Evangelism Encounter

Kevin E. Ruffcorn

Evangelism Encounter:

Evangelism Encounter Richard Sisson, 1988 The world is waiting for an authentic demonstration of the life of Christ by the body of Christ Author Dick Sisson presents a foundation for effective evangelism and a usable method for sharing the Good News You will come away from this book with a solid knowledge of the message of the gospel and a vision for reaching your world for Christ Don't keep that world waiting any longer

Conversion in the New Testament Richard Peace, 1999 A landmark work in the study of conversion With the tools of scholarship and as a seasoned practitioner Richard Peace explores the New Testament understanding of the turning points of conversion from the night of our captivities to the light of Christ into the church and out to the neighbor in need Our contemporary efforts in evangelism have much to learn from this full-orbed view of conversion Gabriel Fackre on back cover

Compassion Evangelism Thomas G. Nees, 1996 The author shares the historical and biblical bases for compassionate ministries and offers practical tips for organizing your own compassionate ministries

Evangelism Outside the Box Rick Richardson, 2025-07-31 It used to be that providing clear evidence for the resurrection of Jesus or the reliability of the Bible was a pretty effective way to reach people with the Good News But today many folks think all truth is relative even our historical and scientific data about Christianity So how can we reach them We need new ways of telling people the old old story We need to look again at our usual mental habits if we want to reach people who have a brand new mindset of their own We need to get outside the box of ideas and practices that are sacred to us but are not sacred to God That's what Rick Richardson's book is all about Here are fresh perspectives on relying on the Holy Spirit awakening spiritual interest in others appealing to what they value instead of what we think they should value and leading them into a transforming experience with God Also included is Richardson's Circles of Belonging a new straightforward presentation of the message of Jesus yes it can even be sketched out on a napkin that is true to Scripture and true to the new way people live and think As an experienced evangelist and leader of evangelism programs Richardson offers in this helpful book the principles and practices that will help us all grow in love for and communicate effectively with people who need Jesus

Invitation to Evangelism Timothy K. Beougher, 2021-08-24 Essential guidance for a lifestyle of sharing God's good news with a lost world What exactly does it mean to evangelize in a Christian sense And how is such evangelizing supposed to be done Longtime pastor evangelist and professor of evangelism Timothy K. Beougher answers these questions and more from theological historical and practical perspectives Beougher demonstrates God's goodness in evangelism through relatable anecdotes Bible teaching and encouraging instruction Invitation to Evangelism welcomes believers into the experience of stepping out in faith on behalf of people God loves Most Christians know that they should be sharing the good news of Jesus Christ with nonbelievers and most also know they aren't witnessing very well or even at all They need help internalizing the content of gospel proclamation and identifying the best way to go about making evangelism a natural part of their lives Invitation to Evangelism guides readers through the essential issues of the gospel message evangelism methods and witnessing models so they are ready and excited to move out in faith as everyday evangelists Beougher's biblical theological historical and practical teaching revolves around following essential aspects of being an evangelist Having compassion as the motivation for evangelism Understanding the good news of Jesus Christ Seeing lost people as persons God loves Relying on the power of the Holy Spirit Paving the way for new believers to share their faith eagerly with others

Encountering God through the Church Wade Rutland Howell Jr., 2019-02-21 In this thought provoking examination of how people encounter God Wade Howell examines the way humans come in contact with the divine Howell presents a biblical theological and philosophical case for why people who are physical can have a relationship with God who is spirit With an emphasis on centrality of the local church Howell demonstrates how God designed the church to satisfy the most intimate human needs which God placed in humans so he could be the source of their fulfillment With a heart for people and a love for God's church Howell echoes Augustine in showing why our soul is restless until it finds rest in God through his church

The Handbook for Spiritual Warfare Ed Murphy, 2022-02-01 Your guide to understanding all dimensions of spiritual warfare The Handbook for Spiritual Warfare is the most thorough treatment available of biblical and theological foundations and practical concerns for spiritual warfare Further revised and updated for the 21st century THE BOOK Equips leaders and mature believers Comprehensive coverage of all 3 dimensions of spiritual conflict the World the Flesh and the Devil Endorsed by Frank Peretti Dr C Peter Wagner and others Rural Evangelism Kevin E. Ruffcorn, 1994 Aware that pastors and church members need a new vision for evangelism in small towns and rural areas Ruffcorn presents lively suggestions and new understandings gleaned from his workshops on rural evangelism and his own experience He emphasizes the need for congregations to dwell on both the inward and outward aspects of nurturing their own members and reaching out to neighbors

Emerging from the Dark Age Ahead Charles Fensham, 2011 In this fascinating presentation of faith Charles Fensham argues cogently and passionately for a church that embraces hope in spite of the dark and destructive pressures all around it Although a metaphoric dark time awaits Christianity Fensham assures his readers that this darkness merely conceals the light for the future Emerging from the Dark Age Ahead offers a prophetic and challenging call for contemporary Christians to ask where we have come from where we are and where we are going Professor Fensham borrows from Jane Jacobs the metaphor of the Dark Age ahead bringing social and cultural analysis to bear upon a fresh theology of church and mission for our time and place Drawing from deep roots in the trinitarian tradition and borrowing insight from historic monasticism he calls for a pilgrim steward church that will speak and act constructively in the coming time of troubles This is a creative original work that will stimulate theological students and lay folk as well Harold Wells Professor Emeritus Emmanuel College University of Toronto Insightful provocative instructive words that describe how this book helps the church navigate the deep cultural challenge it now faces of massive technique organized through digitalization Grounding the church's life in a missional hermeneutic of reading Scripture and the church's identity in the social Trinity

Fensham boldly yet carefully charts a course for engaging the dark age ahead Craig Van Gelder Ph D Professor of Congregational Mission Luther Seminary Charles Fensham has a unique perspective on the emergent church Born in apartheid South Africa and raised within the apartheid tainted Reformed church he is an immigrant to Canada with experiences of the church in France Switzerland the South Pacific and Africa He teaches at Knox College at the University of Toronto

A Pilgrimage of Faith John B. Toews, 1993 It is now 1990 one hundred and thirty years since the birth of the Mennonite Brethren Church and therefore time for someone in that church to take a backward glance to see how things have developed Who better to do this John B Toews His life spans well over half of those years and he has experienced much of what he writes JB as he is affectionately known by both students and colleagues is a patriarchal figure in the Mennonite Brethren Church Born in Ukraine the Russian Revolution and its aftermath were the crucible that shaped his youth and young adult years After studying in Western Europe Toews immigrated to Canada in the late 1920s Much of his life has been in Mennonite Brethren educational institutions in Canada and the United States During ten years as Executive Secretary of the Mennonite Brethren Board of Missions he traveled widely and came to know Mennonite Brethren people around the world In between educational and mission administrative responsibilities he pastored in Kansas and California After retiring from the presidency of the Mennonite Brethren Biblical Seminary he became the founding Director of the Historical Commission of the Mennonite Brethren Church

The Missionary Self-Perception of Pentecostal/Charismatic Church Leaders from the Global South in Europe Claudia Währisch-Oblau, 2009-03-16 In a situation of growing interest in the religion of migrants there are still few publications dealing with pentecostal and charismatic Christians from the global South and the churches they have been starting all over Europe This ground breaking study based on extensive interviews conducted during a nine year research period encompassing more than 100 churches describes how pentecostal charismatic migrant pastors live out their pastoral role how they construct their missionary biographies and how they conceptualize and practice evangelism The result is a comprehensive portrait of an immigrant group which does not define itself as victimized and in need of assistance but as expatriate agents with a clear calling and a vision to change the continent they now live in

offers an intriguing new perspective on the outreach strategies of U S evangelicals framing them as examples of activist performance broadly defined as acts performed before an audience in the hopes of changing hearts and minds Most writing about activist performance has focused on left progressive causes events and actors Preaching to Convert argues against such a constricted view of activism and for a more nuanced understanding of U S evangelicalism as a movement defined by its desire to win converts and spread the gospel The book positions evangelicals as a diverse complicated group confronting the loss of conservative Christianity s default status in 21st century U S culture In the face of an increasingly secular age evangelicals have been reassessing models of outreach In acts like handing out Bible tracts to strangers on the street or going door to door with a Bible in hand in elaborately staged horror themed morality plays or multimillion dollar creationist discovery centers in megachurch services beamed to dozens of satellite campuses and in controversial ex gay ministries striving to return gays and lesbians to the straight and narrow evangelicals are redefining what it means to be deeply committed in a pluralist world The book s engaging style and careful argumentation make it accessible and appealing to scholars and students across a range of fields

Converge Bible Studies: Sharing the Gospel Curtis Zackery, 2013-06-17 Evangelism has become a virtual four letter word in some circles Sharing one s faith can be intimidating and Christians through the ages have disagreed on what evangelism means But at its most basic level it s simply sharing the good news that the Son of God became human and died for the sins of humanity Join popular speaker Curtis Zackery as he uses Scripture to explore the questions of evangelism Sharing the Gospel will help you discover how to share your faith in a way that works for you Converge Bible Studies is a series of topical Bible studies based on the Common English Bible Each title in the series consists of four studies on a common topic or theme Converge can be used by small groups classes or individuals Primary Scripture passages are included for ease of study as are questions designed to encourage both personal reflection and group conversation The topics and Scriptures in Converge come together to transform readers relationships with others themselves and God

Chaplaincy Grace Thomas, Kim Wasey, 2024-09-30 This new collection from chaplains in a wide variety of contemporary chaplaincy settings in the UK and around the globe brings together practitioner perspectives with academic discussion and is tailored to support students of Chaplaincy at every level The lively narratives and reflections make this book accessible to those engaging with what chaplaincy means for the first time while the rigorous critical engagement with key issues makes this a key read for anyone seeking a fresh and global perspective on developments at the forefront of this swiftly growing and diversifying field of ministry The volume explores what chaplaincy means in contemporary and global settings It takes seriously the intersectionality of both practitioners and recipients of chaplaincy ministry centering factors such as race gender and disability alongside political missional and denominational considerations

Finding God in Other Christians Lorraine Cavanagh, 2012-04-12 As we journey in faith many of us begin to find God in the context of more than one kind of churchmanship Even if we feel happy where we are we may benefit greatly from getting out of our particular church comfort zone in order to encounter God in new ways through Christians whose priorities and styles of worship are at variance with our own This book calls us to a deeper and more compassionate approach to the challenges of diversity among Christians It addresses issues such as Are Christians meant to be more than friends Jesus Christ as our common identity Violence between Christians Radical hospitality Dealing with difference The meaning of God among us and finally Christians in Christ and for the world

Encountering Islam Richard Sudworth, 2017-03-31 What do Christian Churches say Islam is What does the Church of England say Islam is And in the end what space is there for genuine engagement with Islam Richard Sudworth's unique study takes as its cue the question of political theology and brings this burgeoning area of debate into dialogue with Christian Muslim relations and Anglican ecclesiology The vexed subject of Christian Muslim Relations provides the presenting arena to explore what political theologies enable the Church of England to engage with the diverse public square of the twenty first century Each chapter concludes with an Anecdotes from the Field section setting themes from the chapter in the context of Richard Sudworth's own ministry within a Muslim majority parish
