

Making the Most of Your Child's Learning Style

Every Child Can Succeed

An illustration featuring three children interacting with the large title text 'Every Child Can Succeed'. A girl with dark curly hair, wearing a purple shirt and green pants, is perched on the letter 'd' of 'Child', holding a paintbrush and a palette. A boy with a purple cap and green shirt is running along the left side of the text, holding a long paintbrush that extends across the word 'Every'. Another boy with blonde hair, wearing a green shirt and blue pants, is running along the bottom of the text, holding a paintbrush and a paint bucket. The background is a solid red color.

Every Child Can Succeed Cynthia Ulrich Tobias,1999-08 This enlightening resource shows parents how to utilize a learning styles approach to help their children live up to their potential and find success in life Every Child Can Succeed Cynthia Ulrich Tobias,2012-04-09 This enlightening source shows parents how to utilize a learning styles approach to help their kids live up to their potential and find success in life A Mind at a Time Mel Levine,2002-04-04 Different minds learn differently writes Dr Mel Levine one of the best known education experts and pediatricians in America today And that s a problem for many children because most schools still cling to a one size fits all education philosophy As a result these children struggle because their learning patterns don t fit the schools they are in In A Mind at a Time Dr Levine shows parents and others who care for children how to identify these individual learning patterns He explains how parents and teachers can encourage a child s strengths and bypass the child s weaknesses This type of teaching produces satisfaction and achievement instead of frustration and failure Different brains are differently wired Dr Levine explains There are eight fundamental systems or components of learning that draw on a variety of neurodevelopmental capacities Some students are strong in certain areas and some are strong in others but no one is equally capable in all eight Using examples drawn from his own extensive experience Dr Levine shows how parents and children can identify their strengths and weaknesses to determine their individual learning styles For example some students are creative and write imaginatively but do poorly in history because weak memory skills prevent them from retaining facts Some students are weak in sequential ordering and can t follow directions They may test poorly and often don t do well in mathematics In these cases Dr Levine observes the problem is not a lack of intelligence but a learning style that doesn t fit the assignment Drawing on his pioneering research and his work with thousands of students Dr Levine shows how parents and teachers can develop effective strategies to work through or around these weaknesses It s taken for granted in adult society that we cannot all be generalists skilled in every area of learning and mastery Nevertheless we apply tremendous pressure to our children to be good at everything They are expected to shine in math reading writing speaking spelling memorization comprehension problem solving and none of us adults can do all this observes Dr Levine Learning begins in school but it doesn t end there Frustrating a child s desire to learn will have lifelong repercussions This frustration can be avoided if we understand that not every child can do equally well in every type of learning We must begin to pay more attention to individual learning styles to individual minds urges Dr Levine so that we can maximize children s learning potential In A Mind at a Time he shows us how Kids at Hope John P. Carlos,Rick Miller,2007 John P Carlos senior consulting partner with The Ken Blanchard Companies and Rick Miller founder of Kids at Hope collaborated on this exceptional book written to guide community school youth organisations and parents in developing a culture that supports the success of every child NO EXCEPTIONS The book is a parable about possibilities primarily the possibility of success Kids at Hope is a belief system that turns around the current youth at risk paradigm

Sample Book Insights

- 1 Perspective is everything when it comes to autism When people who don't have autism frame its challenges only through the lens of their own experiences they unwittingly close the door to alternative thinking that could help those with autism or Asperger's syndrome overcome their obstacles
- 2 Your child's autism does not mean that they will not be able to live full joyous and meaningful lives You may be scared but you must believe that your child's quality of life is at stake if you don't do everything within your power to help them
- 3 Autism is complex but its primary elements are sensory processing challenges communication delays elusive social thinking and interaction skills and whole child self esteem issues
- 4 The four elements of social cognitive and physical learning are common to many children with autism but every child with autism is different and each parent teacher and caregiver will be at a different point on the spectrum

Improving Schools Liong Kam Chong, 2014-03-13

This is a selection of my Letters to the Editor that were published in two local dailies The Star and New Straits Times NST over the period from Dec 2007 to August 2013 These letters relate my experiences in leading and managing schools and embody my thoughts and propositions for school improvement enrichment as well as innovation The letters are not presented in chronological order following their dates of publication Instead they are grouped according to specific sections of interest Nevertheless I am mindful of the fact that school matters often overlap and school issues cannot be tackled in discrete units An integrated and holistic approach should be applied And thinking out of the box so as to bring about innovation and even transformation is very much advocated all through my letters Schools are where national education policies are being piloted modified and if appropriate then implemented in full Stake holders for the wellbeing upgrading and progress of a school must of necessity include more than merely its students parents teachers and administrators ix The Education Ministry state and district education offices other related ministries the community private sectors and certainly some non government organizations NGOs all have important roles to play in ensuring the smooth and efficient running of our schools I have looked within and outside of schools for causes and effects that have bearing on school matters The letters included in the Values section in particular bear out the familial and societal influence and impact on school life It is hoped that this compilation can be a useful reference and resource materials for all planners executors learners and evaluators of our school improvement initiatives and programmes

August 2013 LIONG KAM CHONG Congressional Record United States. Congress,2000 Every Child Can Succeed,2004 Literacy for All Children Carolyn M. Lawrence,2004 Drawing upon thirty two years of experience in public education ranging from the classroom to the principal s office author Carolyn Lawrence offers advice insight and inspiration to her readers about how to make reading accessible and even fun for students However Lawrence s point stretches far beyond literacy and delves into the idea that all students regardless of background and correct instructional level are capable of learning and benefiting from a positive school environment Her intention is to make the reader a participant in the school s life to give an insider s view of how much soul it takes to make a school successful Through anecdotes and personal experience Lawrence provides all readers both educators and others with a deeper understanding of the challenges of public education She demonstrates the role of the teacher and the principal as the instructional leader and a daily participant in classroom life juggling a variety of roles and responsibilities This book is useful to all readers with a concern for education and particularly for practicing and training school administration and others concerned with curriculum and instruction planning It will also be helpful in preparing teacher education students and new teachers for the classroom Journey to Success Steven A. DiStefano,2022-06-27 In Journey to Success Navigating the Treacherous Slopes of Working with a Variety of People educational administrators find themselves on a journey through the universe to find the keys to successful leadership By embracing certain qualities carrying out specific actions and refraining from making the same mistakes that others from a variety of places both real and imaginative have made anyone who has educating others as their primary goal will find success through an analysis of those who have trekked through adversity This journey begins here Destination Atlantian Fields Mission to build a school district from the ground up Accompanying us on that journey are several people Some have worked as school administrators while others spent their entire careers in the classroom Each is seated next to some fictional characters from another dimension who somehow have a strange parallel to them While digesting a mixture of humor reality and imagination all current and future leaders will find a portal to a successful career by embracing a set of recommended qualities and appropriate action steps Through a careful analysis of the experiences of real and fictional leaders and characters educational administrators will be able to extract key elements of effective leadership and walk away with a greater sense of how to effectively navigate both short and long term conflicts Trends in Youth Development Peter L. Benson,Karen Johnson Pittman,2012-12-06 MOVING THE YOUTH DEVELOPMENT MESSAGE TURNING A VAGUE IDEA INTO A MORAL IMPERATIVE Peter L Benson and Karen Pittman THE CONTAGION OF AN IDEA In the past fifteen years countless programs agencies funding initiatives profes sionals and volunteers have embraced the term youth development Linked more by shared passion than by formal membership or credentials these people and places have contributed to a wave of energy and activity not unlike that of a social movement with a multitude of people on the ground connecting to a set of ideas that give sustenance support and value to increasingly innovative efforts to build competent successful and healthy youth There are several particularly interesting dimensions to this movement First the youth development idea has the potential to draw people and organizations to gether across many sectors Conferences and initiatives using youth development language attract increasingly eclectic audiences bringing together national youth organizations schools city county and state agencies police and juvenile justice workers clergy and committed citizens Perhaps embedded in the youth development idea is a philosophy or a way that has created an intellectual and or spiritual home for actors across many settings However this happens it is clear that one of the powerful social consequences of the youth development idea is a connecting of the dots the weaving within and across city county state and of a tapestry of new relationships Resources in Education ,1996
