Rethinking Chicana/o and Latina/o Popular Culture D. Pérez, 2016-02-05 Through a gender ethnicity and sexuality lens Pérez demonstrates that queer Chicana/o and Latina/o identities are much more prevalent in cultural production than most people think By claiming a variety of characters and texts as queer he expands the breadth of queer representation in cultural production The Cambridge Companion to the Literature of Los Angeles Kevin R. McNamara, 2010-05-06 Diverse vibrant and challenging as the city itself this Companion is the definitive guide to LA in literature Reframing Latin America Erik Ching, Christina Buckley, Angélica Lozano-Alonso, 2009-06-03 Providing an extensive introduction to cultural studies in general regardless of chronological or geographic focus and presenting provocative essential readings from Latin American writers of the last two centuries Reframing Latin America brings much needed accessibility to the concepts of cultural studies and postmodernism From Saussure to semiotics the authors begin by demystifying terminology then guide readers through five identity constructs including nation race and gender The readings that follow are presented with insightful commentary and encompass such themes as Civilized Folk Marry the Barbarians including José Martí's Our America and Boom Goes the Literature Magical Realism as the True Latin America featuring Elena Garro's essay It's the Fault of the Tlaxcaltecas Films such as Like Water for Chocolate are discussed in depth as well The result is a lively interdisciplinary guide for theorists and novices alike Critical Essays on Chicano Studies Ramón Espejo, 2007 This book explores the most recent critical and theoretical approaches in the field of Chicano studies from an interdisciplinary perspective The contributions go back to the 4th International Conference on Chicano Literature which took place in Sevilla in May 2004 They deal with a wide variety of topics and approach the subject from diverse viewpoints Some examine specific literary texts by major Chicano authors from feminist comparative and close reading approaches others discuss ideological and cultural issues like folklore ethnicity identity sexuality or stereotypes while yet others focus on artistic manifestations like films and murals Furthermore the volume also includes an interview with the Chicana writer Ana Castillo The main goal of this collection is to find new cultural possibilities and strategies while exploring future dilemmas in the field of Chicano Studies Fatherhood in the Borderlands Domino Renee Perez, 2022-12-06 2023 Finalist Best Academic Themed Book College Level English International Latino Book Awards A contemplative exploration of cultural representations of Mexican American fathers in contemporary media As a young girl growing up in Houston Texas in the 1980s Domino Perez spent her free time either devouring books or watching films and thinking always thinking about the media she consumed The meaningful connections between these media and how we learn form the basis of Perez's slow research approach to race class and gender in the borderlands Part cultural history part literary criticism part memoir Fatherhood in the Borderlands takes an incisive look at the value of creative inquiry while it examines the nuanced portrayal of Mexican American fathers in literature and film Perez reveals a shifting tension in the literal and figurative borderlands of popular narratives and shows how form genre and subject work to determine the roles Mexican American fathers are allowed to occupy She also calls our attention to the cultural landscape that has allowed such a racialized representation of Mexican American fathers to continue unopposed for so many years Fatherhood in the Borderlands brings readers right to the intersection of the white cultural mainstream in the United States and Mexican American cultural productions carefully considering the legibility and illegibility of Brown fathers in contemporary media

Land of Smoke and Mirrors Vincent Brook, 2013-01-22 Unlike the more forthrightly mythic origins of other urban centers think Rome via Romulus and Remus or Mexico City via the god Huitzilopochtli Los Angeles emerged from a smoke and mirrors process that is simultaneously literal and figurative real and imagined material and metaphorical physical and textual Through penetrating analysis and personal engagement Vincent Brook uncovers the many portraits of this ever enticing ever ambivalent and increasingly multicultural megalopolis Divided into sections that probe Los Angeles's checkered history and reflect on Hollywood's own self-reflections the book shows how the city despite considerable remaining challenges is finally blowing away some of the smoke of its not always proud past and rhetorically adjusting its rear view mirrors Part I is a review of the city's history through the early 1900s focusing on the seminal 1884 novel Ramona and its immediate effect but also exploring its ongoing impact through interviews with present day Tongva Indians attendance at the 88th annual Ramona pageant and analysis of its feature film adaptations Brook deals with Hollywood as geographical site film production center and frame of mind in Part II He charts the events leading up to Hollywood's emergence as the world's movie capital and explores subsequent developments of the film industry from its golden age through the so-called New Hollywood citing such self-reflexive films as Sunset Blvd Singin' in the Rain and The Truman Show Part III considers LA noir a subset of film noir that emerged alongside the classical noir cycle in the 1940s and 1950s and continues today The city's status as a privileged noir site is analyzed in relation to its history and through discussions of such key LA noir novels and films as Double Indemnity Chinatown and Crash In Part IV Brook examines multicultural Los Angeles Using media texts as signposts he maps the history and contemporary situation of the city's major ethno-racial and other minority groups looking at such films as Mi Familia Latinos Boyz n the Hood African Americans Charlotte Sometimes Asians Falling Down Whites and The Kids Are All Right LGBT

American History Goes to the Movies W. Bryan Rommel Ruiz, 2011-01-26 Whether they prefer blockbusters historical dramas or documentaries people learn much of what they know about history from the movies In American History Goes to the Movies W. Bryan Rommel Ruiz shows how popular representations of historic events shape the way audiences understand the history of the United States including American representations of race and gender and stories of immigration especially the familiar narrative of the American Dream Using films from many different genres American History Goes to the Movies draws together movies that depict the Civil War the Wild West the assassination of JFK and the events of 9/11 from The Birth of a Nation and Gone with the Wind to The Exorcist and United 93 to show how viewers use movies to make sense of the past addressing not only how we render history for popular enjoyment but also how Hollywood's renderings of America influence the way Americans see themselves and how they make sense of the world

Chicana/o Identity in a Changing U.S. Society Aída Hurtado, Patricia Gurin, 2023-01-10 What does it mean to be Chicana/o That question might not be answered the same as it was a generation ago As the United States witnesses a major shift in its population from a white majority to a country where no single group predominates the new mix not only affects relations between ethnic groups but also influences how individuals view themselves This book addresses the development of individual and social identity within the context of these new demographic and cultural shifts It identifies the contemporary forces that shape group identity in order to show how Chicana/os sense of personal identity and social identity develops and how these identities are affected by changes in social relations The authors both nationally recognized experts in social psychology are concerned with the subjective definitions individuals have about the social groups with which they identify as well as with linguistic cultural and social contexts Their analysis reveals what the majority of Chicanas/os experience using examples from music movies and the arts to illustrate complex concepts In considering Qui n Soy Who Am I they discuss how individuals develop a positive sense of who they are as Chicanas/os with an emphasis on the influence of family schools and community Regarding Qui nes Somos Who Are We they explore Chicanas/os different group memberships that define who they are as a people particularly reviewing the colonization history of the American Southwest to show how Chicanas/os group identity is influenced by this history A chapter on Language Culture and Community looks at how Chicanas/os define their social identities inside and outside their communities whether in the classroom neighborhood or region In a final chapter the authors speculate how Chicana/o identity will change as Chicanas/os become a significant proportion of the U S population and as such factors as immigration intermarriage and improvements in social standing influence the process of identification At the end of each chapter is an engaging exercise that reinforces its main argument and shows how psychological approaches are applicable to real life Chicana/o Identity in a Changing U S Society is an unprecedented introduction to psychological issues that students can relate to and understand It complements other titles in the Mexican American Experience series to provide a balanced view of issues that affect Mexican Americans today

The Other in Contemporary Migrant Cinema Guido Rings,2016-01-08 As a rapidly aging continent Europe increasingly depends on the successful integration of migrants Unfortunately contemporary political and media discourses observe and frequently also support the development of nationalist eurosceptic and xenophobic reactions to immigration and growing multiethnicity Confronting this trend European cinema has developed and disseminated new transcultural and postcolonial alternatives that might help to improve integration and community cohesion in Europe and this book investigates these alternatives in order to identify examples of good practices that can enhance European stability While the cinematic spectrum is as wide and open as most notions of Europeanness the films examined share a fundamental interest in the Other In this qualitative film analysis approach particular consideration is given to British French German and Spanish productions and a comparison of multiethnic conviviality in Chicano cinema
