Evergreen Community Creative Teaching Ideas From Evergreen Classrooms:

Evergreen: a Guide to Writing with Readings Fawcett, 2004 Moving the Classroom Outdoors Herbert W. Broda, 2011 Designed to provide teachers and administrators with a range of practical suggestions for making the schoolyard a varied and viable learning resource Moving the Classroom Outdoors presents concrete examples of how urban suburban and rural schools have enhanced the school site as a teaching tool from publisher description Resources in Education, 1997 Schools as Professional Learning Communities Sylvia M. Roberts, Eunice Z. Pruitt, 2003-06-26 Schools as Professional Learning Communities is an extraordinary achievement It brings together what a long time practitioner can see and sense It is an illumination of an exciting path to a constantly improving instructional community S David Adler Superintendent retired Bergen County Schools Newton New Jersey Much has been written about professional learning communities as part of the change and restructuring process but Sylvia M Roberts and Eunice Z Pruitt manage to move the discussion from theory to practice Their book features such practitioner friendly items as learning activities more than 25 short cases and scenarios tips for teachers and administrators information about online resources reproducible forms and worksheets The authors cover professional development strategies that build community such as classroom observation mentoring collaborative assessment of student work professional portfolios peer coaching team teaching and teacher leadership For teachers and administrators focused on improved student achievement school change equity and teacher leadership this is a must have resource Research in Education, 1973 K-12 Classroom Teachers and Career Education Kenneth B. Hoyt, 1976 Washington State Register, 1983 contains the full text of proposed emergency and permanently adopted rules of state agencies executive orders of the governor notices of public meetings of state agencies rules of the state supreme court summaries of attorney general opinions and juvenile disposition standards Handbook of Research on Creating Meaningful Experiences in Online Courses Kyei-Blankson, Lydia, Ntuli, Esther, Blankson, Joseph, 2019-11-29 While online courses are said to be beneficial and many reputable brick and mortar higher education institutions are now offering undergraduate and graduate programs online there is still ongoing debate on issues related to credibility and acceptability There is some reluctance to teach online and to admit and hire students who have enrolled in online programs Given these concerns it is essential that educators in online communities continue to share the significant learning experiences and outcomes that occur in online classrooms and highlight pedagogical practices used by online instructors to make their courses and programs comparable to those offered face to face The Handbook of Research on Creating Meaningful Experiences in Online Courses is a comprehensive research book that examines the quality of courses in higher education that are offered exclusively online and details strategies and practices used by online instructors to create meaningful teaching and learning experiences in online courses Featuring a range of topics such as gamification professional development and learning outcomes this book is ideal for academicians researchers educators administrators instructional designers curriculum developers higher education faculty and students Building Faculty Learning Communities Milton D. Cox, Laurie Richlin, 2011-10-07 Changing our colleges and universities into learning institutions has become increasingly important at the same time it has become more difficult Faculty learning communities have proven to be effective for addressing institutional challenges from preparing the faculty of the future and reinvigorating senior faculty to implementing new courses curricula and campus initiatives on diversity and technology The results of faculty learning community programs parallel for faculty members the results of student learning communities for students such as retention deeper learning respect for other cultures and greater civic participation The chapters in this issue of New Directions for Teaching and Learning describe from a practitioner's perspective the history development implementation and results of faculty learning communities across a wide range of institutions and purposes Institutions are invited to use this volume to initiate faculty learning communities on their campuses This is the 97th issue of the quarterly journal New Directions for Teaching and Learning Asphalt to Ecosystems Sharon Gamson Danks, 2010-11 A practical palette for visualizing designing and building innovative green schoolyard environments The Complete Book of Colleges, 2001 Indian Education Series United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on Indian Affairs (1993-), 2014 Discipline-Centered Learning Communities: Creating Connections Among Students, Faculty, and Curricula Kimberly Buch, Kenneth E. Barron, 2012-12-10 Take an in depth look at discipline centered learning communities Using psychology as an example this issue provides prescriptive advice for those interested in developing a learning community in any academic discipline or program Learning communities are a powerful vehicle for creating and sustaining connections among students faculty and the curriculum but creating one can be a challenge By providing resources practical case studies and theoretical grounding this volume can both inspire and guide faculty staff and administrators in meeting their pedagogical and curricular goals Learn how the five types of learning communities based curricularly residentially in the classroom on the students themselves and even virtually can be used to enhance student engagement and learning Illustrating the versatility of the practice across a wide range of settings student populations and institutional types this issue also contains an extensive listing of resources that go beyond disciplinary boundaries and open possibilities for all in higher education This is the 132nd volume of this Jossey Bass higher education series New Directions for Teaching and Learning offers a comprehensive range of ideas and techniques for improving college teaching based on the experience of seasoned instructors and the latest findings of educational and psychological researchers Success After Tenure Vicki L. Baker, Laura Gail Lunsford, Gretchen Neisler, Meghan J. Pifer, Aimee LaPointe Terosky, 2023-07-03 This book brings together leading practitioners and scholars engaged in professional development programming for and research on mid career faculty members The chapters focus on key areas of career development and advancement that can enhance both individual growth and institutional change to better support mid career faculties The mid career stage is the longest segment of the faculty career and it contains the largest cohort of faculty Also mid career faculty are tasked with being the next generation of faculty leaders and mentors on their respective campuses with little to no supports to do so effectively at a time when higher education continues to face unprecedented challenges while managing continued goal of diversifying both the student and faculty bodies The stories examples data and resources shared in this book will provide inspiration and reality checks to the administrators faculty developers and department chairs charged with better supporting their faculties as they engage in academic work Current and prospective faculty members will learn about trends in mid career faculty development resources see examples of how to create such supports when they are lacking on their campuses and gain insights on how to strategically advance their own careers based on the realities of the professoriate The book features a variety of institution types community colleges regional comprehensive institutions liberal arts colleges public research universities ivy league institutions international institutions and those with targeted missions such as HSI MSI and Jesuit Topics include faculty development for formal and informal leadership roles strategies to support professional growth renewal time and people management teaching and learning as a form of scholarship the role of learning communities and networks as a source of support and professional revitalization global engagement to support scholarship and teaching strategies to recruit retain and promote underrepresented faculty populations the policy practice connection and gender differences related to key mid career outcomes While the authors acknowledge that the challenges facing the mid career stage are numerous and varying they offer a counter narrative by looking at ways that faculty and or institutions can assert themselves to find opportunities within challenging contexts They suggest that these challenges highlight priority mentoring areas and support the creation of new and innovative faculty development supports at institutional departmental and individual levels

Planning for Assessment Lion F. Gardiner,1989 Resources in Education ,1997 Practical Applications and Experiences in K-20 Blended Learning Environments Kyei-Blankson, Lydia,2013-12-31 Learning environments continue to change considerably and is no longer confined to the face to face classroom setting As learning options have evolved educators must adopt a variety of pedagogical strategies and innovative technologies to enable learning Practical Applications and Experiences in K 20 Blended Learning Environments compiles pedagogical strategies and technologies and their outcomes that have been successfully applied in blended instruction Highlighting best practices as elementary secondary and tertiary educational levels this book is a vital tool for educators who teach or plan to teach in blended learning environments and for researchers interested in the area of blended education knowledge DHEW Publication No. (OE). ,1976 Peterson's ... 4 Year Colleges ,2000 K Through Twelve Classroom Teachers and Career Education: the Beautiful People Kenneth B.
