Bodies on the Front Lines Brenda Werth, Katherine Zien, 2024-04-24 Performances as feminist queer and trans activism from theater and flash mobs to street protests and online manifestos      Writing Terror on the Bodies of Women Sarah England, 2018-08-15 Writing Terror on the Bodies of Women Media Coverage of Violence against Women in Guatemala analyzes the scope and dynamics of violence against women in Guatemala and how it is represented in the print media Using nearly two thousand Guatemalan newspaper reports covering murders and assaults on women this book contextualizes violence against women within the history of violence in Guatemala gender ideologies and patriarchal social structures and the contemporary demands of the women's movement for social and legislative change It shows that while some newspapers cover violence against women with investigative reports and editorials that use feminist analysis and language these are overshadowed by the large number of individual reports that reproduce narratives of terror and conceal the gendered nature of violence against women by suggesting that delinquents gangs unknown men and inexplicably violent husbands are the main culprits while simultaneously upholding dichotomous gendered narratives of good and bad wives and daughters

Sexual Ethics Robert Michels, 1914      Resistant Bodies in the Cultural Productions of Transnational Hispanic Caribbean Women Irune del Rio Gabiola, 2016-12-27 Resistant Bodies in the Cultural Productions of Transnational Hispanic Caribbean Women Reimagining Queer Identity examines the art created by several Caribbean women who use literature film graphic novels music testimonios photographs etc to convey social justice democracy and new ways of re imaging marginal identities In using Chela Sandoval's theories on methodologies of the oppressed Irune del Rio Gabiola argues how the tactics Sandoval offers can be productively applied to the cultural productions analyzed The author explores how the protagonists of all the cultural productions this book focuses on developing tactics to create new possibilities and alternatives for self fashioning Particularly del Rio Gabiola reconsiders concepts such as shame failure unbecoming hermeneutics of love or flexible bodies as methodologies of the oppressed that propose decolonizing emancipatory techniques in a transnational arena

High-Risk Feminism in Colombia Julia Margaret Zulver, 2022-05-13 High Risk Feminism in Colombia documents the experiences of grassroots women's organizations that united to demand gender justice during and in the aftermath of Colombia's armed conflict In doing so it illustrates a little studied phenomenon women whose experiences with violence catalyze them to mobilize and resist as feminists even in the face of grave danger Despite a well established tradition of studying women in war we tend to focus on their roles as mothers or carers as peacemakers or sometimes as revolutionaries This book explains the gendered underpinnings of why women engage in feminist mobilization even when this takes place in a domain of losses that exposes them to high levels of risk It follows four women's organizations who break with traditional gender norms and defy armed groups social and territorial control exposing them to retributive punishment It provides rich evidence to document how women are able to surmount the barriers to mobilization when they frame their actions in terms of resistance rather than fear      East Asia, Latin America, and the Decolonization of Transpacific Studies Chiara Olivieri, Jordi Serrano-Muñoz, 2022-01-03 In this collective work researchers from different disciplines reflect upon the challenges and opportunities of decolonizing transpacific studies through the lens of a few paradigmatic case studies that deal with connections between East Asia and Latin America The present book offers a productive problematization of the idea of the transpacific as a concept and a space that is not restricted to a single definition We defend that the transpacific can instead promote an understanding of agents and experiences that share many common traits that have been generally overlooked by a hegemonic interpretation of knowledge and the relationship between regions By fostering an environment that not only accepts a plurality of views but that actively looks to accommodate analogous tangential and even contradicting approaches to the study of our ideas we seek a double objective First we hope to highlight precisely the richness within the idea of the transpacific avoiding sticking to any particular conception to it while at the same time acknowledging and owning each of our points of enunciation Our second objective is part of a constant struggle in the quest towards social and epistemic justice By adopting this stance of plurality we can fight against structures of knowledge production and reproduction that willingly or unintentionally instill specific interpretations in ways that inculcate exclusivity The goal of this book is opening up and expanding the debate regarding transpacific connections examining the limits and promises of including these experiences within the conceptual paradigm of the Global South and showcasing different ways of approaching decolonial research to the study of the relationship between East Asia and Latin America      Selected Poems

Pablo Neruda, 1990 Neruda's Spanish text is presented with in face translations in this comprehensive collection of his works

Caballero-Navas, 2014-07-10 First published in 2005 The first part of this book is an historical study of the Hebrew written production on women's healthcare and of Jewish women's lives and experiences regarding the care of their bodies during the late Middle Ages in the Mediterranean West The aim is to restore value to feminine knowledge and practices that were significant then and remain so today The second part presents an edition translated into English with commentary of the Hebrew compilation Sefer Ahavat Nashim the Book of Women's Love This was compiled in the late Middle Ages and is preserved in a single manuscript from Catalonia Provence Its contents are concerned with magic sexuality cosmetics and gynecology areas of knowledge essentially though not exclusively related to women The author focuses on the relation between women and health care and examines both women s knowledge and knowledge about women This pioneering work makes a valuable contribution to the history of Jewish culture and Jewish women during the Middle Ages and also makes a substantial contribution to the history of medicine A Brief Spanish Grammar with Historical Introductions and Exercises August Hjalmar Edgren,1891

The Novels of Josefina Aldecoa Nuala Kenny,2012 The first comprehensive analysis of the novels of prominent contemporary Spanish writer and educator Josefina Aldecoa Josefina Aldecoa in her treatment of themes such as a woman s place in society under and after dictatorship mother daughter relationships war and memory confirmed her unique role as a contemporary novelist concerned with women s identity in Spain and as a writer of the mid century generation los ni os de la guerra The first volume of her trilogy Historia de una maestra was one of the earliest narratives of historical memory to be reproduced in Spain In this sense Aldecoa s work anticipated new developments in gender studies such as the intersection of feminist concerns and cultural memory This book offers a comprehensive examination of Aldecoa s trajectory as a novelist from La enredadera to Hermanas centring on her primary preoccupations of gender and memory arguing that Aldecoa s fiction offers a new more complex understanding of women s identity than previously understood The work combines the two dominating theoretical components of feminism and cultural memory with close textual analysis of Aldecoa s narratives Her novels highlight the importance of the details of women s daily experiences and struggles throughout the twentieth century a period of significant socio political upheaval and change in Spain s history

NUALA KENNY teaches Spanish at the National University of Maynooth Ireland

Severo Sarduy and the Neo-baroque Image of Thought in the Visual Arts Rolando Perez,2012 Severo Sarduy never enjoyed the same level of notoriety as did other Latin American writers On the other hand he never lacked for excellent critical interpretations of his work from critics like Roberto González Echevarría and Renée Prieto. Gustavo Guerrero and other reputable scholars. Missing however from what is otherwise an impressive body of critical commentary is a study of the importance of painting and architecture first to his theory and second to his creative work. In order to fill this lacuna in Sarduy studies, Rolando Pérez's book undertakes a critical approach to Sarduy's essays: Barroco Escrito sobre un cuerpo Barroco y neobarroco and La simulación from the standpoint of art history. In short, no book on Sarduy until now has traced the multifaceted art historical background that informed the work of this challenging and exciting writer. It will be a book that many a critic of Sarduy and the Latin American baroque will consult in years to come.

El impacto narrativo del cuerpo humano Romina Irene Palacios Espinoza, 2024-12-16 The book explores the representation of the human body in Chilean author Lina Meruane's Trilogy of Sickness, Rotten Fruit, Blood in the Eye and Nervous System. The interdisciplinary narratological and hermeneutic analysis draws on the notions of lived body and physical body to highlight how elements and forms of the human body narrative impact the narrative structure and plot development of the three novels.

Consuming Citizens Iván Eusebio Aguirre Darancou, 2025-05-01 Explores twentieth century Mexican counterculture through the lens of pleasure, body autonomy and music and film undergrounds. Consuming Citizens offers a fresh conception of twentieth century Mexican cultural production by critically tracing the underside of mestizo modernity. Examining a diverse corpus that includes poetry, song, avant-garde film and more from the 1920s to 80s, the volume uses queer feminist and psychedelic theories to understand counterculture and especially different acts of consumption as a way of creating culture and alternative social structures. Practices of consuming media, sex and drugs become means of generating community among subjects who have been marginalized by the nominally inclusive mestizo nation. Consuming Citizens thus rethinks nationalism, citizenship and society in relation to and as creations of countercultural bodies.

Non-Normative Sexualities in US Latinx and Latin American Literature Through a Capitalist Lens Kathryn Quinn-Sánchez, Michele Shaul, 2023-12-06 Non-Normative Sexualities in US Latinx and Latin American Literature Through a Capitalist Lens studies how Latin American and Latinx authors represent non-normative sexualities through a capitalist lens. In our society, heterosexuality manifests as privilege and has been normalized to such an extent that any sexuality that is perceived as different from the dominant cis-gendered heteropatriarchal norm is considered deviant. Non-normative sexualities continue to be viewed by society as detrimental to the health of the nation. Consequently, how one is perceived by the dominant culture continues to limit one's ability to thrive. Each chapter serves to analyze how one's perceived gender identity or sexuality can block access to economic opportunity. Queer, trans, spatial and intersectional theories form the base of the literary analyses. One of the contributors' goals is to present capitalism as it is intersectionally present in life, identity and society. The authors studied in this collection come from the USA, Puerto Rico, Mexico and the Southern Cone of Latin America.

Love, Sex & Eroticism in Contemporary Latin American Literature Alun Kenwood, 1992

From Abortion to Reproductive Freedom

Marlene Gerber Fried, 1990 This anthology argues for an expansion of the single issue abortion rights movement into a multi cultural feminist movement in the United States      Diamela Eltit Mary Green, 2007 Thirty five years after her death this book reassesses the Argentinian poet Alejandra Pizarnik 1936 72 in the light of recent publications of her complete poetry and prose diaries and previously unavailable archive material The essays in this volume explore Pizarnik s work from new angles they examine her production as a literary critic revealing her intense identificatory strategies as a reader and the impact of such activities upon her own creative process They also weigh up the influence of her ambiguous attitudes towards sexuality on her poetic personae as well as the ways in which her concern with sex inspires her experimentation with humorous prose New approaches are taken to key texts and themes in the case of the much studied work La condesa sangrienta through a detailed philosophical reading involving comparisons with Kafka and in the case of the theme of the split subject through the lens of translation By broadening the scope of Pizarnik studies this book will act as a catalyst for further research into the work of this compelling poet      Latin American Literature at the Millennium Cecily Raynor, 2021-04-16 Latin American Literature at the Millennium Local Lives Global Spaces analyzes literary constructions of locality from the early 1990s to the mid 2010s In this astute study Raynor reads work by Roberto Bola o Valeria Luiselli Luiz Ruffato Bernardo Carvalho Jo o Gilberto Noll and Wilson Bueno to reveal representations of the human experience that unsettle conventionally understood links between locality and geographical place The book raises vital considerations for understanding the region s transition into the twenty first century and for evaluating Latin American authors representations of everyday place and modes of belonging
