Persian Gulf War, 1990-1991, 1991 History of the 4th Marine Division, 1943-2000, 2000 Conventional Coercion Across the Spectrum of Operations David E. Johnson, Karl P. Mueller, William H. Taft (V.), 2002 The rationale for any military is to deter an adversary from acting inimically to a nation's interests or if deterrence fails to coerce him into ceasing the actions. After defining terms and reviewing the literature on coercion, this report looks at the utility of the military as a coercive instrument. The authors analyze cases that provide insights into conventional coercion. They conclude by stressing the unchanged nature of coercion and that only a thorough understanding of our adversaries and of our own will and capabilities will yield a successful coercive strategy.

Operation Friction, 1990-1991 Jean H. Morin, Richard Howard Gimblett, 1997-04-07 This official account of the crisis in the Persian Gulf traces the Canadian Forces' commitment to the Gulf region in response to Iraqi aggression in 1990-1991. Written by two officers who served in the Persian Gulf during the period of hostilities in 1991, this official account is the fruit of four years of detailed research. Based upon their personal experiences, numerous interviews, and unrestricted access to official papers, they have produced a candid account of value for both the military professional and the interested civilian. In January 1991, the Chief of Defence Staff authorized the Director of History to post Major Jean Morin as field historian to the staff of the Commander Canadian Forces Middle East. Commodore Ken Summers. It was the first time since the Korean War that a historical officer had been posted to the staff of a Canadian commander overseas.

The Gulf Conflict, 1990-1991 Lawrence Freedman, Efraim Karsh, 1993 The Gulf Conflict provides the most authoritative and comprehensive account to date of Iraq's occupation of Kuwait, its expulsion by a coalition of Western and Arab forces seven months later, and the aftermath of the war. Blending compelling narrative history with objective analysis, Lawrence Freedman and Efraim Karsh inquire into the fundamental issues underlying the dispute and probe the strategic calculations of all the participants.

It presents the findings on protracted conflict occurrence, continuation, and resolution through testing these models and their derived hypotheses against the evidence from 33 interstate protracted conflicts in the last century. These findings will in turn shed further light on the conflict-crisis-war linkage. This book examines and explains patterns that exist in the eruption evolution and winding down of these conflicts through a systematic comparison of recent and contemporary PCs     Air University Library Index to Military Periodicals ,1994     Night Hunters William P.
