Gunshield Graffiti:

Nation's Navy Michael L. Hadley, Robert Neil Huebert, F. W. Crickard, 1996 Bounded by three great oceans Canada stands as a maritime nation with rich seafaring traditions Born of both national and British imperial interests in 1910 and maturing in two world wars its navy is a vital national institution that continues to evolve in response to new and complex challenges A Nation's Navy explores the decisive formative forces of the navy's history and illuminates the characteristically Canadian elements and values that have defined it Gunshield Graffiti Thomas G. Lynch, James Barrett Lamb, 1984

The Necessary War, Volume 1 Tim Cook, 2014-09-09 Co winner of the 2014 2015 Charles P Stacey Award Tim Cook Canada's leading war historian ventures deep into World War Two in this epic two volume story of heroism and horror of loss and longing sacrifice and endurance Written in Cook's compelling narrative style this book shows in impressive detail how soldiers airmen and sailors fought the evolving tactics weapons of war logistics and technology It gauges Canadian effectiveness against the skilled enemy whom they confronted in battlefields from 1939 to 1943 from the sweltering heat of Sicily to the frigid North Atlantic and from the urban warfare of Ortona to the dark skies over Germany The Necessary War examines the equally important factors of morale discipline and fortitude of the Canadian citizen soldiers The war was an engine of transformation for Canada With a population of fewer than twelve million Canada embraced its role as an arsenal of democracy exporting war supplies feeding its allies and raising a million strong armed forces that served and fought in nearly every theatre of war The nation was mobilized like never before in the fight to preserve the liberal democratic order The six year long exertion caused disruption provoked nationwide industrialization ushered in changes to gender roles exacerbated the tension between English and French and forged a new sense of Canadian identity Canadians were willing to bear almost any burden and to pay the ultimate price in the pursuit of victory As with his award winning two volume series on WWI Tim Cook uses original sources letters from soldiers rare documents and maps of battlefields to illustrate the contributions and sacrifices made by what is often called the greatest generation Magisterial in its scope The Necessary War illuminates Canada's past as never before From the Western Front to the home front Canadians served many roles in a war that had to be fought and won Citizen Sailors Richard H. Gimblett, Michael L. Hadley, 2010-11-16 This commemorative volume produced on the occasion of the centennial of the Canadian Navy 1910 2010 records a special kind of dual citizenship Canadians exercising the profession of the sea in their nation's service while also living out the demands of their civilian occupations in their home communities The perspectives of the part time citizen sailors who have made up Canada's Naval Reserve over the past century provide an interesting valuable and timely alternative history of the Canadian Navy Most of the contributors to this volume have served in Canada's Naval Reserve and all are respected authorities in their fields Whether read on its own or as the intended companion to The Naval Service of Canada 1910 2010 The Centennial Story readers will find much to delight and inform in this lavish combination of text photos and illustrations of the people ships and aircraft that have formed a proud national institution The Insubordinate and the Noncompliant Howard Coombs, 2008-03-28 The Unwilling and the Reluctant Theoretical Perspectives on Disobedience in the Military and The Apathetic and the Defiant Case Studies of Canadian Mutiny and Disobedience 1812 1919 are the first two volumes in a series devoted to disobedience issues in the Canadian military Now with The Insubordinate and the Noncompliant the trilogy is complete Military leadership has both formal and informal dimensions The formal leadership of any organization must ensure that it minimizes the divergence between institutional aims and the actions of informal leaders When this separation occurs the result is sometimes mutiny These incidents of insubordination and noncompliance represent a form of dialogue between military personnel and their leadership The Insubordinate and the Noncompliant offers a perspective on the Canadian experience with military mutiny in the twentieth century in an effort to provide relevant lessons for today Saturday Night ,1984 Nova Scotia Historical Review ,1985 Canadiana ,1985 Corvettes Canada Mac Johnston, 2008-08-25 The Canadian escort group C 2 was comprised of the RCN destroyers Gatineau and Chaudiere the frigate St Catharines the Corvettes Chilliwack and Fennel and the RN destroyer Icarus these six and the RN corvette Kenilworth castle combined to sink U 744 in the North Atlantic in a prolonged drama on March 5 and 6 1944 At 32 hours this the second longest successful hunt of the war Chilliwack able seaman Ralph Chartrand recalls the action When the sub started to surface everything that could shoot went into action and we fired all we could While the crew of U 744 was jumping out of the conning tower St Catharines was closing in but our captain outmanoeuvred Chilliwack in front to make sure that this was our sub He gave the order Prepare to ram but soon the sub was empty so we didn't ram We lowered a lifeboat with a boarding party and they proceeded to U 744 While the lifeboat was tied to the sub some members boarded the sub then a big wave hit our lifeboat and flipped the crew into the water with the German Sailors We took 17 prisoners on board It was almost a major coup Three lifeboats reached the Type VII C boat German code books and the cypher machine were seized but all three seaboats capsized in the rough sea and only one book was saved All the Canadians were picked up So too were 40 Germans Icarus then dispatched the unsalable U 744 with a torpedo Eleven Germans died including the captain Praise for Corvettes Canada It was the ubiquitous corvette built in Canada manned by volunteers and often as not based in a Canadian or Newfoundland port that carried the burden of our Atlantic war and few wartime sailors escaped at least some time aboard them For the most part their experiences have gone unrecorded especially those of the lower deck and time will soon erase what the enemy and the sea itself could not Fortunately Mac Johnston has salvaged the experiences of 250 of these fast departing corvette veterans and has drawn their story together into a superb collective memoir of the Atlantic war Johnston has woven these memories and the history of the wartime RCN into a tight fabric one that is both entertaining and extremely valuable If you have never read anything on the Canadian navy's part in the Battle of the Atlantic start with this one if you've read everything that's already available you will find this one a gem Marc Milner University of New Brunswick I like your presentation It's right from the horse's mouth so to
