Evangelistically Yours Ecumenical Letters On Contemporary Evangelism:

Evangelistically Yours Raymond Fung, 1992-01-01 Evangelistically Yours Ecumenical Letters on Contemporary Evangelism Understanding Evangelism J. D. Payne, 2025-09-30 When seeking to understand evangelism it can be difficult to know where to begin due to the wealth of written material available on the topic This one stop textbook offers a comprehensive introduction to evangelism from an evangelical perspective It draws from the diverse and vast literature on the topic to help readers share the gospel at home and throughout the world Understanding Evangelism emerges from the author's experiences as a pastor missionary evangelist and professor of evangelism and from his expertise as a scholar in the field The book provides the necessary biblical knowledge cultural awareness and practical insights for every Christ follower to participate in the privilege of partnering with the Spirit in the world The first part of the book covers contemporary definitions of evangelism the global status of world evangelization and personal motives and ethics for evangelism The second part addresses its biblical and theological foundations while the third part offers a historical overview The fourth part focuses on cultural contexts and effective communication of the gospel The book concludes with contemporary issues that offer practical guidance in the ministry of evangelism Pedagogical tools including case studies sidebars figures and reflection questions help students retain information Call to Mission and Perceptions of Proselytism John Baxter-Brown, 2022-04-13 Proselytism remains one of the most divisive issues in global Christianity jeopardizing many ecumenical initiatives and projects Almost all traditions accuse others of proselytism but none readily confess to it as one tradition's mission and evangelism is another's proselytism This work brings together for the first time significant formal statements from Christian bodies and churches alongside articles from leading commentators in this hotly contested issue It gives clergy academics and students a vital resource in understanding the perspectives of different traditions and therefore the opportunity to study and understand viewpoints and opinions from competing perspectives The volume originates in a process of work commissioned by the World Pentecostal Fellowship the World Council of Churches the World Evangelical Alliance and the Roman Catholic Church under the auspices of the Global Christian Forum We discovered that there are no easy answers that resolve the tensions and debates about proselytism but through listening and understanding different voices new opportunities for establishing constructive relationships can and do emerge The Ecumenical Review, 1992 A History of the Ecumenical Movement: 1968-2000 Ruth Rouse, Stephen Neill, Harold Edward Fey, 1986 Progress in Unity? Martien E. Brinkman, 1995 As an expert and lively tour guide Brinkman takes the reader through the breathtaking landscape of a half century of ecumenical dialogue The author makes an invaluable contribution by his deft selection of documents his thought provoking commentary on key issues and his keen discernment of the missionary challenge that faces the church of Christ as it travels on the road to greater visible unity the work is equally suitable for personal reading and for the college or seminary classroom A veritable feast for ecumenical and evangelical readers This work is a refreshing stimulus to reflection prayer and action for the unity and mission of the church in a troubled world George Vandervelde President of the North American Academy of Ecumenists Professor of Systematic Theology Institute for Christian Studies Toronto Canada One thing becomes clear from Martien Brinkman's book those who claim that the ecumenical movement went into a deadlock have not studied its results Most people suffer from a lack of memory when it comes to the history of ecumenical theology during the past 70 years This book provides medicine for ecumenical amnesia It deals especially with the Faith and Order Movement and Commission within the World Council of Churches There flows from Brinkman's book a whole new stream of an ecumenical theological tradition which is scarcely known even to academic theologians This tradition treats of such matters as Scripture and Tradition Faith and Sacraments Church World and Kingdom of God This book provides an excellent overview and in depth evaluation of the major currents in this developing ecumenical tradition It will certainly promote its reception in the churches and its study in the academy At the same time however it keeps an eye open for the difficulties and tensions of the dialogue between ecumenical and evangelical Christians and between the theological methods of the North and the South It will be difficult to find any more reliable study guide to the results of the multilateral ecumenical dialogues of the twentieth century Anton Houtepen Professor of Ecumenism University of Utrecht The Netherlands This book conceived as a study guide to the Faith and Order Movement does precisely what it sets out to do and does it well It brings the reader into close contact with the documents and studies published by this influential section of the World Council of Churches Such an inventory comes at the right time just as the Commission on Faith and Order takes stock after the World Conference of Santiago and under the guidance of a new director It is no secret that Faith and Order has been invited to reflect upon its future orientation The well documented and orderly survey which Prof Brinkman offers us here will certainly be of help in such a process Jos Vercruysse S J Professor of Church History and Ecumenism Pontifical Gregorian University Rome

What is Mission? J. Andrew Kirk, How should today's Church shape its response to the Gospel How can we set about making disciples of all nations in our post Christian multifaith world What does mission mean in our times Here is a book that addresses these issues and many more with honesty and openness It strips mission of its old associations with colonialism and militarism It looks anew at the underlying theology reminding us that our task is God's mission not a human construct It explores key aspects of contemporary mission from the familiar such as the relation of mission to evangelism and to people of other faiths to the unusual and thought provoking such as mission and the environment justice for the poor and the overcoming of violence Students of mission and Christians who wish to engage with today's world to integrate faith and life will find here an inclusive comprehensive and lucid presentation of all the relevant discussions Double Particularity

Daniel D. Lee, 2017-05-01 Double Particularity is a constructive proposal for theological methodology addressing the Asian American context using the theology of Karl Barth It focuses primarily on employing Barth's theology to develop a methodology for engaging the Asian American context This methodological focus means that it is an integrative and synthetic work bringing seemingly disparate thoughts and concepts together Here the Asian American context serves as an important case study With the center of worldwide Christianity moving to the global South and even as American Christianity becomes more reflective of immigrant populations the theological need for a deeper engagement with context is more urgent than ever Karl Barth particularly his thought on election Christology and reconciliation offers much wisdom and insight for the churches of the majority world and for these ethnic churches even though he is often seen as just a figure in the Western historical tradition Hence this study is a contribution to the development of a connection between Barth and contextual theology to the stimulation and enrichment of both

Classic Texts in Mission and World Christianity Norman E. Thomas, 1995 Classic Texts in Mission World Christianity a unique sourcebook on the history and mission of the church Nearly two hundred selections covering the two millennia of the Christian era are represented including both classic and contemporary voices of persons in mission women and men from Africa Asia the Americas and Europe and key texts for understanding the mission of Christ the vocation of the church and the nature of Christianity Following the outline of David Bosch s monumental Transforming Mission Classic Texts offers its readers the full texts cited throughout that best seller as well as dozens of additional primary sources from every era and every part of the world From the seventh century abbess Bertilla of Chelles who directed both women and men missionaries in England to the Nestorian Monument detailing struggles with issues of contextualization in 8th century China to David Livingstone s oft cited espousal of civilization commerce and Christianity seldom quoted in its entirety Classic Texts provides a depth and breadth of resources unparalleled elsewhere

Walk Humbly with the Lord Viggo Mortensen, Andreas Osterund Nielsen, 2010-12-17 In June of 1910 delegates gathered in Edinburgh for the first World Missionary Conference One hundred years later the 2010 Church and Mission in a Multireligious Third Millennium conference sought to reconcile a century of seismic shifts in the worldwide landscape of the church with its ongoing mandate to make disciples of all nations Arising out of that recent conference Walk Humbly with the Lord presents a broad multinational spectrum of contemporary approaches to both theology and missiology Recognizing that the old Western notion of Christendom which formed the cultural backdrop of Edinburgh 1910 is now long obsolete the book s twenty seven forward thinking contributors respond to globalization and the enormous growth of religious pluralism worldwide offering reflections on the future of missiology and the relationship of church and mission Together they speculate about the possible shape of Christianity in a multireligious age as God works out new and unforeseen schemes in the reconciliation of the world I wish I could have been at the conference from which this book comes Viggo Mortensen and Andreas Nielsen have assembled a marvelous collection of reflections on mission that will be especially helpful to Christians committed to living faithfully and missionally in today's pluralistic world If a new postsecular reality is emerging as some are saying these essays will help the church be a sign of hope and stability in such a new age Stephen Bevans SVD Catholic Theological Union Chicago 〇〇〇〇 〇〇〇〇,〇〇〇〇〇〇, RIC. ,1992 Ad Ultimum Terrae Veli-Matti Kärkkäinen,1999 The Pentecostal Movement currently the second largest Christian constituency after the Roman Catholic Church is the most rapidly growing Christian movement in history It has grown from zero to almost 500 million in one century Pentecostals are known for energetic evangelism and mission They are often accused of proselytism and the lack of social concern in their mission The International Dialogue between Pentecostals and the Roman Catholic Church has dared to have another look at these vital issues affecting the rest of the Church The fourth round 1990 1997 of the dialogue started in 1972 focused on mission proselytism and common witness The present study written at the Institute for Ecumenical and Cultural Research Collegeville Minnesota USA under the mentorship of Kilian McDonnell OSB the co founder and co chair of the International Roman Catholic Pentecostal dialogue highlights the similarities and differences in mission and related issues between these two largest Christian families Index to Book Reviews in Religion ,1995
