The Politics of Female Households: Ladies-in-waiting across Early Modern Europe, 2013-10-24 The Politics of Female Households is the first collection that seeks to integrate ladies in waiting into the master narrative of early modern court studies Presenting evidence and analysis of the multifarious ways in which women above stairs shaped the European courts of the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries it argues for a re assessment of their political influence The cultural agency of ladies in waiting is viewed in the reflection of portraiture pamphlets and masques their political dealings and patronage are revealed through analysis of letters family networks career patterns gift exchange and household structures as well as their activities in the fields of intelligence gathering and espionage By concentrating on a previously neglected area of female agency this collection demonstrates clearly that the political climate of Europe was often shaped outside the male dominated institutions of government and administration Contributors include Helen Graham Matheson Hannah Leah Crumm Katrin Keller Vanessa de Cruz Birgit Houben Dries Raeymaekers Janet Ravenscroft Una McIlvenna Rosalind K Marshall Oliver Mallick Cynthia Fry Nadine Akkerman Sara J Wolfson Fabian Persson and Jeroen Duindam

Discovery of El Greco Eric Storm, 2016-05-24 Originally published in Dutch and translated to Spanish for the fourth centenary celebration of the death of El Greco in 2014 this book is a comprehensive study of the rediscovery of El Greco seen as one of the most important events of its kind in art history The Nationalization of Culture versus the Rise of Modern Art analyses how changes in artistic taste in the second half of the nineteenth century caused a profound revision of the place of El Greco in the artistic canon As a result El Greco was transformed from an extravagant outsider and a secondary painter into the founder of the Spanish School and one of the principle predecessors of modern art increasingly related to that of the Impressionists due primarily to the German critic Julius Meier Graefe's influential History of Modern Art 1914 This shift in artistic preference has been attributed to the rise of modern art but Eric Storm a cultural historian shows that in the case of El Greco nationalist motives were even more important This study examines the work of painters art critics writers scholars and philosophers from France Germany and Spain and the role of exhibitions auctions monuments and commemorations Paintings and associated anecdotes are discussed and historical debates such as El Greco's supposed astigmatism are addressed in a highly readable and engaging style This book will be of interest to both specialists and the interested art public
