Bibliographie internationale sur le bilinguisme William Francis Mackey, Université Laval. Centre international de recherches sur le bilinguisme, 1982      Education et bilinguisme Miguel Siguán, William Francis Mackey, International Bureau of Education, 1986      Education et bilinguisme Miguel Siguán, William Francis Mackey, 1986      Multilingualism and Education Gail Prasad, Nathalie Auger, Emmanuelle Le Pichon Vorstman, 2022-06-09 For decades international researchers and educators have sought to understand how to address cultural and linguistic diversity in education This book offers the keys to doing so it brings together short biographies of thirty six scholars representing a wide range of universities and countries to allow them to reflect on their own personal life paths and how their individual life experiences have led to and informed their research This approach highlights how theories and concepts have evolved in different contexts while opening up pedagogical possibilities from diverse backgrounds and enriched by the life experiences of leading researchers in the field Beyond these questions the book also explores the dynamic relationships between languages power and identities as well as how these relationships raise broader societal issues that permeate both global and local language practices It is essential reading for students teacher educators and researchers interested in the impact of multilingualism on education

Multilingualism and Education in Africa Ruth W. Ndung'u, Martin C. Njoroge, Daniel O. Orwenjo, 2014-10-16 This book is a must read for every language teaching professional and researcher working in a multilingual context Multilingualism and Education in Africa The State of the State of the Art is an up to date exploration and wide ranging review of the symbiotic relationship between multilingualism and education in Africa The African continent is rich in languages Most of her inhabitants are multilingual and many of the nations have embraced multilingual education This book examines multilingualism in education from three broad perspectives multilingualism and language in education policy in Africa multilingualism as an educational resource in Africa and attitudes and challenges of multilingualism and education in Africa The book s nineteen chapters discuss these three perspectives from East West Central and South Africa All the contributors are leading authorities in multilingualism and education The chapters combine a wide range of viewpoints based on theoretical empirical and personal experiences The reader is left with a deeper understanding of the unique features of multilingualism and education in Africa that have seldom been addressed by those who experience them first hand The book demonstrates successful practices in multilingualism and education showing how African nations have determined what works for them without ignoring challenges such as policies on paper attitudes towards African languages and limited resources The benefits of multilingual education override the challenges The book s extensive coverage makes it an important resource for scholars and policy makers in the field of multilingualism and education Overall this book represents an important contribution to an important subject in education globally The editors have provided an introductory overview to the book and commentaries on the three sections      L'Enfant Haitien Et Le Bilinguisme Maryse Noël
