From about 5500 cal BC to soon after 5000 cal BC the lifeways of the first farmers of central Europe the LBK culture Linearbandkeramik are seen in distinctive practices of longhouse use settlement forms landscape choice subsistence material culture and mortuary rites Within the five or more centuries of LBK existence a dynamic sequence of changes can be seen in for instance the expansion and increasing density of settlement progressive regionalisation in pottery decoration and at the end some signs of stress or even localised crisis Although showing many features in common across its very broad distribution however the LBK phenomenon was not everywhere the same and there is a complicated mixture of uniformity and diversity This major study takes a strikingly large regional sample from northern Hungary westwards along the Danube to Alsace in the upper Rhine valley and addresses the question of the extent of diversity in the lifeways of developed and late LBK communities through a wide ranging study of diet lifetime mobility health and physical condition the presentation of the bodies of the deceased in mortuary ritual It uses an innovative combination of isotopic principally carbon nitrogen and strontium with some oxygen osteological and archaeological analysis to address difference and change across the LBK and to reflect on cultural change in general Austrian Information ,1985 The Threshold of the Visible World Kaja Silverman,2013-11-19 In The Threshold of the Visible World Kaja Silverman advances a revolutionary new political aesthetic exploring the possibilities for looking beyond the restrictive mandates of the self and the normative aspects of the cultural image repertoire She provides a detailed account of the social and psychic forces which constrain us to look and identify in normative ways and the violence which that normativity implies Solar Energy Update ,1985 Eastern Europe Richard Frucht,2004-12-22 A contemporary analysis of the people cultures and society within the regions that make up Eastern Europe Eastern Europe An Introduction to the People Lands and Culture sheds light on modern day life in the 16 nations comprising Eastern Europe Going beyond the history and politics already well documented in other works this unique three volume series explores the social and cultural aspects of a region often ignored in books and curricula on Western civilization The volumes are organized by geographic proximity and commonality in historical development allowing the countries to be both studied individually and juxtaposed against others in the region The first volume covers the northern tier of states the second looks at lands that were once part of the Hapsburg empire and the third examines the Balkan states Each chapter profiles a single country its geography history political development economy and culture and gives readers a glimpse of the challenges that lie ahead Vignettes on various topics of interest illuminate the unique character of each country U.S. Foreign Trade Highlights ,1985 Statistical Reference Index ,1986 Europe Thomas M. Wilson,2023-11-30 This two volume encyclopedia profiles the contemporary culture and society of every country in Europe

Histories of Conservation and Art History in Modern Europe Sven Dupré, Jenny Boulboulé, 2022-03-14 This book traces the development of scientific conservation and technical art history It takes as its starting point the final years of the nineteenth century which saw the establishment of the first museum laboratory in Berlin and ground breaking international conferences on art history and conservation held in pre World War I Germany It follows the history of conservation and art history until the 1940s when from the ruins of World War II new institutions such as the Istituto Centrale del Restauro emerged which would shape the post war art and conservation world The book will be of interest to scholars working in art history conservation history historiography and history of science and humanities

Peripheral Europe Ksenija Vidmar Horvat, 2020-09-29 This book looks at the financial 2007 2008 and the refugee 2015 present crises and post crisis development in the EU The key argument here is that the mis management of these crises has been in part conditioned by the specific course of the Europeanisation which occurred during the integration of the post socialist East The enlargement processes ran on the premises of a shared European identity in effect turning the social contract of the new Europe into a cultural contract This has resulted in betraying the commitment to core values of democratic development both East and West The book specifically studies the impact of the cultural turn through the discourse of the transition in the Balkan periphery of the ex Yugoslavian region Based on rich theoretical and regionally specific empirical research it will be of interest to scholars in the fields of EU integration Eastern European studies cultural studies studies of post socialism and border studies
