Education Moral Wisdom:

Education and Moral Wisdom George Nauman Shuster, 1960 Education and Moral Wisdom, Etc George Nauman SHUSTER, 1960 Ways of Wisdom Jean E. Friedman, Glenna R. Schroeder-Lein, 2001 In Ways of Wisdom Jean Friedman traces how Jacob Mordecai and his family German American Orthodox Jews adopted the Anglo Irish enlightened pedagogical system developed by Richard Lovell Edgeworth and his daughter Maria In 1808 Mordecai founded the Warrenton Female Academy on the enlightened principles described in the Edgeworths guide Practical Education and he enlisted family members to teach and manage the school Rachel Mordecai inspired by her father's progressive methods initiated an Edgeworthian experiment in home education on her young stepsister Eliza Rachel's diary reproduced in full in Ways of Wisdom chronicles the moral instruction of Eliza While retaining the traditional didacticism of wisdom literature the diary also describes Eliza's resistance to enlightened discipline and method Friedman's case study bears particular importance for scholars as it qualifies and enriches our understanding of the American Enlightenment as an amalgam of religious and ethnic assumptions rather than a universal acceptance of Liberalism or Republicanism Ways of Wisdom also offers an illuminating reinterpretation of Republican Motherhood as a culturally diverse and politically complicated domestic paradigm

A Christian Education in the Virtues James Arthur,2021-06-24 A Christian Education in the Virtues examines the connection between human nature and human flourishing It draws on ancient and medieval sources to explore the formation of the person based on a Christian anthropology emphasising the communal nature of the virtuous life and provides a richer approach to the question of contemporary character education The book argues that the only way to understand and construct our character virtues is to have a clear picture of what is the purpose and meaning of human life It highlights the importance of engaging with moral issues and makes the case that for Christian educators human flourishing is inseparable from God s active relationship to human beings The book also explores a teleological approach to character education goals To educate the whole person in the light of an all embracing Christian worldview is challenged by secular and liberal ideology and is often seen as irrational to the modern mind Overall the text seeks to demonstrate that many aspects of a Neo Aristotelian Thomist theoretical underpinning for Christian character education holds out a viable option for Christians It therefore argues the case for the educational potential of Christian character education This important book will be essential reading for academics researchers and students in the fields of character and virtue education religious education and the philosophy of education The Open Access version of this book available at www.taylorfrancis.com/books/oa/mono/10.4324/9781003141877 has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives 4.0 license

Goodson,2018-09-19 Higher education in the twenty first century should bring together freedom and knowledge with courage and hope Why these four concepts As Goodson argues in Strength of Mind higher education in the twenty first century offers preparation for ordinary life Freedom and knowledge serve as the conditions for cultivating courage and hope within one s ordinary life More specifically courage and hope ought to be understood as the virtues required for enjoying ordinary life If college educated citizens wish to hold onto the concepts of courage and hope however then both courage and hope need to be understood as intellectual virtues As a moral virtue courage has become outdated As a theological virtue hope violates the logic of the golden mean Focusing on intellectual virtues also requires shifting from moral perfectionism to rational perfectionism Rational perfectionism involves keeping impossible demands in view for oneself while constantly and continually striving for one s unattained but attainable self Goodson defends these arguments by learning from the bits of wisdom found within American Transcendentalism Emerson Cavell German Idealism Kant Hegel Jewish philosophy Maimonides Spinoza Putnam neo pragmatism Putnam Rorty West post modern theories about pedagogy Nietzsche Foucault Rorty and secular accounts of perfectionism Murdoch Cavell Education and Women in the Early Modern Hispanic

World Elizabeth Teresa Howe,2016-04-29 Considering the presence and influence of educated women of letters in Spain and New Spain this study looks at the life and work of early modern women who advocated by word or example for the education of women The subjects of the book include not only such familiar figures as Sor Juana and Santa Teresa de Jes s but also of less well known women of their time The author uses primary documents published works artwork and critical sources drawn from history literature theatre philosophy women s studies education and science Her analysis juxtaposes theories espoused by men and women of the period concerning the aptitude and appropriateness of educating women with the actual practices to be found in convents schools court theaters and homes What emerges is a fuller picture of women s learning in the early modern period Western Civilization and the Academy Bradley C. S. Watson,2015-09-03 This volume brings together leading thinkers who offer reflections on the place of Western civilization in the academy at a time when there is indifference or even antipathy toward the study of the West at most institutions of higher learning Alternative narratives including multiculturalism diversity and sustainability have come to the fore in the stead of Western civilization The present volume is designed to explore the roots extent and long term consequences of this educational climate How and why did undergraduate education turn its back on what was once an important component of its mission To what extent has such change affected the experience of undergraduates and the ability of colleges to educate citizens of a constitutional republic What are the likely individual and social outcomes of such a shift in educational priorities The volume s theme is and will continue to be the subject of national scholarly and media attention

Gadflies in the Public Space Ramin Jahanbegloo,2016-12-13 The concept of disobedient consciousness and the rebellious Socratic mind that grows out of this book is above all a product of Ramin Jahanbegloo s life meetings with the two apparently contradictory worlds of philosophy and politics More precisely it is the result of approaching the public realm in terms of a philosophical quest for truth and justice This restless quest for truth and justice has a history that continues to bear upon us however much we choose to ignore it We can think about the current situation of philosophy by exploring that history The image of Socrates represents a mid point between politics and philosophy the Socratic mind exemplified by the presence of the public gadfly in history finds itself at the beginning of a new struggle for truth The journey to this struggle started with the trial of Socrates followed by the experiences of Henry David Thoreau Mahatma Gandhi Martin Luther King Jr and Albert Camus But the forging of the rebellious mind and the sustaining of the civic task of philosophy are goals which impose themselves to each of us whenever we are reminded by the urgency of critical thinking in our own dark times The future of humankind necessarily requires convictions and commitments but it also requires Socratic rebels of the mind and of action who have the courage to swim against the tide Examining dissent in the history of philosophy this book will appeal to scholars of political theory and political philosophy and to scholars and students of political and intellectual history
