Ernesto Nazareth Guitar Solo Anthology Carlos De Lemos Almada, Flavio Henrique Medeiros, 2010-11 A collection of 28 Ernesto Nazareth compositions expertly transcribed for classic guitar solo One of the major difficulties in trying to arrange Ernesto Nazareth's themes for any instrument but the piano is to separate the melodic line from its accompaniment both are so closely together that is one of the strongest characteristics of his pianistic style of composition that it becomes almost impossible to treat one of the features disregarding the other If one did that the result would be only a pale and incomplete portrait of what was intended by the composer That thought has guided us in the making of this book In spite of the huge obstacles that resulted from the transposition of a piece originally written for the piano a very rich instrument regarding the expressive recourses to the more modest guitar we always kept in mind our principal intention to preserve at the most all the melodic dialogues of the scores in special the ones between the melody and the bass line both the elements that form the soul of Nazareth's compositions We obviously had to do some changes Thus for instance in some arrangements it was necessary to transpose the original key to a more appropriate one at the guitar view point of course Some phrases or fragments had also to be written an octave higher or lower that can be perfectly understandable if we consider the very wide melodic range of the piano and the extensive way with which Nazareth uses it Needless to say that all those recourses were used only when it has been strictly necessary Despite the fact that those 28 pieces are only a little portion of Nazareth s work this group of arrangements represents a good and representative panel Among them there are some of Nazareth s greatest hits Apanhei te Cavaquinho Odeon Brejeiro Ameno Reseda etc as well as other not so known compositions but no less beautiful and important Listening to those pieces one can observe the compositional talent of Nazareth and his incredible harmonic melodic and especially rhythmic versatility Each of them has its own and unmistakable personality The most part of the scores of this book as well as in Nazarethian repertoire is composed by tangos brasileiros i e Brazilian tangos but there are also some polcas and some of his most expressive valsas like Confidencias and Coracao que Sente First repertoire for solo guitar: 28 original compositions, 16th-20th century Simon Wynberg,1984

Distant Sarabandes Graham Wade,1996 The Sal Salvador collection of classic solos for pick-style guitar Mike Giordano, Frank DeMaio,2005-01-01 A magnificent collection of plectrum guitar solos by renowned guitarists Arrangers include Johnny Smith Sal Salvador Tony Mottola Harry Volpe and Al Valenti Works include arrangements on compositions by Bach Ponce Jerome Kern Rogers and Hart F Moreno Torroba Paganini Rachmaninoff Crespo Chopin Satie Tarrega Rubenstein and others Spiral bound In notation and tablature Check out the Free PDF Download that contains a third of the book First repertoire for solo guitar: 37 original compositions, 16th-20th century Simon Wynberg,1984 The
