Voices from the Soviet Edge Jeff Sahadeo, 2019-06-15

Jeff Sahadeo reveals the complex and fascinating stories of migrant populations in Leningrad and Moscow

Voices from the Soviet Edge focuses on the hundreds of thousands of Uzbeks Tajiks Georgians Azerbaijanis and others who arrived toward the end of the Soviet era seeking opportunity at the privileged heart of the USSR

Through the extensive oral histories Sahadeo has collected he shows how the energy of these migrants denigrated as Blacks by some Russians transformed their families lives and created inter republican networks altering society and community in both the center and the periphery of life in the two capitals

Voices from the Soviet Edge connects Leningrad and Moscow to transnational trends of core periphery movement and marks them as global cities

In examining Soviet concepts such as friendship of peoples alongside ethnic and national differences Sahadeo shows how those ideas became racialized but could also be deployed to advance migrant aspirations

He exposes the Brezhnev era as a time of dynamism and opportunity and Leningrad and Moscow not as isolated outposts of privilege but at the heart of any number of systems that linked the disparate regions of the USSR into a whole

In the 1980s as the Soviet Union crumbled migration increased

These later migrants were the forbears of contemporary Muslims from former Soviet spaces who now confront significant discrimination in European Russia

As Sahadeo demonstrates the two cities benefited from 1980s migration but also became communities where racism and exclusion coexisted with citizenship and Soviet identity
