Baroque Spain and the Writing of Visual and Material Culture Alicia R Zuese, 2015-11-20 By examining the pictorial episodes in the Spanish baroque novella this book elucidates how writers create pictorial texts how audiences visualise their words what consequences they exert on cognition and what actions this process inspires To interrogate characters mental activity internalisation of text and the effects on memory this book applies methodologies from cognitive cultural studies Classical memory treatises and techniques of spiritual visualisation It breaks new ground by investigating how artistic genres and material culture help us grasp the audience's aural material visual and textual literacies which equipped the public with cognitive mechanisms to face restrictions in post Counter Reformation Spain. The writers examined include prominent representatives of Spanish prose: Cervantes, Lope de Vega, Mar a de Zayas and Luis V lez de Guevara as well as Alonso de Castillo Sol rzano, Gonzalo de Cspedes y Meneses and an anonymous group in C rdoba.

Love Poetry in the Spanish Golden Age Isabel Torres, 2013. This work engages with a broader evaluation of early modern poetics that foregrounds the processes rather than the products of thinking. The locus of the study is the Imperial home space where love poetry meets early modern empire at the inception of a very conflicted national consciousness and where the vernacular language Castilian emerges in the encounter as a strategic site of national and imperial identity. The political is therefore a pervasive presence teased out where relevant in recognition of the poet's sensitivity to the ideologies within which writing comes into being. But the primary commitment of the book is to lyric poetry and to poets individually and in their dynamic interconnectedness. Moving beyond a re-evaluation of critical responses to four major poets of the period: Garcilaso de la Vega, Herrera, G ngora and Quevedo, this study disengages respectfully with the substantial body of biographical research that continues to impact upon our understanding of the genre and renegotiates the Foucauldian concept of the epistemic break often associated with the anti-mimetic impulses of the Baroque. This more flexible model accommodates the multiperspectivism that interrogated Imperial ideology even in the earliest sixteenth-century poetry and allows for the exploration of new horizons in interpretation. Signs of Power in Habsburg Spain and the New World Jason McCloskey, Ignacio L p ez Alemany, 2013-03-22. Signs of Power in Habsburg Spain and the New World explores the representation of political, economic, military, religious and juridical power in texts and artifacts from early modern Spain and her American viceroyalties. In addition to analyzing the dynamics of power in written texts chapters also examine pieces of material culture including coats of arms coins paintings and engravings As the essays demonstrate many of these objects work to transform the amorphous concept of power into a material reality with considerable symbolic dimensions subject to and dependent on interpretation With its broad approach to the discourses of power Signs of Power brings together studies of both canonical literary works as well as more obscure texts and objects The position of the works studied with respect to the official center of power also varies Whereas certain essays focus on the ways in which portrayals of power champion the aspirations of the Spanish Crown other essays attend to voices of dissent that effectively call into question that authority

Writing for the Eyes in the Spanish Golden Age Frederick A. De Armas, 2004 Although the very notion of writing for the eyes was not new to the Spanish Golden Age its ubiquitous presence during this period calls for rethinking of the traditional separation between the visual and the verbal in studies of Iberian culture This collection of essays seeks to open up this complex interdisciplinary field of study by including essays on many aspects of visual writing in sixteenth and seventeenth century Spain Jacket

Minding Animals in the Old and New Worlds Steven Wagschal, 2018-11-05 Minding Animals in the Old and New Worlds employs current research in cognitive science and the philosophy of animal cognition to explore how humans have understood non human animals in the Iberian world from the Middle Ages through the early modern period Using texts from European and Indigenously informed sources Steven Wagschal argues that people tend to conceptualize the minds of animals in ways that reflect their own uses for the animal the manner in which they interact with the animal and the place in which the animal lives Often this has little if anything to do with the actual cognitive abilities of the animal However occasionally early authors made surprisingly accurate assumptions about the thoughts and feelings of animals Wagschal explores a number of ways in which culture and human cognition interact including the utility of anthropomorphism the symbolic use of animals in medieval Christian texts attempts at understanding the minds of animals in Spain s early modern farming and hunting books the effect of novelty on animal conceptualizations in New World histories and how Cervantes navigated the forms of anthropomorphism that preceded him to create the first embodied animal minds in fiction

Subject Stages María Mercedes Carrión,2010-01-01 Subject Stages argues that the discourses and practices of marital legislation litigation and theatrics informed each other in early modern Spain in ways that still have a critical bearing on contemporary events in Spain such as the legalization of divorce in 1978 and of same sex marriage in 2005 Imagining Arcadia in Renaissance Romance Marsha S. Collins,2016-03-22 From Theocritus Idylls to James Cameron s Avatar Arcadia remains an enduring presence in world culture and a persistent source of creative inspiration Why does Arcadia still exercise such a powerful pull on the imagination This book responds by arguing that in sixteenth century Europe a dramatic shift took place in imagining Arcadia The traditional visions of Arcadia collided and fused with romance the new experimental form of prose fiction producing a hybrid dynamic world of change and transformation Emphasizing matters of fictional function and world making over generic classification Imagining Arcadia in Renaissance Romance analyzes the role of romance as a catalyst in remaking Arcadia in five canonical sixteenth century texts Sannazaro s Arcadia Montemayor s La Diana Cervantes La Galatea Sidney s Arcadia and Lope de Vega s Arcadia Collins analyses of the re imagined Arcadia in these works elucidate the interplay between timely incursions into the fictional world and the timelessness of art highlighting issues of freedom identity formation subjectivity and self fashioning the intersection of public and private activity and the fascination with mortality This book addresses the under representation of Spanish literature in Early Modern literary histories especially regarding the rich Spanish contribution to the pastoral and to idealizing fiction in the West Companion chapters on Cervantes and Sidney add to the growing field of Anglo Spanish comparative literary studies while the book s comparative and transnational approach extends discussion of the pastoral beyond the boundaries of national literary traditions This book s innovative approach to these fictional worlds sheds new light on Arcadia s enduring presence in the collective imagination today     Shakespeare and the Visual Arts Michele Marrapodi, 2017-02-17 Critical investigation into the rubric of Shakespeare and the visual arts has generally focused on the influence exerted by the works of Shakespeare on a number of artists painters and sculptors in the course of the centuries Drawing on the poetics of intertextuality and profiting from the more recent concepts of cultural mobility and permeability between cultures in the early modern period this volume s tripartite structure considers instead the relationship between Renaissance material arts theatre and emblems as an integrated and intermedial genre explores the use and function of Italian visual culture in Shakespeare s oeuvre and questions the appropriation of the arts in the production of the drama of Shakespeare and his contemporaries By studying the intermediality between theatre and the visual arts the volume extols drama as a hybrid genre combining the figurative power of imagery with the plasticity of the acting process and explains the tri dimensional quality of the dramatic discourse in the verbal visual interaction the stagecraft of the performance and the natural legacy of the iconographical topoi of painting s cognitive structures This methodological approach opens up a new perspective in the intermedial construction of Shakespearean and early modern drama extending the concept of theatrical intertextuality to the field of pictorial arts and their social cultural resonance An afterword written by an expert in the field a rich bibliography of primary and secondary literature and a detailed Index round off the volume     Beyond Sight Ryan D. Giles, Steven Wagschal, 2018-01-18 Beyond Sight edited by Ryan D Giles and Steven Wagschal explores the ways in which Iberian writers crafted images of both Old and New Worlds using the non visual senses hearing smell taste and touch The contributors argue that the uses of these senses are central to understanding Iberian authors and thinkers from the pre and early modern periods Medievalists delve into the poetic interiorizations of the sensorial plane to show how sacramental and purportedly miraculous sensory experiences were central to the effort of affirming faith and understanding indigenous peoples in the Americas Renaissance and early modernist essays shed new light on experiences of pungent bustling ports and city centres and the exotic musical performances of empire This insightful collection covers a wide array of approaches including literary and cultural history philosophical aesthetics affective and cognitive studies and theories of embodiment Beyond Sight expands the field of sensory studies to focus on the Iberian Peninsula and its colonies from historical literary and cultural perspectives     The Arts of Encounter Catherine Infante, 2022-03-01 Images of crosses the Virgin Mary and Christ among other devotional objects pervaded nearly every aspect of public and private life in early modern Spain but they were also a point of contention between Christian and Muslim cultures Writers of narrative fiction theatre and poetry were attuned to these debates and religious imagery played an important role in how early modern writers chose to portray relations between Christians and Muslims Drawing on a wide variety of literary genres as well as other textual and visual sources including historical chronicles travel memoirs captives testimonies and paintings Catherine Infante traces the references to religious visual culture and the responses they incited in cross confessional negotiations She reveals some of the anxieties about what it meant to belong to different ethnic or religious communities and how these communities interacted with each other within the fluid boundaries of the Mediterranean world Focusing on the religious image as a point of contact between individuals of diverse beliefs and practices The Arts of Encounter presents an original and necessary perspective on how Christian Muslim relations were perceived and conveyed in print

Representing War and Violence Joanna Bellis, Laura Slater, 2016 An examination of written and other responses to conflict in a variety of forms and genres from the thirteenth to the seventeenth century War and violence took many forms in medieval and early modern Europe from political and territorial conflict to judicial and social spectacle from religious persecution and crusade to self mortification and martyrdom from comedic brutality to civil and domestic aggression Various cultural frameworks conditioned both the acceptance of these forms of violence and the protest that they met with the elusive concept of chivalry Christianity and just war theory political ambition and the machinery of propaganda literary genres and the expectations they generated and challenged The essays here from the disciplines of history art history and literature explore how violence and conflict were documented depicted narrated and debated during this period They consider manuals created for and addressed directly to kings and aristocratic patrons romances whose affective treatments of violence invited profoundly empathetic even troublingly pleasurable responses diaries and autobiographies compiled on the field and redacted for publication and self promotion The ethics and aesthetics of representation as much as the violence being represented emerge as a profound and constant theme for writers and artists grappling with this most fundamental and difficult topic of human experience

Objects of Culture in the Literature of Imperial Spain Mary Barnard, Frederick A. de Armas, 2013-03-14 Collecting and displaying finely crafted objects was a mark of character among the royals and aristocrats in Early Modern Spain it ranked with extravagant hospitality as a sign of nobility and with virtue as a token of princely power Objects of Culture in the Literature of Imperial Spain explores how the writers of the period shared the same impulse to collect arrange and display objects though in imagined settings as literary artefacts These essays examine a variety of cultural objects described or alluded to in books from the Golden Age of Spanish literature including clothing paintings tapestries playing cards monuments materials of war and even enchanted bronze heads The contributors emphasize how literature preserved and transformed objects to endow them with new meaning for aesthetic social religious and political purposes whether to perpetuate certain habits of thought and belief or to challenge accepted social and moral norms      Visions of Empire in Colonial Spanish American Ekphrastic Writing Kathryn M.
