Constructing Disability after the Great War Evan P. Sullivan, 2024-10-08 As Americans both civilians and veterans worked to determine the meanings of identity for blind veterans of World War I they bound cultural constructs of blindness to all the emotions and contingencies of mobilizing and fighting the war and healing from its traumas Sighted Americans wartime rehabilitation culture centered blind soldiers and veterans in a mix of inspirational stories Veterans worked to become productive members of society even as ableism confined their unique life experiences to a collection of cultural tropes that suggested they were either downcast wrecks of their former selves or were morally superior and relatively flawless as they overcame their disabilities and triumphantly journeyed toward successful citizenship Sullivan investigates the rich lives of blind soldiers and veterans and their families to reveal how they confronted barriers gained an education earned a living and managed their self image while continually exposed to the public s scrutiny of their success and failures FCC Record United States. American Poetry as Transactional Art Stephen Fredman,2020-06-02 Explores the ways American poetry engages with visual art music fiction spirituality and performance art Many people think of poetry as a hermetic art as though poets wrote only about themselves or as if the subject of poetry were finally only poetry its forms and traditions Indeed much of what constitutes poetry in the lyric tradition depends on a stringently controlled point of view and aims for a timeless intransitive utterance Stephen Fredman s study proposes a different perspective American Poetry as Transactional Art explores a salient quality of much avant garde American poetry that has so far lacked sustained treatment namely its role as a transactional art Specifically Fredman describes this role as the ways it consistently engages in conversation talk correspondence going beyond the scope of its own subjects and forms its existential interactions with the outside world Poetry operating in this vein draws together images ideas practices rituals and verbal techniques from around the globe and across time not to equate them but to establish dialogue to invite as many guests as possible to the World Party which Robert Duncan has called the symposium of the whole Fredman invites new readers into contemporary poetry by providing lucid and nuanced analyses of specific poems and specific interchanges between poets and their surroundings He explores such topics as poetry s transactions with spiritual traditions and practices over the course of the twentieth century the impact of World War II on the poetry of Charles Olson and George Oppen exchanges between poetry and other art forms including sculpture performance art and ambient music the battle between poetry and prose in the early work of Paul Auster and in Lyn Hejinian s My Life The epilogue looks briefly at another crucial transactional occasion teaching American poetry in the classroom in a way that demonstrates that it is at the center of the arts and at the heart of American culture The Beats: A Very Short Introduction David Sterritt,2013-07-25 This book offers a concise overview of the social cultural and aesthetic sensibilities of the Beat Generation explaining how their drastic visions and radical styles challenged postwar America s dominant values in ways that can still be felt in literature cinema music theatre and the visual arts Making Light Raymond Knapp,2018-02-07 Raymond Knapp traces the musical legacy of German Idealism as it led to the declining prestige of composers such as Haydn while influencing the development of American popular music in the nineteenth century showing how the existence of camp in Haydn and American music offer ways of reassessing Haydn s oeuvre Robert Coover ,1989 Comparative Vandalism Peter Shield,2018-10-26 First published in 1998 this volume is a study of Asger Jorn s attempt to formulate the first complete revision of the existing philosophical system from the standpoint of the artist in the period 1961-67 The Danish artist Asger Jorn 1914-73 painter draughtsman potter and sculptor was one of the most prominent figures of his generation in Europe His characteristic paintings were spontaneous using energetic brushstrokes splashing and spotting with a wide ranging palette Jorn's eclectic intellect absorbed an astonishing range of influences and involved him in many causes including an ambitious programme to republish with commentary material vital to Scandinavian cultural history. He was also a founder member of Cobra 1948-51 and subsequently several other international groupings which coalesced in 1957 in the setting up of the Situationist International with French and Italian writers and artists. Fascinated by the philosophical debate on the position of the artist in contemporary life and the artist's relationship to the past, Jorn broke with the Situationist International in 1961 over the issue of whether an artist is an instigator of cultural change or only an instrument of political change. For the next four years he committed himself to a first complete revision of the existing philosophical system with the intention of placing the artist at the centre. Many of his ideas were first tried out in French in various Situationist publications and have since stirred considerable debate. His much more comprehensive texts in Danish of 1961-67 have never been made available in English. In Comparative Vandalism Peter Shield offers the first detailed study of Jorn's revision of modern philosophy, exploring the origins and formulation of his ideas. The book includes colour and black and white reproductions chosen from his mature work to illustrate the connection between his writing and painting.
