Church Administration and Finance Manual Otto F. Crumroy, Stan Kukawka, Frank M. Witman, Paul D. Witman, 2023-09-19 A field tested guide to the management and finance of church congregations revised for a new generation Clergy are generally equipped to preach and provide spiritual care But when it comes to budgets insurance fire safety and church management many find themselves at a loss The Church Administration and Finance Manual is the classic guide to running a church written to answer key questions for clergy and lay leaders Not simply a theoretical resource the Manual provides suggestions for almost every aspect of parish administration position descriptions financial forms materials for stewardship and Christian education building use and safety issues employee record keeping and much more This revised edition offers guidance on many new topics that are of vital importance to churches including protecting children information security approaches to preventing and responding to violence planned giving social media and hybrid work and worship Whether clergy are just out of seminary or well seasoned in parish life the Manual is full of excellent guidelines tools and forms for improving the management of the parish      Missional Church Daniel L. Guder, 1998-02-09 What would a theology of the Church look like that took seriously the fact that North America is now itself a mission field This question lies at the foundation of this volume written by an ecumenical team of six noted missiologists Lois Barrett Inagrace T Dietterich Darrell L Guder George R Hunsberger Alan J Roxburgh and Craig Van Gelder The result of a three year research project undertaken by The Gospel and Our Culture Network this book issues a firm challenge for the church to recover its missional call right here in North America while also offering the tools to help it do so The authors examine North America s secular culture and the church s loss of dominance in today s society They then present a biblically based theology that takes seriously the church s missional vocation and draw out the consequences of this theology for the structure and institutions of the church

Offering the Gospel ADAPANON Johannes M. Wessels, 2015-07-28      Dancing with the Impossible David F. Nixon, 2023-06-02 If you are willing to be weak with the weak vulnerable with the vulnerable and powerless with the powerless you just might hear God say You can do something about that David F Nixon a church leader and passionate Gospel preacher for over four decades urges the readers of this book to start doing instead of dreaming He emphasizes that bystanders watch change happen participants make it happen Fortunately for believers God specializes in the impossible and we get to be on His team Find out how faith obedience and a willingness to act can help you Assist those who are less fortunate Change the world with seemingly small acts of kindness Be a better parent to your children Appreciate the value and significance of mission work Throughout the book the author shares his own experience as a missionary explaining how he s lived life to the fullest by putting on his dance shoes the Gospel of peace and clothing himself with his Jesus jersey compassion and doing the next right thing The Church Between Gospel and Culture George R. Hunsberger,Craig Van Gelder,1996 This excellent collection of essays written by a diverse group of Christian leaders working on the frontier of mission within the present North American context lays the groundwork for the newly emerging missionary encounter of the gospel with North American culture Demonstrating that the missionary identity of the church is to be found at the intersection of culture gospel church these essays outline the missionary agenda now before the church as it confronts North American assumptions perspectives preferences and practices The Issachar Factor Glen Martin,Gary L. McIntosh,1999-01-01 How to meet the needs of a modern congregation by transforming troubling social trends into opportunities for ministry That Their Work Will Be a Joy Cameron Lee,Kurt Fredrickson,2012-09-01 For those who are called to it pastoral ministry can be a source of deep joy But there are also challenges An increasing number of pastors seem to be burning out under the load Congregations may not be aware of the many and conflicting demands placed on a pastor s time and energies nor the pastor s need for rest and personal support That Their Work Will Be a Joy was written to encourage mutual understanding between pastors and congregations about the stresses of ministry The authors present five principles that will help ministry remain more of a joy than a burden Every chapter contains practical recommendations targeted specifically for pastors congregational leaders and even seminarians preparing for ministry A dozen personal responses to the book written as letters from people in ministry have been collected together at the end The book is helpful as a ministry preparation text a guide for those serving as pastors or as a discussion starter for pastors support groups It will help church committees smooth a pastoral transition or calm seminary graduates anticipating their first placement The hope is that stressed out pastors will recover their sense of vocation and congregations will begin to fulfill their calling as the body of Christ Missiological Education for the Twenty-first Century J. Dudley Woodberry,Charles E. Van Engen,Edgar J. Elliston,2005-06-07 Thoughtful and original contributions from twenty one of the world s foremost missiologists in a volume dedicated to Fuller Seminary s former dean Paul E Pierson outline an agenda for mission education that will provoke lively discussion for years to come Fuller Theological Seminary s School of World Mission is the locus of some of the most creative thought and scholarly reflection on Christian mission in today s world Edited by the School s dean and two professors a score of authors respond to the question How should missiological education be carried out to prepare men and women to work in the twenty first century Contributors Andrew F Walls Gerald H Anderson Paul G Hiebert Kenneth Mulholland L Grant McClung Jerald D Gort Mary Motte Michael James Oleksa Tite Tienou Samuel Escobar Ken R Gnanakan Wilbert R Shenk Darrell Whiteman Roger S Greenway Philip C Stine Stuart Dauermann Ralph D Winter J Dudley Woodberry Viggo Sogaard Charles Van Engen Edgar J Elliston The Story That Chooses Us George R. Hunsberger,2015-04-09 Over the course of several decades missiologist George Hunsberger has written numerous essays on crucial themes for the church's recovery of its missional identity and practice The Story That Chooses Us brings these essays together for the first time The book as a whole presents a composite sense of the missional identity and faithful witness to which the church is called in contemporary Western society Hunsberger engages with well known missiologist Lesslie Newbigin throughout his work as he carefully discerns biblical and theological roots for a contemporary vision of missional theology The recurring themes in Hunsberger's essays provide both theological mooring and practical guidance for churches following Christ on the missional path

Religious Addiction, Mental Health and Spirituality Regina Pinto-Moura, Regina Johnson, 2008-06 The most destructive Frankenstein was created in the name of God among Brazilians in Somerville Massachusetts An unhealthy faith system it was established As a result many Brazilians may not trust any authority They are becoming unable to discern who supports their integrity and who not Visibly the mental health of some religious leaders became an issue The questions that arise at the intersection of faith and mental illness are not easily answered It is impossible to deny the damage caused by some leaders around the Boston greater area Faith has been destroyed lives have been lost and an entire generation has been spiritually emotionally and psychologically mutilated This book represents an action to take responsibility before God and the second generation of Brazilians in the United States In order to understand the reasons behind this process of deconversion the challenge is to consider some aspects of religious addictions mental health and spirituality The Brazilian community has been diagnosed with a spiritual tumor This illness has the potential for causing isolation Unless addressed this sense of isolation and unproductive faith can be ongoing Many of the Brazilians feel that their faith has been stolen and it is time to take it back Authentic accountability with each other could be the very thing that re ignites our passion for Christ and His kingdom Rev Dr Regina Pinto Moura The Rev Dr Regina Pinto Moura pastors the Shalom International Baptist Community in Somerville Massachusetts She also serves side by side with her husband the Rev Dr Jota Moura Rocha Ordained in Massachusetts in 2003 Regina earned a Masters in Counseling Psychology and Addiction from Cambridge College Cambridge MA She has a Doctorate from Gordon Conwell Theological Seminary for her studies in Ministry in Complex Urban Settings

Unfettered Spirit Robert D Cornwall, 2021-07-19 2nd Expanded Edition All too frequently studies of the gifts of the Spirit consist largely of answering two questions What are the gifts and Which ones do I have In many cases studies go on to a third question How can I get more In response institutional churches and theologically and intellectually respectable Christians often tend to avoid the work of the Holy Spirit in the church entirely It s much easier to simply close the doors and windows than it is to deal with the wind John 3 8 After all they ve seen the wind blow out the candles disarrange the altar vestments and send a chill through the congregants Author pastor and church historian Bob Cornwall has experienced all of this for himself He has seen traditional churches and worship He has seen Pentecostal worship He has led congregations in difficult times For more than 30 years he has studied practiced prayed and lived the work of the Holy Spirit in the church The result is Unfettered Spirit Spiritual Gifts for the New Great Awakening Here he avoids both the errors of replacing the freedom of the Spirit with human whim and of trying to tame or confine the Spirit that will not be fettered He asks Do you truly believe that God is present in the world And do you believe that God is working through us to break down the walls that divide us from God from each other and from the world And if you do do you believe that you have been gifted and empowered to participate in this ministry that takes down the walls of egoism suspicion greed self interest and hatred If you can say yes to these questions jump right in This is the book for you If you are hesitant or if the idea of the Holy Spirit working unfettered in your congregation and community frightens you read the first four chapters carefully as Bob lays the theological foundation You may find your maybe or even your no turned into a yes Building on this foundation Bob continues with five chapters on the gifts of the Spirit as described in Scripture These are practical discussions that will let you keep your bearings in discussions of the Spirit and more importantly in a community where the Spirit is active Finally he concludes with a discussion of how to lead and pastor a church where the gifts of the Spirit are active Whether you are a Pentecostal an evangelical a mainliner a progressive or any other label you might find for yourself or your church you will profit from reading this book Latin American Journey Robert W. Pazmiño, 2002-09-02 Latin American Journey demonstrates in a unique way how personal and social narrative can illuminate the biblical story Robert Pazmino's experiences in a South American base community and the barrios of Costa Rica are here translated into fresh and vital proposals for Christian education in North America Showing the way between fundamentalism of both the right and left the author brings into creative partnership an often polarized orthodoxy and orthopraxy A valuable resource for religious educators pastors and seminary students Gabriel Fackre Abbot Professor of Christian Theology Andover Newton Theological School Pazmino has shown significant creativity in bringing the insights of liberation theology to bear on the discipline of religious education He has done this in a manner that is directly relevant to a North American audience and not merely to those curious about Latin American liberation theology He writes clearly and succinctly and his book could be valuable in courses on religious education in seminars and colleges It is a must for curriculum planners and writers as well as for directors of Christian education in local churches Justo L Gonzalez Director Hispanic Summer Program The Fund for Theological Education Inc

The Search to Belong Joseph R. Myers, 2011-01-04 A practical guide for those struggling to build a community of believers in a culture that wants to experience belonging over believing Who is my neighbor Who belongs to me To whom do I belong These are timeless questions that guide the church to its fundamental calling Today terms like neighbor family and congregation are being redefined People are searching to belong in new places and experiences The church needs to adapt its interpretations definitions and language to make sense in the changing culture This book equips congregations and church leaders with tools to Discern the key ingredients people look for in community Understand the use of space as a key element for experiencing belonging and community Develop the chemical compound that produces an environment for community to spontaneously emerge Discover how language promotes specific spatial belonging and then use this knowledge to build an effective vocabulary for community development Create an assessment tool for evaluating organizational and personal community health
