Nouvelles universitaires européennes, 1993 The Europeanization of Citizenship Fiorella Dell'Olio, 2017-05-15 The connection between immigration and citizenship in Europe is an increasingly important issue This timely and informative book investigates three main aspects of the issue the degree to which European citizenship encourages the development of a European identity the impact of European citizenship at the nation state level in Italy and the UK in regard to domestic policy making in the areas of immigration and citizenship and what is needed to make a supranational citizenship work in practice Fiorella Dell'Olio examines changes in laws on citizenship nationality and immigration in Italy and the UK and assesses the relationship between the political conceptualization of European citizenship and the public response as revealed by opinion polls She argues that the establishment of a European citizenship has reinforced the ideology of nationality in both Italy and the UK and that it consequently has failed to forge a European identity

Environmental Integration in Competition and Free-Movement Laws Julian Nowag, 2016-11-10 Environmental Integration in Competition and Free Movement Laws engages in a comprehensive analysis of the obligation of Article 11 TFEU integration of environmental protection requirements in the three core areas of EU internal market law competition state aid and free movement It develops a theoretical framework for integrating environmental and other policies and compares how environmental integration takes place within competition state aid and free movement law In turn it paves a way for a more transparent and consistent integration of environment protection in these three core areas of law Structured in three parts this volume I offers a detailed analysis of the historical development of environmental integration including discussions of the various intergovernmental conferences which led to a number of Treaty changes shaping the obligation itself II It investigates which provisions and concepts within competition law state aid law and the market freedoms can be interpreted in order to provide a clear demarcation of environmental protection and these areas of law III It analyses how competition state aid and free movement law allow for a balancing of the environment against restrictions in cases of conflict

Integrating Faith and Special Education Bennett Nworie, 2016-10-10 There is an inherent connection between the Christian faith and special education For example both focus on the worth of the individual Both also focus on fairness and on caring for or helping the weak Similarly both aim to equip and support others This book helps the readers perceive this integral relationship that exists between the Christian faith and the special education discipline This book utilizes the chapters that stem from real life professional experiences and scholarship of the contributors to model and encourage special education practice from a Christian faith angle It is our view that special education practiced from this faith perspective will transform what is currently accepted as best practice into a new system of special education experience that is wholesome biblically based and characteristic of Shalom as wholeness not just peace Shalom in this sense has strong relevance in both the Christian faith and special education The first three chapters highlight the connection between special education and Christian theology and draw attention to the pivotal role worldview plays in being an effective special educator The bulk of the body of the text looks at different aspects of instructional effectiveness in special education from a Christian faith perspective

FCC Record United States. Federal Communications Commission, 1991 Integration Now William P. Hustwit, 2019-02-05 Recovering the history of an often ignored landmark Supreme Court case William P Hustwit assesses the significant role that Alexander v Holmes 1969 played in integrating the South s public schools Although Brown v Board of Education has rightly received the lion s share of historical analysis its ambiguous language for implementation led to more than a decade of delays and resistance by local and state governments Alexander v Holmes required integration now and less than a year later thousands of children were attending integrated schools Hustwit traces the progression of the Alexander case to show how grassroots activists in Mississippi operated hand in glove with lawyers and judges involved in the litigation By combining a narrative of the larger legal battle surrounding the case and the story of the local activists who pressed for change Hustwit offers an innovative well researched account of a definitive legal decision that reaches from the cotton fields of Holmes County to the chambers of the Supreme Court in Washington Environmental Protection Policy ,2020-01-20 No detailed description available for Environmental Protection Policy Agriculture--environmental and Consumer Protection Appropriations for 1972 United States.
