Evaluation In Schools:

Testing for Learning Ruth Mitchell, 1992 Evaluation sends a message It points to what is valued and ignores what is not perceived to be important Educational evaluation testing and assessment has been telling students teachers administrators and legislators that the system values rote memorization and passive recognition of single correct answers

International Handbook of Educational Evaluation T. Kellaghan, D.L. Stufflebeam, 2012-12-06 Thomas Kellaghan Educational Research Centre St Patrick's College Dublin Ireland Daniel L. Stufflebeam The Evaluation Center Western Michigan University MI USA Lori A. Wingate The Evaluation Center Western Michigan University MI USA Educational evaluation encompasses a wide array of activities including student assessment measurement testing program evaluation school personnel evaluation school accreditation and curriculum evaluation It occurs at all levels of education systems from the individual student evaluations carried out by classroom teachers to evaluations of schools and districts to district wide program evaluations to national assessments to cross national comparisons of student achievement As in any area of scholarship and practice the field is constantly evolving as a result of advances in theory methodology and technology increasing globalization emerging needs and pressures and cross fertilization from other disciplines The beginning of a new century would seem an appropriate time to provide a portrait of the current state of the theory and practice of educational evaluation across the globe It is the purpose of this handbook to attempt to do this to sketch the international landscape of educational evaluation its conceptualizations practice methodology and background and the functions it serves The book's 43 chapters grouped in 10 sections provide detailed accounts of major components of the educational evaluation enterprise Together they provide a panoramic view of an evolving field

The New Handbook of Teacher Evaluation Jason Millman, Linda Darling-Hammond, 1989-12-01 Now available in paper this version is the first comprehensive look at the process of selecting assessing and assisting teachers in nearly a decade Since the publication of the first Handbook the profession of teaching has witnessed dramatic change including a greater awareness of teacher accountability an increase in teacher testing and the development of teaching incentives At the same time the political social and organizational factors affecting the performance and evaluation of teachers have been subjects of intensive scrutiny Reflecting these changes the new Handbook contains 25 new chapters and explores current practices issues and controversies related to the evaluation of teachers at elementary and secondary levels

Evaluating School Programs James R. Sanders, Carolyn D. Sullins, 2005-11-28 This updated edition of the bestseller features a five step NCLB based process that demonstrates how skillfully administered annual program evaluations result in lasting educational benefits

School-based Evaluation David Nevo, 2002-09-04 Divided into two parts this volume first discusses the concept of school based evaluation followed by a presentation of case studies of school evaluation from across the world In part one school based evaluation is examined from three perspectives school based evaluation as a dialogue between internal and external evaluation school evaluation from a perspective of institutional self evaluation in a democracy and issues of definition methods and implementation The second part of the book presents case studies from Norway England The Netherlands Austria Spain United States Canada Israel Scotland and Germany All of the case studies are based on actual experience with school based evaluation in various educational and social contexts Authors recognise the wide range of local constraints and reflect upon multiple evaluation perspectives describing their educational context evaluation perspective and specific school based experience They highlight difficulties encountered in their work discuss the implications and make recommendations for further development of the concept of school based evaluation and its practice School Based Evaluation An International Perspective does not suggest internal self school evaluation as an alternative to external objective evaluation However an attempt is made to advocate the combination of both for the benefit of school accountability and school improvement
