Directorate-General for Economic and Financial Affairs,2005 Education and training policies in Europe have aroused growing interest in recent years at both national and EU levels and from economists and labour market specialists as well as from educationalists Several reasons for this led EU leaders to call in March 2000 for a substantial annual increase in per capita investment in human resources This is a key strand of the Lisbon strategy by which the EU aims to become the most competitive and dynamic knowledge based economy in the world capable of sustaining economic growth with more and better jobs and greater social cohesion Global Risk Governance Ortwin Renn,Katherine D. Walker,2008-12-18 Japanese government planners set out in the 1960s to build a barrage on the Nagara River one of the last major free owing rivers in Japan Conceived during a period of rapid growth in the Japanese economy the barrage was part of a national effort to ensure adequate water supplies for future economic development as well as to reduce oodingrisks to downstream communities A string of lawsuits brought by groups concerned about the impact of the dam on ecological and sheries sourcesresulted incostlydelays the damwasnotcompletedformorethan25years The 1990s witnessed the start of a kind of biotech gold rush toward the use of genetic modi cation GM as tool to develop more productive crops through the introduction of herbicide insect and disease resistance to feed a growing world Opponents of the rapid deployment of GM crops have raised concerns about the safety of the technology and about its socio economic cultural and ethical implications The debate over this issue divided the world for example the US allowed the development of GM crops to move forward and now accounts for over half the GM crops grown worldwide whereas the European Union only recently lifted a de facto moratorium imposed in 1998 and now authorises products on a case by case basis Worldwide the development and use of GM crops is still barely covered by a patchwork of regulations and guidelines ranging from strict prohibition to none at all and creating its own sets of disparities and risks Tax Compliance and Risk Management Piotr Karwat,Katarzyna Kimla-Walenda,Aleksander Werner,2023-11-23

The concept of tax compliance is as old as the tax itself but staying compliant with tax regulations has become increasingly demanding A changing tax regulatory environment resulting from regulatory actions of the OECD the European Union and national governments poses many problems for tax compliance awareness This book explores various approaches to improving tax compliance Starting with the procedures and processes that are at the centre of the debate it includes the level of tax position security obtained as a result of cooperation between tax administration and an organisation ending with tax compliance requirements imposed by one sided action of tax administration Offering an experience and evidence based analysis of how tax compliance influences an organisation s tax and financial position the issues are examined from both a theoretical and a practical perspective using empirical research and case studies with an international dimension for illustration Emphasising a holistic approach to tax compliance and its role in tax risk management within an organisation this study offers a framework for making the challenging task of tax compliance and risk management more effective and more efficient Exploring tax compliance focusing on the tax world after the BEPS project and anti tax evasion and anti tax avoidance regulatory actions undertaken by the European Union and OECD the book has a practical focus on tax system design within the organisation and will be of interest to students researchers and practitioners working in the areas of tax law and tax compliance Chapter 13 and Summary of this book are freely available as a downloadable Open Access PDF at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4.0 license
