The Gift of the Nile Phiroze Vasunia,2001-12-04 The Egyptians mesmerized the ancient Greeks for scores of years The Greek literature and art of the classical period are especially thick with representations of Egypt and Egyptians Yet despite numerous firsthand contacts with Egypt Greek writers constructed their own Egypt one that differed in significant ways from actual Egyptian history society and culture Informed by recent work on orientalism and colonialism this book unravels the significance of these misrepresentations of Egypt in the Greek cultural imagination in the fifth and fourth centuries B C E Looking in particular at issues of identity otherness and cultural anxiety Phiroze Vasunia shows how Greek authors constructed an image of Egypt that reflected their own attitudes and prejudices about Greece itself He focuses his discussion on Aeschylus Suppliants Book 2 of Herodotus Euripides Helen Plato's Phaedrus Timaeus and Critias and Isocrates Busiris Reconstructing the history of the bias that informed these writings Vasunia shows that Egypt in these works was shaped in relation to Greek institutions values and ideas on such subjects as gender and sexuality death writing and political and ethnic identity This study traces the tendentiousness of Greek representations by introducing comparative Egyptian material thus interrogating the Greek texts and authors from a cross cultural perspective A final chapter also considers the invasion of Egypt by Alexander the Great and shows how he exploited and revised the discursive tradition in his conquest of the country Firmly and knowledgeably rooted in classical studies and the ancient sources this study takes a broad look at the issue of cross cultural exchange in antiquity by framing it within the perspective of contemporary cultural studies In addition this provocative and original work shows how Greek writers made possible literary Europe's most persistent and adaptable obsession the barbarian

Egypt Christina Riggs, 2017-04-15 From Roman villas to Hollywood films ancient Egypt has been a source of fascination and inspiration in many other cultures But why exactly has this been the case In this book Christina Riggs examines the history art and religion of ancient Egypt to illuminate why it has been so influential throughout the centuries In doing so she shows how the ancient past has always been used to serve contemporary purposes Often characterized as a lost civilization that was discovered by adventurers and archeologists Egypt has meant many things to many different people Ancient Greek and Roman writers admired ancient Egyptian philosophy and this admiration would influence ideas about Egypt in Renaissance Europe as well as the Arabic speaking world By the eighteenth century secret societies like the Freemasons looked to ancient Egypt as a source of wisdom but as modern Egypt became the focus of Western military strategy and economic exploitation in the nineteenth and early twentieth centuries its ancient remains came to be seen as exotic primitive or even dangerous tangled in the politics of racial science and archaeology The curse of the pharaohs or the seductiveness of Cleopatra were myths that took on new meanings in the colonial era while ancient Egypt also inspired modernist anti colonial movements in the arts such as in the Harlem Renaissance and Egyptian Pharaonism Today ancient Egypt whether through actual relics or through cultural homage can be found from museum galleries to tattoo parlors Riggs helps us understand why this lost civilization continues to be a touchpoint for defining and debating who we are today Dotawo Dotawo Journal,2019-02-05 Dotawo A Journal of Nubian Studies offers a platform in which the old meets the new in which archaeological papyrological and philological research into Meroitic Old Nubian Coptic Greek and Arabic sources confront current investigations in modern anthropology and ethnography Nilo Saharan linguistics and the critical and theoretical approaches of postcolonial and African studies Dotawo gives a common home to the past present and future of one of the richest areas of research in African studies It offers a crossroads where papyrus can meet the internet scribes meet critical thinkers and the promises of growing nations meet the accomplishments of older kingdoms Volume 5 of Dotawo focuses on Nubian women both ancient and contemporary Nubian women whether they were queens or commoners Christians or Muslims have always been held in high esteem by their communities The articles in this volume of Dotawo focus on the ways in which Nubian women survive and thrive throughout the centuries
