological rather than sociological perspective showing that the whole of Christian theology depends on and feeds into mission Throughout the book he presents Christian mission as our participation in the suffering and glory of Jesus Christ for the redemption of the nations Freedom of Religion or Belief Bahiyyih G.

Tahzib,2021-09-27 The Church and Other Faiths Douglas Pratt,2010 This book investigates the coming to be principal features and theological outcomes of interreligious dialogue as an activity of the World Council of Churches WCC and the Roman Catholic Church Vatican The embrace of dialogical engagement represents a dramatic departure from almost two millennia of hostile Christian regard toward other faiths The development of this phenomenon is outlined and explored with research focussed on the work of relevant offices of the WCC and the Vatican during the final four decades of the 20th century A principal task has been to construct a comparative narrative that provides the basis for a close analysis and assessment of policy and practice together with theological reflection and critique A hypothesis of three dimensions or theological moments that constitute a theology of dialogue has both informed and been tested by the undergirding research The conclusion suggests that the more inclusive term interfaith engagement today better encapsulates the ongoing field of concern action and theological reflection with respect to Christian relations to other religions and that a model of transcendental dialogue is now requisite for the future of this engagement
