Evangelization in the American Context David B. Burrell, Franzita Kane, 1976 Evangelization in the American Context David B. Burrell, Franzita Kane, 1976 United States Catholic Catechism for Adults Catholic Church. United States Conference of Catholic Bishops, 2006 Includes bibliographical references pages 540 542 and indexes Evangelizing America Thomas P. Rausch, 2004 Evangelizing America probes the interdependence of culture and faith surveys different approaches to evangelization among contemporary Catholics and looks at what evangelization means in a parish context BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved Karl Rahner, Culture and Evangelization Anthony Mellor, 2019-05-15 The situation of religious institutional diminishment in many Western countries requires new approaches to the proclamation of Christian faith As a response to these complexities Karl Rahner suggested a mystagogic approach as a future pathway for theology A mystagogical approach seeks modes of spiritual and theological conversation which engage the religious imagination and draws upon personal experiences of transcendence and religious sensibility In Karl Rahner Culture and Evangelization New Approaches in an Australian Setting Anthony Mellor develops a reflective process of contemporary mystagogia describing how different fields of engagement require different patterns of mystagogical conversation While focussing on the Australian setting these differentiate arenas of engagement are also applicable to other cultural settings and offer fresh perspectives for evangelization today The New Evangelization Steven C. Boguslawski, Ralph Martin, 2008 One of Pope John Paul II s most important legacies is his repeated call to a new evangelization the need to reevangelize traditionally Christian societies that are hurtling toward secularization This book brings together the best scholarship on this topic BOOK JACKET Contextual Theology for Latin America Sharon E. Heaney, 2008-07-01 In the context of Latin America the theology of liberation is both dominant and world renowned However this context and the pursuit of theological relevance belong also to other voices Orlando E Costas Samuel Escobar J Andrew Kirk Emilio A Nunez and C Rene Padilla are thinkers who have sought to bring an evangelical understanding of liberation to the people of Latin America Despite their influence on national and international theology and despite their transformative contribution to the praxis of churches ministering in contexts of poverty their thought has not been systematized to dates This work deals with this lacuna presenting the vitality of Latin American evangelical theology which seeks to be biblical relevant and missiologically effective thus offering a liberation which is holistic and grounded in the kingdom of God Pre-Evangelization and Young Adult "Native Nones" Tamra Hull Fromm, 2021-01-19 What motivates American young adult native nones or those who have grown up without a religious background to investigate the Catholic faith What turns them off How do we reach them Tamra Hull Fromm re examines the role of pre evangelization in the contemporary context and presents a micro study of twenty four native nones who chose to investigate the Catholic Church through the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults RCIA in the Archdiocese of Detroit USA Dictionary of Mission Karl Muller, Theo

Sundermeier, Stephen B. Bevans, Richard H. Bliese, 2006-01-30 Conceived and developed by two of Europe's most eminent missiologists in the country where the scientific and sustained study of mission first took shape the Dictionary of Mission represents the finest of the chorus of voices that comprise contemporary missiology The choice of topics and the authors to address them reflects what Christian mission has become a genuinely worldwide and ecumenical phenomenon That there would be entries on regional theological developments is indicative of how the world church is developing A host of other topics here explored show too how the landscape of mission is changing Taken as a whole then the Dictionary of Mission is a road map through this exciting and challenging terrain from the Foreword Christ Outside the Gate Orlando E.

Costas, 2005-08-22 Solidly theological amply historical thoroughly ecumenical and remarkably current Orlando Costas Christ Outside the Gate is the most succinct yet comprehensive analysis of the missiological issues facing the church and the churches that has appeared in many years Alan Neely Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary Wake Forest Learning and passion come together in Christ Outside the Gate to make it an outstanding contribution to missiology Gabriel Fackre Abbot Professor of Christian Theology Andover Newton Theological School You have in your hands a new way of seeing missions North America as a receiving country the marginalized as the subject as well as object of missions world evangelization with one foot in Melbourne and one foot in Pattaya Few authors blend together so effectively so many worlds evangelism and scholarship northern hemisphere and southern hemisphere sociology and theology Harvie M Conn Westminster Theological Seminary Philadelphia Costas may well be or is on his way to becoming the ablest missiologist alive Jorge Lara Braud Director Council on Theology and Culture Presbyterian Church in the U S Costas writes from the background of an Hispanic Evangelical but goes far beyond the normal concerns of that tradition In a series of far ranging essays he deals with virtually every aspect of the contemporary missiological debate in a manner that is usually balanced and always provocative While some readers will violently question his views at certain points all will be stimulated and challenged to think more deeply and participate more effectively in the total world mission to which God has called His Church Paul E Pierson Fuller Theological Seminary Christ Outside the Gate offers us a perspective of missions that focuses on the transition from paternalism to the contextualization of the Gospel Oscar I Romo Director Language Missions Division Southern Baptist Convention Costas writes from the viewpoint of those who live on the periphery of society He challenges Christians of all denominations to a renewed understanding of the Christ who suffered outside the gates John T Boberg Catholic Theological Union Chicago Orlando E Costas is also the author of Liberating News The Integrity of Mission and The Church and Its Mission New Life in the Risen Christ Jonathan A. Powers, 2023-05-26 Baptism is a foundational rite and sacrament of the church Over the centuries the significance of baptism for Christian life and faith has been confirmed by the church but baptism remains a highly controversial topic Numerous disagreements exist between denominations and faith traditions including the various descendants of the original Methodist movement over the doctrine and practice of baptism Who can be baptized Why is baptism done What does the rite mean New Life in the Risen Christ A Wesleyan Theology of Baptism seeks to address confusion over baptism and offer a coherent treatment of the sacrament from a Wesleyan theological perspective Distinguished scholars from around the world are brought together in this volume to examine the writings of John Wesley and offer scholarly reflections on topics related to the sacrament of baptism Their work is an invitation to remember and be thankful for baptism as the sign of divine grace that initiates Christians into a new reality life in the risen Christ

Understanding Evangelism J. D. Payne, 2025-09-30 When seeking to understand evangelism it can be difficult to know where to begin due to the wealth of written material available on the topic This one stop textbook offers a comprehensive introduction to evangelism from an evangelical perspective It draws from the diverse and vast literature on the topic to help readers share the gospel at home and throughout the world Understanding Evangelism emerges from the author's experiences as a pastor missionary evangelist and professor of evangelism and from his expertise as a scholar in the field The book provides the necessary biblical knowledge cultural awareness and practical insights for every Christ follower to participate in the privilege of partnering with the Spirit in the world The first part of the book covers contemporary definitions of evangelism the global status of world evangelization and personal motives and ethics for evangelism The second part addresses its biblical and theological foundations while the third part offers a historical overview The fourth part focuses on cultural contexts and effective communication of the gospel The book concludes with contemporary issues that offer practical guidance in the ministry of evangelism Pedagogical tools including case studies sidebars figures and reflection questions help students retain information      You Are My Witnesses Charles E. Van Engen, 2009-09-01 Eighty percent of all new church members become part of a local congregation because of a previous relationship or friendship with another member of that congregation Yet in spite of a number of excellent books written concerning relational evangelism little seems to happen in actually motivating training and mobilizing church members to evangelize their neighbors friends businesses associates and family members That is until You Are My Witnesses This new book is designed to be used by small groups in local churches as an action reflection training manual for those committed to be Christ's witnesses      Regionalism in Latin America JOSÉ BRICENO-RUIZ, Andres Rivarola Puntigliano, 2020-11-18 This interdisciplinary edited volume explores the political economy of regionalism in Latin America It identifies convergent forces which have existed in the region since its very conception and analyses these dynamics in their different historical geographic and structural contexts Particular attention is paid to key countries such as Argentina Brazil and Mexico as well as subregions like the Southern Cone and Central America To understand the resilience of regionalism in Latin America this book proposes to highlight four main issues Firstly that resilience is linked to mechanisms of self enforcement that are part of the accumulation of experiences institution building and common cultural features described in this book as regionalist acquis Secondly the elements and driving forces behind the promotion and expression of the regionalist acquis are influenced and shaped by nested systems in which social processes are inserted Thirdly when looking at systems there is a particular influence by national and global ones which condition the form and endurance of regional projects Finally beyond systems the book highlights the relevance of agents as crucial players in the shaping of the resilience of regionalism in Latin America This insightful collection will appeal to advanced students and researchers in international economics international relations international political economy economic history and Latin American studies      The Magazine of American History ,1885      The Study of

Evangelism Paul W. Chilcote,Lacey C. Warner,2008-02-13 Christians and communities of faith today are rediscovering evangelism as an essential aspect of the church s mission Many of the resulting books in the marketplace however have a hands on orientation often lacking serious theological engagement and reflection Bucking that how to trend The Study of Evangelism offers thirty groundbreaking essays that plumb the depths of the biblical and theological heritage of the church with reference to evangelistic practice Helpfully organized into six categories these broad diverse writings lay a solid scholarly foundation for meaningful dialogue about the church s practice of evangelism      The Evangelization Equation James A. Wehner,2011 The Evangelization Equation The Who What and How is a crash course in the New Evangelization to which both Pope John Paul II and Benedict XVI have called all Catholics The author Father James A Wehner explores the challenges and the opportunities in American culture for spreading the Gospel While giving a full presentation of the cultural historical pastoral and theological background of his topic he also communicates the very practical implications of the call

Making Disciples in a World Parish Paul W. Chilcote,2011-04-01 In this collection of inspirational and challenging essays Methodists from around the globe reflect on the practice of disciple making in their own contexts From their own perspectives they address questions like What are the challenges you face What biblical images shape your missional practice What examples of Christian authenticity inspire your communities What gifts related to mission and evangelism do you offer the global community of faith Churches on every continent have their own stories of struggle and faithfulness Indeed each distinct community within any given region has a voice of its own that deserves to be heard The voices included in this volume belong to women and men alike Likewise they resound with the accents of Africa and Asia Latin and North America Europe and Oceania Each voice is distinct but all articulate a vision of faith made effective through love In a world characterized variously by poverty and violence as well as prosperity and peace the church must reclaim its central mission to make disciples of Jesus Christ In their effort to articulate a vision of mission and evangelism the contributors to this volume bear witness to the fact that we can no longer do this work in isolation from one another To be the ambassadors of the gospel we need each other and we need to pay attention to the voices that sound different from our own This volume takes a large step in that vital direction      Creating the Evangelizing Parish Frank P. DeSiano,Kenneth Boyack,1993 Creating the Evangelizing Parish challenges those who realize the importance of evangelization and are eager to make an impact on Catholic Church life today Co authors Frank DeSiano and Kenneth Boyack clearly explain the definition of evangelization and offer for further clarification an encounter model of evangelization which specifically places the ministry into the framework of personal relationships The authors then describe actual parish dynamics and organization in terms of their universal evangelizing purposes as understood by the church Creating the Evangelizing Parish is key reading for church leaders who want to take charge of their parishes direction establish evangelization teams and implement effective parish strategies for renewal Every pastor pastoral staff member parish counselor and other workers in evangelization will gladly welcome this book as a pastoral and practical resource for their ministry Creating the Evangelizing Parish will richly reward those who look for new directions in their ministry and the church BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved      The Magazine of American History with Notes and Queries John Austin Stevens,Benjamin Franklin DeCosta,Henry Phelps Johnston,Martha Joanna Lamb,Nathan Gillett Pond,Benjamin Franklin De Costa,1886
