PanduRanga, Kanchugarakoppal, S. Rangappa, Fulzele, Tukaram U., 2013-01-31 Educational commissions continue to press the need for growth in higher education In particular universities in developing countries persist in putting their academic theory into practice by aiming to integrate their intellectual and cultural traditions into higher education Evolving Corporate Education Strategies for Developing Countries The Role of Universities presents the theories and opportunities for integrating corporate education into traditional universities as well as highlighting the professional development in different subject areas This book provides relevant research important for policy makers practitioners and scholars of higher education     Science Education in Canada Christine D. Tippet, Todd M. Milford, 2019-07-01 This book offers a meso level description of demographics science education and science teacher education Representing all 13 Canadian jurisdictions the book provides local insights that serve as the basis for exploring the Canadian system as a whole and function as a common starting point from which to identify causal relationships that may be associated with Canada's successes The book highlights commonalities consistencies and distinctions across the provinces and territories in a thematic analysis of the 13 jurisdiction specific chapters Although the analysis indicates a network of policy and practice issues warranting further consideration the diverse nature of Canadian science education makes simple identification of causal relationships elusive Canada has a reputation for strong science achievement However there is currently limited literature on science education in Canada at the general level or in specific areas such as Canadian science curriculum or science teacher education This book fills that gap by presenting a thorough description of science education at the provincial territorial level as well as a more holistic description of pressing issues for Canadian science education     Pitman's Journal of Commercial Education, 1892
