commercial buyers Alexandra Palmer traces the European haute couture trade with North America by following actual surviving couture dresses from the design house sketch through the model used in New York fashion shows and as a template for copies and knock offs and finally to the consumer Couture and Commerce is a remarkable mixture of accessible text color photographs of the original garments design house sketches and photographs retailers advertisements and society page images Weaving together analysis of the clothes and interviews with those who traded sold and wore couture Alexandra Palmer vividly recreates the 1950s fashion world
