Ein Hauch Von Habsburg:

The Habsburg Monarchy's Many-Languaged Soul Michaela Wolf, 2015-05-28 In the years between 1848 and 1918 the Habsburg Empire was an intensely pluricultural space that brought together numerous nationalities under constantly changing and contested linguistic regimes The multifaceted forms of translation and interpreting marked by national struggles and extensive multilingualism played a crucial role in constructing cultures within the Habsburg space This book traces translation and interpreting practices in the Empire's administration courts and diplomatic service and takes account of the habitualized translation carried out in everyday life It then details the flows of translation among the Habsburg crownlands and between these and other European languages with a special focus on Italian German exchange Applying a broad concept of cultural translation and working with sociological tools the book addresses the mechanisms by which translation and interpreting constructs cultures and delineates a model of the Habsburg Monarchy's pluricultural space of communication that is also applicable to other multilingual settings Published with the support of the Austrian Science Fund FWF  width 300

History of the Literary Cultures of East-Central Europe Marcel Cornis-Pope, John Neubauer, 2004-05-28 National literary histories based on internally homogeneous native traditions have significantly contributed to the construction of national identities especially in multicultural East Central Europe the region between the German and Russian hegemonic cultural powers stretching from the Baltic states to the Balkans History of the Literary Cultures of East Central Europe which covers the last two hundred years reconceptualizes these literary traditions by de emphasizing the national myths and by highlighting analogies and points of contact as well as hybrid and marginal phenomena that traditional national histories have ignored or deliberately suppressed The four volumes of the History configure the literatures from five angles 1 key political events 2 literary periods and genres 3 cities and regions 4 literary institutions and 5 real and imaginary figures The first volume which includes the first two of these dimensions is a collaborative effort of more than fifty contributors from Eastern and Western Europe the US and Canada The four volumes of the History comprise the first volume in the new subseries on Literary Cultures
