The European Union and Developing Countries C. Cosgrove-Sacks, 1999-05-17 This book examines the ways in which EU policies towards developing countries are changing in response to the new challenges of globalization and the end of the Cold War It analyses the patchwork of relationships between the fifteen Member States and more than 140 countries throughout Africa Asia Latin America and the Mediterranean The European Community and the Developing Countries Enzo R. Grilli, 1993 The European Community has long been the largest trading bloc in the world It is also on the way to becoming the world's largest integrated economic zone Its trade aid and development cooperation policies are therefore of great importance to developing countries At the same time the developing countries have continued to be of interest to the Community both as outlets for its exports and capital investments and as sources of raw materials This 1993 book analyses and evaluates European Community trade aid and industrial policies towards developing countries their origin main features logic evolution and effectiveness in reaching the goals assigned to them The author sums up the state of Europe's development policies by describing them as regional in scope colonial in geographical emphasis discriminatory in their effects and lacking in overall cogency This incisive re-evaluation illustrates the different strategies the EC countries might pursue in their relations with the outside world as they progress towards fuller economic integration Africa and the European Economic Community, 1957-1992 Charles Ohiri Chikeka, 1993 Hunger 1992, 1991 Bread for the World Institute on Hunger Development The report co-sponsored by other anti-hunger groups illustrates through ten case studies of specific projects programs ideas that work to alleviate U.S. world hunger or that have shown enough promise to justify further pursuit Each essay examines the pitfalls involved whether success can be duplicated elsewhere Topics include the green revolution sustainable participatory development U.S. domestic food programs international food aid reforming economies without hurting poor people demilitarization citizen advocacy The report updates information presented in the previous volume Hunger 1990 on hunger in North South America Africa Asia the Middle East features statistical tables bibliography glossary topical index A new section examines the Soviet Union Eastern Europe Contributors include John Mellor Patricia Kutzner Don Reeves Remy Jurenas Gayle Smith Barbara Murock Patience Elabor Idemudia the editors other Bread for the World Institute Staff Intended for concerned citizens secondary school college instructors students opinion shapers policy makers Europe and Economic Reform in Africa Obadiah Mailafia, Obed Mailafiya, 1997 The post-colonial relationship between European and African states is complex This book examines the unprecedented changes since the oil crisis of the 1970s using new field work from Zambia as well as existing material European Communities John Paxton, 1992-01-01 The establishment of the European Economic Community in 1958 was one of the most remarkable developments in the history of the post World War II era It aimed for nothing less than a complete economic union so that goods people and capital would be able to pass over national boundaries of member countries as freely as they move within any one country As the Community's target date of 1992 for economic integration draws closer the need for information both current and historical becomes more urgent The aim of this annotated bibliography is to create a critical and descriptive list of books published mainly in English for businessmen and analysts combining older publications with new The literature on the EC is vast and issues The Community itself nearly 3000 publications a year The range of material covered in this volume is distinguished by its great scope Historical sections provide listings on the postwar years of economic recovery the development of the EC and biographies of the leading personalities involved Policy oriented sections encompass such subjects as labor transportation environment energy and education The political ramifications of economic union financial and fiscal affairs relations between the EC and the Third World and foreign relations in general are dealt with in separate sections The volume concludes with a listing of major European Community publications The sheer bulk of published material on the EC much of it duplication has made keeping up with its developments difficult for small and medium in Europe and elsewhere This invaluable sourcebook will provide the business community and the political establishments with better access to EC information as they grapple with the implications of 1992

European Trade Policy in Agricultural Products Joseph A. McMahon, 1988-10-03      The Feeding of Nations Mark Gibson, 2016-04-19 In the last decade the world has grown richer and produced more food than ever before Yet in that same period hunger has increased and 925 million remain underfed and malnourished Exploring this troubling paradox The Feeding of Nations Re Defining Food Security for the 21st Century offers a glimpse into how the simple aspiration of global food
