Evening Chore Poems:

Evening Chore Shari Wagner, 2005 In Evening Chore augmented by John Domont's striking cover art Wagner takes us with her to the far pasture that borderland where at dusk the known meets the unknown where details are at once familiar and mysterious where a kill deer plain collared plover of open fields circles above us with the pull of ocean in its flight

Poetry Night at the Ballpark and Other Scenes from an Alternative America Bill Kauffman, 2015-06-15 Bill Kauffman has carved out an idiosyncratic identity quite unlike any other American writer Praised by the likes of Gore Vidal Benjamin Schwarz and George McGovern he has with a distinctive and slashingly witty learnedly allusive style illumed forgotten corners of American history articulated a defiant and passionate localism and written with love and dark humor of his repatriation Poetry Night at the Ballpark gathers the best of Bill Kauffman's essays and journalism in defense and explication of his alternative America or Americas Its discrete pieces are bound by a thematic unity and propulsive energy and are full of unexpected yet startlingly apposite connections and revelatory linkages Whether he's writing about conservative Beats backyard astronomers pacifist West Pointers or Middle America in the movies Bill Kauffman will challenge maybe even change the way you look at American politics and the American provinces

The Poetry of Raymond Carver Sandra Lee Kleppe, 2016-02-24 Best known as one of the great short story writers of the twentieth century Raymond Carver also published several volumes of poetry and considered himself as much a poet as a fiction writer Sandra Lee Kleppe combines comparative analysis with an in depth examination of Carver's poems making a case for the quality of Carver's poetic output and showing the central role Carver's pursuit of poetry played in his career as a writer Carver constructed his own organic literary system of autopoetics a concept connected to a paradigm shift in our understanding of the inter relatedness of biological and cultural systems This idea is seen as informing Carver's entire production and a distinguishing feature of Kleppe's book is its contextualization of Carver's poetry within the complex literary and scientific systems that influenced his development as a writer Kleppe addresses the common themes and intertextual links between Carver's poetry and short story careers situates Carver's poetry within the love poem tradition explores the connections between neurology and poetic memories and examines Carver's use of the elegy genre within the context of his terminal illness Tellingly Carver's poetry which has aroused slight interest among literary scholars is frequently taught to medical students This testimony to the interdisciplinary implications of Carver's work suggests the appropriateness of Kleppe's culminating discussion of Carver's work as a bridge between the fields of literature and medicine
