The Bookseller, 1879      New Directions in Literature and Medicine Studies Stephanie M. Hilger, 2017-11-11 This book is situated in the field of medical humanities and the articles continue the dialogue between the disciplines of literature and medicine that was initiated in the 1970s and has continued with ebbs and flows since then Recently the need to renew that interdisciplinary dialogue between these two fields which are both concerned with the human condition has resurfaced in the face of institutional challenges such as shrinking resources and the disappearance of many spaces devoted to the exchange of ideas between humanists and scientists This volume presents cutting edge research by scholars keen on not only maintaining but also enlivening that dialogue They come from a variety of cultural academic and disciplinary backgrounds and their essays are organized in four thematic clusters pedagogy the mind body connection alterity and medical practice
