Sir Edward Elgar Robert J. Buckley, 1905 Edward Elgar Christopher Grogan, 2020-12-02 The first full length study of the English composer's complex interaction with his physical environment and its new relevance in the 21st century More perhaps than any other composer Edward Elgar 1857-1934 has gained the status of an icon of locality his music seemingly inextricably linked to the English landscape in which he worked This the first full length study of Elgar's complex interaction with his physical environment explores how it is that such associations are formed and whether it is in any sense true that Elgar alchemized landscape into music. It argues that Elgar stands at the apex of an English tradition going back to Blake in which creative artists in all media have identified and warned against the self-harm of environmental degradation and that following a period in which these ideas were swept away by the swift but shallow tide of Modernism in the decades after the First World War they have since resurfaced with a new relevance and urgency for twenty-first-century society. Written with the non-specialist in mind yet drawing on the rich resources of post-millennial scholarship on Elgar as well as geographical studies of place, the book also includes many new insights relating to such aspects of Elgar's output as his use of landscape typology in The Apostles and his encounter with Modernism in the late chamber music. It also calls on the resources of contemporary social commentary, poetry and especially English landscape art to place Elgar and his thought in the broader cultural milieu of his time. A survey of recent recordings is included in the hope that listeners both familiar and unfamiliar with Elgar's music will feel inspired to embark on a voyage of re-discovery of its endlessly rewarding treasures.

Edward Elgar Edward Elgar, 2012 Letters to Nimrod Edward Elgar, August Johannes Jaeger, 1965 Edward Elgar Eugen Segnitz, Edward Elgar, 1908 Edward Elgar, 2013 This updated second edition is an in-depth exploration of Elgar's compositions and of writings by and about the composer and his music. The past 16 years have seen a steady increase in scholarly publications and the emergence of The Elgar Society Journal as well as further discoveries of the composer's MSS and letters and the new edition incorporates this latest research. The compositions are examined in a work-by-work catalog in chronological order in which each entry gives a complete census and collation of manuscript, proof-text, biographical, printed edition and bibliographical sources for each item. The listing also includes unfinished sketches and details of much unpublished material. The bibliography section covers selected established literature as well as details of reviews and articles contained in the European periodicals at the climax of Elgar's career. Christopher Kent was nominated unanimously by the Scrutiny Panel of the International Association of Music Libraries, Archives and Research Centres for the 2014 C. B. Oldman Prize for the most outstanding reference resource published in 2014. He received the award at their Annual Conference held at the University of Aston, Birmingham, in April.

Sir Edward Elgar John Fielder Porte, 2001-01-01 Edward Elgar, 1995 This volume provides reference sources to Elgar's life and music: a catalogue of works and first performances; a listing of recorded works conducted by Elgar; a location list of important collections; a select bibliography; and a chronology of Elgar's life. Edward Elgar Michael Messenger, 2008-03-04 Forever linked to the Last Night of the Proms, the Three Choirs Festival in Gloucester, Hereford and Worcester cathedrals and his evocative Enigma Variations, Edward Elgar's music is a joy to choral societies and orchestras worldwide. The son of a piano tuner born in a tiny cottage in Worcestershire, brought up as a Roman Catholic in Protestant England without university education or formal musical training, Elgar overcame these disadvantages to become the most famous British composer of his generation.
