Whitehead and Philosophy of Education Malcolm D. Evans, 2021-10-25 That process philosophy can be the foundation of the theory and practice of educating human beings is the main argument of this book The process philosophy of Alfred North Whitehead 1861 1947 is the particular thinking on which this book is based Readers are shown that Whitehead s process philosophy provides a frame a conceptual matrix that addresses their concerns about education and offers direction for their educative acts Whitehead theorized that all living entities are connected in some way Relatedness connectedness and holism are recurring themes in this exploration of Whitehead s implied philosophy of education Whitehead never wrote a philosophy of education but his writings over a period of nearly thirty years reveal a persistent interest and concern with education His work ranging from Introduction to Mathematics 1911 to Adventures of Ideas 1938 is drawn on here to construct not Whitehead s philosophy of education but a Whiteheadian philosophy of education Whitehead and Philosophy of Education brings to scholars and students of education an understanding of Whitehead as an important figure in philosophy particularly philosophy of education an acquaintance with process philosophy a brief treatment of Whitehead s life and an account of events and experiences that influenced his philosophizing and an exploration of the educationally salient concepts found in Whitehead s formal and informal philosophy with special attention to Whitehead s ideas about creativity process rhythm wisdom and knowledge Whitehead writes of phases of the rhythm of education romance precision and generalization The book is organized with attention to these three phases Part One Romance introduces readers to Whitehead the person and the change of context for educating from a mechanistic world view to an organismic one Part Two Precision examines Whitehead s writings as they relate to process philosophy and to educating Part Three Generalization is an application of the explorations of Parts One and Two yielding a construction of a Whiteheadian philosophy of education and suggestions for educational practice

Faith Schools and Society Jo Cairns, 2009-04-26 Do faith schools have a place in a plural society Which types of school contribute most effectively to a plural society This fascinating monograph seeks to answer these questions and more by exploring the fit between personal spiritual and academic goals in contemporary educational experience and individual school cultures Jo Cairns a well respected authority on faith schools argues that educational ideology in plural societies has to find a way of recognizing and responding to the predicament of pluralism as it is experienced by individuals and communities This provocative and challenging book will undoubtedly stimulate debate among educationists across the world
