Film, Form, and Culture Robert P.

Kolker, Marsha Gordon, 2024-03-29 This fifth edition of Film Form and Culture offers a lively introduction to both the formal and cultural aspects of film. With extensive analysis of films past and present, this textbook explores how films are constructed from part to whole, from the smallest unit of the shot to the way shots are edited together to create narrative. Robert P. Kolker and Marsha Gordon demystify the technical aspects of filmmaking and demonstrate how fiction and nonfiction films engage with culture. Over 265 images provide a visual index to the films and issues being discussed. This new edition includes an expanded examination of digital filmmaking and distribution in the age of streaming, attention to superhero films throughout, a significantly longer chapter on global cinema with new or enlarged sections on a variety of national cinemas including cinema from Nigeria, Senegal, Burkina Faso, South Korea, Japan, India, Belgium, and Iran, new or expanded discussions of directors including Alice Guy, Blaise Cendrars, Lois Weber, Oscar Micheaux, Agnès Varda, Spike Lee, Julie Dash, Jafar Panahi, Ava DuVernay, Jane Campion, Jean-Pierre and Luc Dardenne, and Penny Lane, and new in-depth explorations of films including Within Our Gates (1919), Black Girl (1966), Creed (2015), Moonlight (2016), Wonder Woman (2017), Get Out (2017), Black Panther (2018), Parasite (2019), Da 5 Bloods (2020), The French Dispatch (2021), The Power of the Dog (2021), RRR (2022), and T r (2022). Animation in Context Mark Collington, 2017-02-09 Animation in Context is an illustrated introduction to cultural theory, contextual research, and critical analysis. By making academic language more accessible, it empowers animators with the confidence and enthusiasm to engage with theory as a fun, integral, and applied part of the creative process. Interviews with contemporary industry professionals and academics, student case studies, and a range of practical research exercises combine to encourage a more versatile approach to animation practice, from creating storyboards to set designs and soundtracks, as well as developing virals, 3D zoetropes, and projection mapping visuals. Mark Collington focuses on a core selection of theoretical approaches that shape animation narrative, supported by a broader set of shared theoretical principles from the worlds of art, design, film, and media studies. This discussion is underpinned by cross-disciplinary thinking on a range of topics, including genre, humour, montage, and propaganda. These are applied to the analysis of a range of animated films and projects from Disney and Pixar to independent artist filmmakers such as Wendy Tilby, Amanda Forbis, and Jerzy Kucia. These ideas are also applied to other uses of animation, such as advertising, sitcom, gaming, and animated documentary.

America's Corporate Art Jerome Christensen, 2012-01-11 Contrary to theories of single person authorship, America's Corporate Art argues that the corporate studio is the author of Hollywood motion pictures, both during the classical era of the studio system and beyond, when studios became players in global dramas staged by massive entertainment conglomerates. Hollywood movies are examples of a commodity that, until the digital age, was rare: a self-advertising artifact that markets the studio.

brand in the very act of consumption The book covers the history of corporate authorship through the antithetical visions of two of the most dominant Hollywood studios Warner Bros and MGM During the classical era these studios promoted their brands as competing social visions in strategically significant pictures such as MGM's Singin in the Rain and Warner's The Fountainhead Christensen follows the studios divergent fates as MGM declined into a valuable and portable logo while Warner Bros employed Batman JFK and You've Got Mail to seal deals that made it the biggest entertainment corporation in the world The book concludes with an analysis of the Disney Pixar merger and the first two Toy Story movies in light of the recent judicial extension of constitutional rights of the corporate person

Politics Goes to the Movies Robert Kolker, 2018-03-14 Politics Goes to the Movies introduces the topic of political representation and ideology by analyzing some of the most important politically themed films across the history of cinema in a refreshing and concise volume Offering a survey of political cinema from 1915 to present day topics include propaganda Communism Fascism revolutionary cinema and contemporary documentary Using individual case studies that begin with The Birth of a Nation and end with O J Made in America the book introduces how various strands of international politics have been woven through the fabric of cinema by contextualizing each film in its particular historical moment In addition Robert Kolker offers formal analyses that explore not only overtly political themes but also how the structural properties of a film can themselves be political how political films are made politically Including films produced across Europe North Africa the US and Latin America this accessible and engaging book is an ideal introductory text for students of political cinema

The Palgrave Handbook of Sound Design and Music in Screen Media Liz Greene, Danijela Kulezic-Wilson, 2016-12-14 This book bridges the existing gap between film sound and film music studies by bringing together scholars from both disciplines who challenge the constraints of their subject areas by thinking about integrated approaches to the soundtrack As the boundaries between scoring and sound design in contemporary cinema have become increasingly blurred both film music and film sound studies have responded by expanding their range of topics and the scope of their analysis beyond those traditionally addressed The running theme of the book is the disintegration of boundaries which permeates discussions about industry labour technology aesthetics and audiovisual spectatorship The collaborative nature of screen media is addressed not only in scholarly chapters but also through interviews with key practitioners that include sound recordists sound designers composers orchestrators and music supervisors who honed their skills on films TV programmes video games commercials and music videos

Solzhenitsyn's Traditional Imagination James M. Curtis, 2008 Most critics overlook the literary significance of Alexander Solzhenitsyn's work focusing instead on biographical political and moral interpretations This examination of Solzhenitsyn's major novels One Day in the Life of Ivan Denisovitch The First Circle Cancer Ward and August 1914 emphasizes that his writings must be understood within the tradition of Russian literature and the context of Western culture James M Curtis provides a detailed analysis of Tolstoy s crucial influence on Solzhenitsyn and he discusses at length Solzhenitsyn s relationship to Dostoyevsky Leskov Chekhov and Zamyatin Curtis also demonstrates that a study of Ernest Hemingway whose books have been enormously popular in Russia and Virginia Woolf can contribute to our understanding of the Russian novelist Solzhenitsyn s Traditional Imagination includes a chapter on Dos Passos and Eisenstein whose work constituted Solzhenitsyn s first major artistic interest outside Russian literature The chapter presents the first comprehensive examination of the importance of film for Solzhenitsyn and shows how he learned the use of film technique in literature from Dos Passos and how he adapted it from Eisenstein s films This was the first full length study to use Solzhenitsyn s revised editions of One Day The First Circle and Cancer Ward all published in 1978 Professor Curtis s careful use of the best available texts together with his wide knowledge of contemporary literary criticism and his insistence upon Solzhenitsyn s purely literary importance make this a valuable book for all students of Solzhenitsyn s fiction
