Education Of A Polish Jew:

Jewish Studies and Holocaust Education in Poland Lynn W. Zimmerman, 2014-01-23 This volume examines how people in Poland learn about Jewish life culture and history including the Holocaust The main text provides background on concepts such as culture identity and stereotypes as well as on specific topics such as Holocaust education as curriculum various educational institutions and the connection of arts and cultural festivals to identity and culture It also gives a brief overview of Polish history and Jewish history in Poland as well as providing insight into how the Holocaust and Jewish life and culture are viewed and taught in present day Poland This background material is supported by essays by Poles who have been active in the changes that have taken place in Poland since 1989 A young Jewish Polish man gives insight into what it is like to grow up in contemporary Poland and a Jewish Polish woman who was musical director and conductor of the Jewish choir Tslil gives her view of learning through the arts Essays by Polish scholars active in Holocaust education and curriculum design give past present and future perspectives of learning about Jewish history and culture Changing Conceptions in Jewish Education Emanuel Gamoran, 1924 Jewish Education, 1929 Creativity and Conflict. Jews in Interwar Poland. Gershon C. Bacon, 2025-07-29 Creativity and Conflict reexamines interwar Polish Jewish history through the author's collected essays and scholarly responses of leading academicians The work covers Polish Jewish relations Orthodox Judaism and the rabbinic women's history social history and historiography challenging prevalent myths about Jews in Poland Polish-Jewish Relations During the Second World War Emanuel Ringelblum, 1992 A man of towering intellectual accomplishment and extraordinary tenacity Emmanuel Ringelblum devoted his life to recording the fate of his people at the hands of the Germans Convinced that he must remain in the Warsaw Ghetto to complete his work and rejecting an invitation to flee to refuge on the Aryan side Ringelblum his wife and their son were eventually betrayed to the Germans and killed This book represents Ringelblum's attempt to answer the questions he knew history would ask about the Polish people what did the Poles do while millions of Jews were being led to the stake What did the Polish underground do What did the Government in Exile do Was it inevitable that the Jews looking their last on this world should have to see indifference or even gladness on the faces of their neighbors These questions have haunted Polish Jewish relations for the last fifty years Behind them are forces that have haunted Polish Jewish relations for a thousand years International Handbook of Jewish Education Helena Miller, Lisa D. Grant, Alex Pomson, 2011-04-02 The International Handbook of Jewish Education a two volume publication brings together scholars and practitioners engaged in the field of Jewish Education and its cognate fields world wide Their submissions make a significant contribution to our knowledge of the field of Jewish Education as we start the second decade of the 21st century The Handbook is divided broadly into four main sections Vision and Practice focusing on issues of philosophy identity and planning the big issues of Jewish Education Teaching and Learning focusing on areas of curriculum and engagement Applications focusing on the ways that Jewish Education is transmitted in particular contexts both formal and informal for children and adults Geographical focusing on historical demographic social and other issues that are specific to a region or where an issue or range of issues can be compared and contrasted between two or more locations This comprehensive collection of articles providing high quality content constitutes a definitive statement on the state of Jewish Education world wide as well as through a wide variety of lenses and contexts It is written in a style that is accessible to a global community of academics and professionals

Jewish Education in New York City Alexander Mordecai Dushkin,1918 Holocaust Education E. Doyle Stevick,Deborah Michaels,2017-10-02 Holocaust Education Promise Practice Power and Potential provides timely studies of some of the most pressing issues in teaching and learning about the Holocaust around the world Europe is experiencing both anti Semitic attacks many by radicals claiming the banner of Islam and the resurgence of right wing movements that are openly hostile to minority rights particularly for marginalized and vulnerable groups like the Roma Sinti and Muslim refugees Can Holocaust education an encounter with the most extreme racial ideology to afflict the continent reduce violence and prejudice against Jewish and other minority groups The important studies in this volume address these and other pressing issues for the field including the progress of Central and Eastern European countries that experienced both Soviet hegemony and Nazi terror in grappling with the history of the Holocaust This book was originally published as a special issue of Intercultural Education

Jewish Daily Bulletin Index ,1926 The Jewish Daily Bulletin Index ,1926 Non-Inclusive Education in Central and Eastern Europe Katarzyna Górak-Sosnowska,Urszula Markowska-Manista,2022-11-03 This book presents research into inclusive education in Central and Eastern Europe CEE written by scholars based in CEE Inclusive education has become a framework for understanding and embracing diversity but most of the research in this area has been carried out in intercultural or culturally diverse settings within a relatively inclusive and open framework of democratic liberal and multicultural Western societies Unlike many Western societies the realities of CEE countries are often much less diverse and connected with different fragile historical and political processes which puts tackling sensitive topics in a different context The editors and contributors address the dominant Western ways of looking at inclusive and global education in CEE They argue that Western leveraged pedagogy has been imposed on CEE and outline the context specific problems of teaching global education in CEE Collectively the chapters offer critical responses to the issues of exclusion and exclusionary practices of silenced minorities in CEE Written by academics based in Czech Republic Germany Hungary Poland Romania and Russia the book cover topics including Roma genocide in Poland teaching about Islam and teaching about LGBTQ issues The book includes a preface written by Jacqueline Bhabha Professor of the Practice of Health and Human Rights at Harvard University USA

A Pedagogy of Humanist Moral Education Marc Silverman,2017-01-26 This book sheds new light on the life and work of Janusz Korczak the twentieth century humanist moral educator and path breaking social pedagogue who is generally unknown in the English speaking world In the two orphanages he led in Warsaw Poland Korczak developed an innovative array of educational practices that motivated children from broken families suffering from serious social interpersonal pathologies to re form themselves during the five to seven years they lived in the orphanage By offering its readers a systematic presentation of Korczak s worldview educational philosophy and work and exposing them to a rich selection of his writings this book seeks to inform the English speaking educated public about an educator who unceasingly strived to make the world a better place for people and to make better people for the world
