The Political Economy of Educational Reforms and Capacity Development in Southeast Asia Yasushi Hirosato, Yuto Kitamura, 2009-02-07

Yasushi Hirosato and Yuto Kitamura

Developing countries including Southeast Asian countries face an enormous challenge in ensuring equitable access to quality education in the context of deepening globalization and increasing international competition. They must simultaneously meet the goals of Education for All (EFA) at the basic education level and of developing a more sophisticated workforce required by the knowledge based economy at the post basic especially tertiary education level. To meet this challenge, developing countries need to reform/renovate their education systems and service deliveries as an integral part of national development. However, most of them have not yet fully developed the individual institutional and system capacities in undertaking necessary education reforms, especially under decentralization and privatization, requiring new roles at various central and local or public and private levels of administration and stakeholders. Provided that an ultimate vision of educational development and cooperation in the twenty first century would be to develop indigenous capacity in engineering education reforms, this book analyzes the overall education reform context and capacity, including the status of sector program support using the sector wide approach (SWAp) program based approach (PBA) in developing countries. We also address how different stakeholders have been interacting in order to promote equitable access to quality education, particularly from the perspectives of capacity development under the system of decentralization.

Chinese Research Perspectives on Educational Development, Volume 1 Dongping Yang, 2013-02-14

The first volume of the English language Chinese Research Perspectives on Educational Development, formerly The China Educational Development Yearbook, offers international scholars a glimpse into key issues in Chinese education today from the perspective of Chinese academics, practitioners, and applied researchers. This volume starts with an excellent overview of educational developments in 2010, which witnessed the formulation of the Outline of China's National Plan for Medium and Long Term Educational Reform and Development 2010-2020. With the formulation of the Outline and the start of implementation in 2011, China saw progress by the government at all levels in prioritizing educational development. Scholars and practitioners discuss the significance of the Outline and its implications on the development and reform of pre-school education, basic education, and higher education. In addition, this volume provides timely surveys and research on a variety of topics, from government's investment in education to the mental health of elementary and secondary school teachers and students. Chinese Research Perspectives on Educational Development, Volume 1 informs the Western readers of the current educational development in policy practice and research in China. Chinese Research Perspectives on Educational Development is a co-publication of Brill and Social Sciences Academic Press, China.

The Development and Governance of Private Universities in China Xu Liu, 2023-06-30 This book investigates the form and features of governance and the factors that shape governance in practice in private universities in China Building on an exploration of the growth of private universities in China after the Communist Party took over the power the study examines the specific context in China including the role of the Communist Party and integrates with shareholders and senior managers to achieve its governance role It shows that two distinct forms of institutional governance have developed namely the supervision form and the managerial form While external policies provide an impetus for change for each university how key actors in institutional governance understand these policies have significant effect on how the policies are implemented This can result in change that can be viewed as either symbolic alteration or as operational change The internal factors that act to shape institutional governance mainly relate to the different developmental stages of the private university the characteristics of shareholders and senior managers and the various ways the universities respond to the external policy

Planning Education Reforms in Developing Countries Dennis A. Rondinelli, John Middleton, Adriaan Verspoor, 1990 This work the first to apply contingency theory to education reform planning is particularly useful in that it has applications to planning both in developing countries and in the United States and Europe The basic approach applies to a wide variety of development programs and will influence project management and policy administration

Higher Education Management and Development. Compendium for Managers Jeroen Huisman, Attila Pausits, 2010 Today as never before it is imperative that university managers possess the knowledge and the competencies necessary for leading modern higher education institutions Professional management enables higher education institutions to cooperate more effectively with partners ranging from local businesses to international enterprises and other stakeholders As higher education institutions grow larger and extend their reach into new areas and the functions demanded of them multiply academic administration and management become increasingly complex thus the need for skilled management and administrative personnel becomes more acute This book emerged as the product of the European Higher Education Management and Development EHEMD project a European multilateral curriculum development project under the coordination of the Danube University Krems and funded by the European Union in the framework of the Erasmus Lifelong Learning Programme Focusing not only on theoretical points of view but also on their practical applications as demonstrated in the accompanying case studies the publication covers the key aspects of modern university management The booklet is structured so that each chapter presents a particular aspect and application of university management and the entire volume reflects the core contents of the EHEMD curriculum Can higher education management be taught While we confidently say yes the answer needs some qualification The yes applies because higher education management is no different from any other subject in the social sciences The qualification is that a sound pedagogical philosophy and structure need to underpin such a programme The fundamentals of the EHEMD programme are that it is interdisciplinary that it is practice oriented and that students learn from each other and also learn independently With a strong emphasis on Central Southern and Eastern Europe this book addresses management challenges in higher education today and in the near future

The Dilemma of Development in the Arabian Peninsula Osama Abdul Rahman, 2023-07-07 This book first published in 1987 and by one of Saudi Arabia's most distinguished academics reviews the experience of the Arab oil producers in social economic and political development in the key period of the Seventies and Eighties It is broadly pessimistic about the prospects for future development and sceptical about past achievements It argues that the petro bureaucracy in the Arabian Peninsula has failed to establish the basic principles of effective development because it has been mesmerised by the vast oil revenues it has attempted to administer The book suggests that in many respects the oil revenues have obstructed serious development because they have made the Arabian economies totally dependent on one expendable resource and this has made them too vulnerable to external pressures and interests Furthermore the oil revenues have encouraged fantasy and wishful thinking which have skewed the development process and stimulated pseudo development The book makes clear that until the petro bureaucracy adopts a realistic approach to development there can be no prospect of real development in the Arabian Peninsula

The China Educational Development Yearbook, Volume 1 Dongping Yang, 2009-04-24 China's education system has grown increasingly complex creating the need for an annual critical review of the education system by China's top scholars The Blue Book of Education as it is known in Chinese has gained a reputation for offering the most penetrating perspective in China on educational reform and development In this important English translation combining the Blue Books published in 2007 and 2008 the issues developments challenges and crises in Chinese education are comprehensively discussed and critically analyzed This volume's incisive contributions address a wide range of pressing issues including debt caused by the expansion of higher education quality of education employment of graduates corruption of scholarship education for migrant children the gap between policy and practice in bilingual education for minority students the popularization of no fee compulsory education in rural areas reform of the national university examination system and thorny problems faced by private daycares and private schools The volume is essential reading for anyone who wants to understand the perspective of some of China's most critical scholars about the most pressing challenges facing education
