

The image shows the front cover of a book. The cover is decorated with a dense, repeating pattern of almond-shaped motifs in various shades of brown and tan, set against a dark background. A dark blue horizontal band is positioned across the middle of the cover, containing the author's name in white capital letters. The book is resting on a dark wooden surface, and its spine is visible on the left side.

Edith Altman Retrospektive:

Edith Altman ,2003      Where We Find Ourselves Miriam Ben-Yoseph, Deborah Nodler Rosen, 2010-03-24 In this remarkable collection of essays stories and poems Jewish women writers from around the world offer diverse perspectives on the idea of home The longing for home is as ancient as the exile from Eden and for the thirty nine writers showcased in this anthology the struggle to find and redefine home has been intensified by history the Holocaust and the diverse cultural political and religious contexts in which they live and write Together they explore the many natures and meanings of home home as a place one is born to and sometimes forced to leave home as a place one can journey toward or create home as an abstract composite of memories emotions and rituals Some of these writers contend with exile and anti-Semitism others examine the mixed blessings of sheltered childhoods and all confront memories in which the historical and personal are intertwined Their range of perspectives and their personal approaches to a universal concern make Where We Find
