The Humanities in Transition from Postmodernism into the Digital Age Nigel A. Raab, 2020-05-31 The Humanities in Transition explores how the basic components of the digital age will have an impact on the most trusted theories of humanists Over the past two generations humanists have come to take basic postmodern theories for granted whether on language knowledge or time Yet Michel Foucault Jacques Derrida and similar philosophers developed their ideas when the impact of this digital world could barely be imagined The digital world built on algorithms and massive amounts of data operates on radically different principles This volume analyzes these differences demonstrating where an aging postmodernism cannot keep pace with today's technologies The book first introduces the major influence postmodern had on global thought before turning to algorithms digital space digital time data visuals and the concept to digital forgeries By taking a closer look at these themes it establishes a platform to create more robust humanist theories for the third millennium This book will appeal to graduate students and established scholars in the Digital Humanities who are looking for diverse and energetic theoretical approaches that can truly come to terms with the digital world *Catalog of Copyright Entries. Russia's war in Ukraine Donald Trump the hyper rationalist ritualism of managing the COVID 19 pandemic and the shifting realities on the Eastern border of the West in order to shed light on the transfiguration of the western intellectual tradition by the global political technological and intellectual dynamics of a world that is far from approaching the end of history Asking what is to be done in the face of this new reality The Western Crisis of Truth in the Early 21st Century considers whether the dissident literature of Central and Eastern Europe which has already lived through a period of disenlightenment under the Soviet Union as well as other Eastern European movements of dignity and independence might offer answers A study of the dimming of the Enlightenment this volume will appeal to scholars of social and political theory and political anthropology

Redefining Heresy and Tolerance Hung Tak Wai, 2024-08-21 In Redefining Heresy and Tolerance Hung Tak Wai examines how the Qing empire governed Muslims and Christians under its rule with a non interventionist policy Manchu emperors adopted a tolerant attitude towards Islam and Christianity as long as political stability and loyalty remained unthreatened However Hung argues that such tolerance had its limitations Since the mid eighteenth century the Qing court intentionally minimised the importance of the Islamic identity Restrictions were imposed on the Muslims external connections with Western Asia The Christian minority was kept distant from politics and the Han majority At the same time Confucian scholars began to acquire a new understanding of religion but they were not encouraged to get in touch with the Muslims and Christians This book demonstrates how from the late eighteenth to the early nineteenth century the Qing government prevented Confucian scholar bureaucrats from interfering in the religious life of Christians and Muslims and how the Confucians understanding of religion was reshaped during the implementation of such policy in the period This book reveals that a different kind of religious tolerance had already emerged among Sinophone intellectuals before their contact with the West This book goes beyond the assumption of a homogeneous Han society and pays attention to the religious groups that emerged after the seventeenth century which differed from or even contradicted Confucianism and other Chinese religions and it is concerned with how such alien communities influenced the development of Confucianism itself

Wang Fan sen Academia Sinica This book significantly enriches our comprehension of how early modern Confucians as adherents of a state public religion engaged with Abrahamic religions By delving into the dynamics of interreligious interaction Redefining Heresy and Tolerance sheds new light on the encounters between Confucianism and the Abrahamic faiths offering fresh insights into the complex religious landscape of Asian culture Huang Chin shing Academia Sinica
