European Docklands:

London Docklands Brian C. Edwards, 2013-10-22 London Docklands Urban Design in an Age of Deregulation discusses the process and products of the first 10 years of the London Docklands The book is comprised of 10 chapters that are organized into three parts The first part talks about the potentials of the London Docklands The second part presents the area of studies which are the Isle of Dogs Surrey Docks Wapping and the Royal Docks The last part deals with the observations and speculations The text will be a great source to urban planners particularly those who are involved in projects that deal with cities that are in close proximity to large bodies of water European Cities, Planning Systems and Property Markets J.N. Berry, W.S. McGreal, 2003-09-02 This book provides a comprehensive analysis of the interaction between the planning systems and property markets in 17 key European cities The Western European Economy Allan M. Williams, 2015-03-27 This book originally published in 1987 presents a broad overview of the spatial organization of the European economy providing a valuable synthesis of recently published material by geographers and other social scientists A major theme is the interdependence of economic development at various scales The three main sections look at international and European economic context detailed changes in particular sectors specific types of regional economic formations Case studies are used and reference made to historical processes A Modern History of European Cities Rosemary Wakeman, 2020-01-23 Rosemary Wakeman's original survey text comprehensively explores modern European urban history from 1815 to the present day It provides a journey to cities and towns across the continent in search of the patterns of development that have shaped the urban landscape as indelibly European The focus is on the built environment the social and cultural transformations that mark the patterns of continuity and change and the transition to modern urban society Including over 60 images that serve to illuminate the analysis the book examines whether there is a European city and if so what are its characteristics Wakeman offers an interdisciplinary approach that incorporates concepts from cultural and postcolonial studies as well as urban geography and provides full coverage of urban society not only in western Europe but also in eastern and southern Europe using various cities and city types to inform the discussion The book provides detailed coverage of the often neglected urbanization post 1945 which allows us to more clearly understand the modernizing arc Europe has followed over the last two centuries Europe Real Estate Yearbook 2005 Marinus Dijkman, 2005-03 The Europe Real Estate Yearbook 2005 places commercial property in a financial context It seeks to bridge the gap between the world of real estate development and the world of indices With the aim to create a more transparent market it presents analyses of European property funds round table discussions with investors and developers interviews with industry leaders Whos Who and a European Index Europe Real Estate is published in co operation with RICS EPRA IPD GPR INREV AFIRE ULI CoreNet and GRI Special features CRE and RICS are Bridging an Ocean Hines Follow the markets EPRA goes from strength to strength Portrait of architect Mario Botta INREV crusading for non listed transparency Man of the Year Jan Doets
