Jan Marsh,2012-11-29 Jan Marsh's book is the best researched and fullest biography of Rossetti we have yet had Fiona MacCarthy New York Review of Books Although never formally part of the Pre Raphaelite poetic school which included her brother Gabriel William Morris and Algernon Swinburne Christina Rossetti has always been linked to it Jan Marsh gives full attention to both the individual and her unique variety of fantastic and devotional poetry Marsh delineates an appealing person while examining her adolescent nervous breakdown abortive engagement to a lapsed Catholic painter frustrated love for an absentminded scholar and relationships with her devout but hearty sister Maria and with her brothers The author's steady sympathetic course through Rossetti's divided life enables readers to delve into the intense and original self most fully expressed in her poetry Kirkus Review Articulating Difference Sophie Salvo,2024-10-08 Enriches contemporary debates about gender and language by probing the histories of the philosophy and sciences of language Drawing on a wide range of texts from understudied ethnographic and scientific works to canonical literature and philosophy Sophie Salvo uncovers the prehistory of the inextricability of gender and language Taking German discourses on language as her focus she argues that we are not the inventors but rather the inheritors and adapters of the notion that gender and language are interrelated Particularly during the long nineteenth century ideas about sexual differences shaped how language was understood classified and analyzed As Salvo explains philosophers asserted the patriarchal origins of language linguists investigated women's languages and grammatical gender and literary Modernists imagined feminine sign systems and in doing so they not only deemed sex based divisions to be necessary categories of language but also produced a plethora of gendered tropes and fictions which they used both to support their claims and delimit their disciplines Articulating Difference charts new territory revealing how gendered conceptions of language make possible the misogynistic logic of exclusion that underlies arguments claiming for example that women cannot be great orators or writers While Salvo focuses on how male scholars aligned language study with masculinity she also uncovers how women responded highlighting the contributions of understudied nineteenth century works on language that women wrote even as they were excluded from academic opportunities
