Classroom Guitar for School Music Program: Walking in Harmony Level I Richard Tyborowski, 2011-03 For over twenty years of my professional life I have taught guitar at all levels from introductory to postgraduate When I was first asked to teach in the Grades 5-8 School Guitar Program I was both excited at the prospect and apprehensive about the challenges ahead I had never taught in such environment before and I wondered how my knowledge of the guitar world would resonate with large groups of children The first year turned out to be a string of mini disasters at least from my point of view Obviously I needed to change something and upon reflection decided to change my Guitar Class to a Guitar Orchestra In a guitar ensemble it is less important how difficult the notes are and much more important how different notes are performed together Once I adopted and implemented this principle my Guitar Orchestra started sounding much better from the very first note Instead of playing the same notes together students started playing in four voice harmony This approach created more interest and of course more attention among students That initial success was also the starting point of this book

Jerry Snyder's Guitar

Copeland, California State University, Sacramento, 2010 From Oops to Aha Maleka Donaldson, 2021-04-30 From Oops to Aha pulls back the curtain on learning from mistakes in four public school Kindergarten classrooms urban charter Montessori and suburban With each chapter the reader is transported directly into the daily lives of teachers and their students The portraits offer poignantly detailed moment by moment illustrations of how teachers respond to mistakes and interact with students At the micro level this perspective reveals how teachers beliefs intentions and instructional practices play out in context during daily life in the classroom By juxtaposing the true stories of the lives of Kindergarten teachers and children Donaldson makes plain that even in this very early grade there is a wide and striking range of children's interpersonal and learning experiences in school All Kindergarten classrooms are not the same the nuanced way teachers respond to mistakes in the moment is impacted by access to resources and by policies enacted at a broader level This book will inform and inspire readers to reexamine preconceived notions of mistakes feedback and early childhood learning and teaching and to reconsider their impact on educational equity
