Global Media and National Policies Terry Flew, Petros Iosifidis, Jeanette Steemers, 2016-04-08 Conventional wisdom views globalization as a process that heralds the diminishing role or even death of the state and the rise of transnational media and transnational consumption Global Media and National Policies questions those assumptions and shows not only that the nation state never left but that it is still a force to be reckoned with With contributions that look at global developments and developments in specific parts of the world it demonstrates how nation states have adapted to globalization and how they still retain key policy instruments to achieve many of their policy objectives This book argues that the phenomenon of media globalization has been overstated and that national governments remain key players in shaping the media environment with media corporations responding to the legal and policy frameworks they deal with at a national level

European Audiovisual Policy in Transition Heritiana Ranaivoson, Sally Broughton Micova, Tim Raats, 2023-05-31 This book describes and critically addresses the innovations and shifts made in the revision of the Audiovisual Media Services Directive AVMSD adopted by the European Parliament and Council in 2018 Reflecting on European Union regulation and policy practice in all its Member States the book s unique approach places in depth case study topics against the broader theoretical background Taking a Europe wide angle an international team of authors focuses on key aspects of the AVMSD the expansion of its scope to include video sharing platforms such as YouTube the update of the rules for commercial communications the first attempt for harmonized minimal requirements at EU level regarding transparency of media ownership new rules to ensure that video on demand services offer invest in and prioritise European content the obligation on television distributors and smart TV manufacturers to pass on broadcasters signal without any interference alteration or modification and the formalisation and consolidation of new forms of collaboration among national regulatory authorities This thorough analysis of the cornerstone of European media policy makes this edited collection a crucial reference for scholars and students of media and cultural industries media law and policy European and EU media policy and technology studies

From Analogue to Digital Radio JP Devlin, 2018-07-23 This book examines the history of UK radio from its analogue beginnings to its digital future by highlighting the roles played by the BBC and commercial radio in ensuring the medium s long term success Beginning as a mere technological innovation radio developed into a broadcasting model which has sustained for almost one hundred years The UK model was defined by a public service broadcaster responsible for maintaining standards of broadcasting as well as commercial operators acting illegally and then legally who have sought to exploit radio s economic potential This book aims to show how both these entities have contributed to the success of radio in the UK whether acting competitively or by cooperating in order to ensure radio s survival into the next century This study will appeal to students of media or anyone with a general interest in the history of radio

Germany, Europe, and the Politics of Constraint Klaus Goetz, Kenneth Dyson, 2003-10-16 These essays examine the Europeanization of the political system of the Federal Republic of Germany across the polity politics and public policy dimensions The book s 17 chapters focus on three key themes the challenge to the power of Germany to determine the course of the integrationist project and to shape European public policies the increasing constraints in the domestic political arena associated with Europeanization and domestic contestation over both the constitutive politics of the EU and specific policy choices This volume is essential reading for students of comparative European politics and German studies      Sports Media Rights in the Age of Streaming and Platformisation Tom Evens, Paul Smith, 2024-12-18 Against a backdrop of increased online distribution of media this book provides an in depth analysis of how the platformisation of television is both shaping and being shaped by the changing sports media market Beginning by looking at the business models and strategies of the major stakeholders involved in the sports broadcasting value chain the authors go on to focus on the challenges and opportunities posed by the growth of OTT delivery for the regulation of sports broadcasting in several key areas including copyright law and piracy competition issues linked to the buying selling and distribution of premium sports content and legislation designed to safeguard coverage of certain national and international sporting events for free to air television Key areas of continuity such as the persistence of national regional markets the importance attached to premium sports rights by rival delivery platforms as a source of market power and the need to update key areas of policy and regulation in order to address challenges posed by the use of OTT delivery are also discussed This book makes use of a range of international and regional examples and case studies not least the Olympic Games and the FIFA World Cup and identifies different strategies employed in the buying selling and distribution of sports rights for all major parties in the sports media value chain including new entrant OTT players traditional pay TV operators public service broadcasters and a range of international sports organizations Providing a complete assessment of the relevance and future effectiveness of key areas of policy and regulation in sports media distribution this book is recommended reading for advanced students and researchers of Sports Media Sports Management and Media Industries      Globalization in State Socialist East Central Europe Béla Tomka, 2024-07-20 This open access Palgrave Pivot explores four major aspects of globalization foreign trade capital and information flows and the movement of people The book examines how the state socialist countries of East Central Europe fit into the general trend of globalization after WWII It focuses on three specific countries in the region Poland Czechoslovakia and Hungary The study also considers conceptual problems whether recently introduced terms such as alternative globalization and socialist proto globalization are plausible for interpreting state socialist globalization Special attention is paid to the study of continuities and discontinuities in the process of globalization in East Central Europe which is a key issue in current debates This requires a long term perspective so the study covers not only the decades before 1989 but also subsequent developments In doing so the book attempts to find a balance between old and new mainstream interpretations it recognises that East Central European societies experienced considerable globalization during the state socialist era however based on empirical findings instead of alternative or proto globalization the book suggests other notions to conceptualise this process including fragmentation selectivity and unevenness Thus the proposed understanding could also contribute to discussions on globalization beyond East Central Europe      Communications Policy Stylianos Papathanassopoulos, Ralph M. Negrine, 2021-01-14 Culture politics economics and technology all impact upon policy decisions To investigate the factors that influence communications policy however one has to go beyond conventional views of media and communication studies and combine these with policy studies Communications Policy Theories and Issues utilizes new research to highlight key debates and developments and addresses a broad spectrum of contemporary concerns regarding the structure and the organization of communications systems in the past present and future Combining theoretical analysis with empirical research findings this comprehensive text explores the contemporary theories and issues in communications policy that affect all democratic societies as they seek to address the challenges of emerging information and communications technologies Featuring contributions from distinguished authors across a range of media disciplines Communications Policy introduces challenging ideas about how communications should be structured in the future and is essential reading for all policy makers researchers and students of communications policy Editors Stylianos Papathanassopoulos is Professor in Media Organization at the Faculty of Communication and Media Studies at the National and Kapodistrian University of Athens He is the author of Television in the 21st Century 2005 Media and Politics 2004 and European Television in the Digital Age Issues Dynamics and Realities 2002 Ralph Negrine is Professor of Political Communication in the Journalism Studies Department at the University of Sheffield His previous books include The Transformation of Political Communication Palgrave 2008 Television and the Press Since 1945 1999 and The Communication of Politics 1996 Contributors Bram Abramson Johannes M Bauer Sandra Braman Dom Caristi Alistair Duff Gisela Gil Egui Alison Harcourt Jackie Harrison Robert W McChesney Serge Proulx Marc Raboy Concetta M Stewart Yan Tian and Roxanne Welters

Globalisation, Convergence and European Telecommunications Regulation Peter Humphreys, Seamus Simpson, 2005-01-01 This book provides an up to date account and analysis of the development of the European Union's regulatory framework for telecommunications in a globalising world A key feature is its treatment of the EU's regulatory policy response to technological convergence in the information and communications sector through its new Electronic Communications Regulatory Framework. The book explores in detail the dynamics of the complex relationship between technological and globalisation pressures, economic interests and European and national policy responses. The authors also examine the achievements and limitations of over twenty years of EU efforts to liberalise markets and to harmonise regulation.
