Evangelical Revivals In New Zealand:

Evangelical Revivals in New Zealand Robert Evans, Roy McKenzie, 2015      A Brief History of Revival in New Zealand Jenny Sharkey, 2016-12-18 This book outlines a brief timeline based history of Christian revival movements and outpourings in the nation of New Zealand Being born again being revived is clearly on God's agenda for his people He wants us to experience the wind of the Spirit bringing us into new life in his Kingdom Revival is not a one off event for the church in a set era it is a fundamental aspect of the Kingdom of God coming on earth in every era Life in the Spirit through the power of resurrection that Jesus has made available to us through his own death and resurrection by the loving grace of the Father this is revival This is being born again The is the good news Revival is for every generation every day New Zealand has an incredible history of revival These stories are our testimony and the testimony about Jesus is essentially the prophetic spirit Revelation 19 10 The Voice Version It is my understanding that our testimonies of Jesus moving among us in the past release the prophecy of what he can and will do among us in the future and even greater things than these So my prayer is that as you read about the wonderful things that have already happened in New Zealand and maybe even where you live you will have hope renewed for what he is about to release in our era for a new generation May the ancient wells of revival be reopened that the water of life may flow across our free land      A Full-er Gospel?: Pentecostal Proclamation in New Zealand 1990-2008 Linda Flett, 2015 This book draws on the belief statements and official publications of Elim and AOG denominations in New Zealand from 1990 to 2008 in order to test the extent to which this conviction was adhered to A statement that In order to reach New Zealand our methods need to change but not our message provides a framing device inviting the reader to explore their responsiveness to aspects of social change within New Zealand before gauging interest in new methodologies known to have impacted Pentecostal churches in New Zealand during this period Actual changes to evangelistic methodology and salvation terminology is presented from the findings of a quantitative study before the salvation message is re examined It will be evident that not only were new methodologies embraced but views on salvation broadened becoming increasingly holistic dynamic and relational      Great Southland Revival Kurt Mahlborg, Warwick Marsh, 2022-11-21 Discover Australia's Great Awakenings Australia is a nation forged in the furnace of revival Long forgotten Australia's Spirit filled history comes to life in Great Southland Revival Discover how the flame of Pentecost spread from the book of Acts all the way to the South Pacific Journey on convict ships and city trams to goldfields outback communities and far flung islands transformed by the gospel Most of all be inspired that God longs to revive the church sweep multitudes into His kingdom and renew our world once again      The Growth of the Brethren Movement: National and International Experiences Neil T. R. Dickson, Tim Grass, 2006-12-01 The essays in this book have been contributed in honour of Dr H H Rowdon a teacher of several generations of students at the London Bible College and a historian of the Brethren movement The book includes reflections on the historiography of the Brethren but it is their character and growth which form the principal focus The writers make original contributions to national regional or local histories and at the same time raise wider themes and issues on topics such as revivalism in New Zealand and the Orkney Islands or paternalism and missionary endeavor in Zambia Leading features of the Brethren are discussed through papers on several seminal figures such as Anthony Norris Groves John Eliot Howard and George Muller Above all the opportunities and problems represented by the worldwide growth of the movement are looked at with reference to a number of countries among them Britain Germany Jamaica and Angola or to individual congregations in places as diverse as Birmingham Singapore and Tasmania Over the whole world concludes Prof D W Bebbington in his contribution Brethren played a distinctive role as evangelicals of the evangelicals

Catalogue of the General Assembly Library of New Zealand New Zealand. Parliament. Library, 1897 Christian Politics in Oceania Matt Tomlinson, Debra L. McDougall, 2013 The phrase Christian politics evokes two meanings political relations between denominations in one direction and the contributions of Christian churches to debates about the governing of society The contributors to this volume address Christian politics in both senses and argue that Christianity is always and inevitably political in the Pacific Islands Drawing on ethnographic and historical research in Papua New Guinea Solomon Islands Vanuatu and Fiji the authors argue that Christianity and politics have redefined each other in much of Oceania in ways that make the two categories inseparable at any level of analysis The individual chapters vividly illuminate the ways in which Christian politics operate across a wide scale from interpersonal relations to national and global interconnections

Victorian Religious Revivals David Bebbington, 2012-05-31 Revivals are outbursts of religious enthusiasm in which there are numerous conversions In this book the phenomenon of revival is set in its broad historical and historiographical context David Bebbington provides detailed case studies of awakenings that took place between 1841 and 1880 in Britain North America and Australia showing that the distinctive features of particular revivals were the result less of national differences than of denominational variations These revivals occurred in many places across the globe but revealed the shared characteristics of evangelical Protestantism Bebbington explores the preconditions of revival giving attention to the cultural setting of each episode as well as the form of piety displayed by the participants No single cause can be assigned to the awakenings but one of the chief factors behind them was occupational structure and striking instances of death were often a precipitant Ideas were far more involved in these events than historians have normally supposed so that the case studies demonstrate some of the main patterns in religious thought at a popular level during the Victorian period Laymen and women played a disproportionate part in their promotion and converts were usually drawn in large numbers from the young There was a trend over time away from traditional spontaneity towards more organised methods sometimes entailing interdenominational co operation

The New Zealand Journal of History, 2007 The Westminster Dictionary of Christian Theology Alan Richardson, John Bowden, 1983-01-01 The Westminster Dictionary of Christian Theology is an important reference for any pastor scholar or student of theology The articles are clearly written historically informative and conceptually clarifying The entries are arranged alphabetically for ease of use

A Thousand Eruptions Fraser Macdonald, 2024-11-14 The charismatic revival movements of the 1970s in Melanesia were the most significant religious development in the region s history but until now there has been no full scale look at the regional upheaval or of why it occurred As this book shows many of the most influential anthropological studies of Christianity in Melanesia are built upon the revival movements of this period In this untold story in the history of global charismatic Christianity Fraser Macdonald utilises the conceptual framework of Deleuze and Guattari which guides this study of an emergent Indigenous Christianity Macdonald shows how the religious context of colonialism missionisation and political independence jointly lead to intense eruptions of a new localised Christianity which was articulated as an ecstatic pursuit of the Second Coming Macdonald offers a case study of the global spread of charismatic Christianity and demonstrates how a new ontological directive was set in motion by the rise and fall of colonialism in Melanesia The work looks at how each movement was formed through the mobilisation of existing local regional and transnational cultural elements in pursuit of a common goal and discusses how the revivals radically and permanently transformed the religious landscape of the region

Worship Through the Ages Elmer L. Towns, Vernon M. Whaley, 2012 A historical and philosophical study of how evangelical worship styles have changed with each great spiritual awakening from the Early Church era to the modern Praise and Worship movement      Webs of Empire Tony Ballantyne, 2014-04-01 Breaking open colonization to reveal tangled cultural and economic networks Webs of Empire offers new paths into colonial history Linking Gore and Chicago Maori and Asia India and newspapers whalers and writing Ballantyne presents empire building as a spreading web of connected places people ideas and trade These links question narrow national stories while broadening perspectives on the past and the legacies of colonialism that persist today Bringing together essays from two decades of prolific publishing on international colonial history Webs of Empire establishes Tony Ballantyne as one of the leading historians of the British Empire      Proceedings of the Geneva Conference of the Evangelical Alliance, Held in September 1861 Evangelical Alliance. Conference, 1862      The Oxford History of Protestant Dissenting Traditions, Volume IV Jehu J. Hanciles, 2019-03-07 The five volume Oxford History of Protestant Dissenting Traditions series is governed by a motif of migration out of England It first traces organized church traditions that arose in England as Dissenters distanced themselves from a state church defined by diocesan episcopacy the Book of Common Prayer the Thirty Nine Articles and royal supremacy but then follows those traditions as they spread beyond England and also traces newer traditions that emerged downstream in other parts of the world from earlier forms of Dissent Secondly it does the same for the doctrines church practices stances toward state and society attitudes toward Scripture and characteristic patterns of organization that also originated in earlier English Dissent but that have often defined a trajectory of influence independent ecclesiastical organizations Volume IV examines the globalization of dissenting traditions in the twentieth century During this period Protestant Dissent achieved not only its widest geographical reach but also the greatest genealogical distance from its point of origin Covering Africa Asia the Middle East America Europe Latin America and the Pacific this collection provides detailed examination of Protestant Dissent as a globalizing movement Contributors probe the radical shifts and complex reconstruction that took place as dissenting traditions encountered diverse cultures and took root in a multitude of contexts many of which were experiencing major historical change at the same time This authoritative overview unambiguously reveals that Dissent was transformed as it travelled      New Zealand Roselynn Smelt, 2009 Celebrates the diversity of life through the exploration of cultures around the world      Evangelicals and the End of Christendom Hugh Chilton, 2019-12-09 Exploring the response of evangelicals to the collapse of Greater Christian Britain in Australia in the long 1960s this book provides a new religious perspective to the end of empire and a fresh national perspective to the end of Christendom In the turbulent 1960s two foundations of the Western world rapidly and unexpectedly collapsed Christendom marked by the dominance of discursive Christianity in public culture and Greater Britain the powerful sentimental and strategic union of Britain and its settler societies disappeared from the collective mental map with startling speed To illuminate these contemporaneous global shifts this book takes as a case study the response of Australian evangelical Christian leaders to the cultural and religious crises encountered between 1959 and 1979 Far from being a narrow national study this book places its case studies in the context of the latest North American and European scholarship on secularisation imperialism and evangelicalism Drawing on a wide range of archival sources it examines critical figures such as Billy Graham Fred Nile and Hans Mol as well as issues of empire counter cultural movements and racial and national identity This study will be of particular interest to any scholar of Evangelicalism in the twentieth century It will also be a useful resource for academics looking into the wider impacts of the decline of Christianity and the British Empire in Western civilisation
