The Paradigm of Missionary Identity In the past we have focused on the why of missions in terms of motives the what of missions in terms of the content of the message and the how of missions in terms of methodologies and strategies but the where question in terms of where we send cross cultural workers has simply been assumed it has meant crossing a geographic boundary In Apostolic Function in 21st Century Missions Alan R Johnson introduces the idea of apostolic function as the paradigm of missionary self identity that reminds us to focus our efforts on where Christ is not named He then examines in detail the where paradigm in missions frontier mission missiology with a sympathetic critique and a review of the major contributions of unreached people group thinking Johnson concludes by illustrating his notion of seeking to integrate missions paradigms and discussing of issues that relate specifically to the where questions of missions today Christian-Muslim Dialogue in the Twentieth Century A. Siddiqui, 1997-02-19 The book describes the challenge of modernity faced by Muslims and Christians and the issue of religious pluralism It describes Muslims encounters with Christianity in the first half of this century and their participation in organised dialogues initiated by the Churches in the second half It highlights their apprehensions and expectations in dialogue and issues of co existence in the world today The book focuses on six prominent Muslim personalities who represent a wide spectrum of Muslim opinion and three international organizations and their attitude towards dialogue From Lausanne to Manila, Evangelical Social Thought Jacob Thomas (of Union Biblical Seminary.), 2003 Rediscovering an Evangelical Heritage Donald W. Dayton, 2014-11-25 This book widely regarded as groundbreaking since its publication over thirty five years ago sheds light on the more radical and prophetic roots of American evangelicalism and has challenged countless readers to rethink their evangelical heritage It argues that nineteenth century American evangelicals held a more mature vision of the faith for they engaged demanding justice peace and social issues a vision that was betrayed and distorted by twentieth century neo evangelicals The book helps readers understand that the broader origins of American evangelicalism include the social justice concerns of today s church Featuring new historic photos and illustrations this edition includes new introductory and concluding chapters and incorporates relevant updates The previous edition was published as Discovering an Evangelical Heritage God's Mission in Asia Ken Christoph Miyamoto, 2007-06-15

Ecumenism in postwar Asia institutionalized in the Christian Conference of Asia displayed a remarkable this worldliness from its inception in the 1940s This tendency was in contrast to the tension between the church centric and world centric approaches to Christian mission that marked conciliar mission thinking in the West This work examines the development of such this worldly holiness in Asian ecumenism focusing on M M Thomas of India and C S Song from Taiwan Special attention is drawn to the idea of God s this worldly presence that considers God as redemptively at work in world history apart from the church The study first compares the development of this worldly holiness in the West and Asia and then examines the thinking of Thomas and Song The chapters on these two theologians discuss their backgrounds the basic concerns motivating their intellectual searches and responses to the questions arising from such concerns These chapters also try to understand how these theologians view the relationship between God and the world In so doing the study highlights the significance of the idea of God's this worldly presence shared by Thomas and Song in spite of differences in their backgrounds approaches and theological formulations Having compared Thomas and Song the study concludes that the idea of God's this worldly presence became central to Asian ecumenism because it offered a common unifying vision to Asian Christians who come from a region characterized by tremendous diversity The idea helped them to see the diverse peoples cultures and religions in Asia under one God who transcends the diversity and still takes it seriously

Beyond Fragmentation Bernhard Ott, 2011-06-17 Beyond Fragmentation is an inquiry into the development of mission studies in evangelical theological education in Germany and German speaking Switzerland between 1960 1995 This is carried out by a detailed examination of the paradigm shifts which have taken place in recent years in both the theology of mission and the understanding of theological education David Bosch's proposal of an emerging ecumenical mission paradigm is examined with reference to the schools in membership with the Konferenz Bibeltreuer Ausbildungsstätten KBA The KBA schools have been greatly influenced by the work of Peter Beyerhaus and the Frankfurt Declaration 1970 and as such defend a conservative theological position and resist the challenge of Bosch's mission paradigm shift the key issue being that of hermeneutics Ott further explores the emerging new paradigm of theological education in both the Western and Two Thirds World contexts While the evangelical Bible school movement has historically embodied many of the features of this new paradigm they nevertheless have jeopardized these by their pursuit of academic accreditation Ott believes that theological conservatism has caused the KBA schools to resist changes in the areas of contextual and inductive learning Finally Ott studies the schools pattern of change and change resistance through combining the insights of Thomas Kuhn Hans Kung and Alasdair MacIntyre to hermeneutical and epistemological issues

Al Krass Editor The Other Side Muslim Christian Dialogue M. Darroll Bryant, Syed Ali, 1998-08 Can there be dialogue between Muslims and Christians Can we overcome the long history of antagonism between the two largest religious communities in the world who occupy nearly sixty percent of believing humanity In The Muslim Christian Dialogue 20 essays address these vital questions as they explore the promise and problems of dialogue between the two great traditions Here Muslims and Christians speak of their faith with passion and insight as they seek to move beyond mutual antagonism and caricatures the Muslim as terrorist the Christian as crusader toward mutual understanding The essays cover a range of issues from the encounter of Islam and Christianity with modernity to Islam in Africa from the role of women to the understanding of Jesus in Islam and Christianity and the role of the Prophet Muhammad in Muslim piety Rather than seeking to convert the other these internationally known scholars and religious leaders contribute to mutual understanding between Christians and Muslims
