Edfu Temple A Guide By An Ancient Egyptian Priest:

The Temple Of Edfu : A Guide By An Ancient Egyptian Priest Dieter Kurth, 2004 This is the oldest and most authentic guide to an ancient Egyptian temple ever written its author was an ancient Egyptian priest who lived in the first century B C under the last kings of the Ptolemaic dynasty when the construction and decoration of the huge temple of Edfu was completed The anonymous priest's task was to compose a text long enough to make up a line of hieroglyphic inscription on the girdle wall of the temple stretching around it to a length of some 300 meters and in it describe the temple in detail its layout and construction the functions of its chambers and chapels and its external appearance and the impression it conveyed to the faithful The language of the text arising within the long tradition of Egyptian temple building is stylized and poetic but remarkably the priest fulfilled his assignment with such accuracy devotion and enthusiasm that the monumental inscription can be used today by the modern visitor as a reliable and informative guide to the temple The inscription is here translated in full and appears with notes by the translator on the essentials of ancient Egyptian religion and ritual and on the discovery and documentation of Edfu Temple while a comprehensive glossary explains unfamiliar terms and concepts Illustrations of the temple the original hieroglyphs and the kings who build the temple complement the text BOOK JACKET

The Egyptian Oracle Project Robyn Gillam, Jeffrey Jacobson, 2015-07-30 For more than 2 000 years between 1500 BCE and 600 CE the Egyptian processional oracle was one of the main points of contact between temple based religion and the general population In a public ceremony a god would indicate its will or answer questions through the movements of a portable cult statue borne by priests or important members of the community The Egyptian Oracle Project is an interactive performance that adapts this ceremony to serve as the basis for a mixed reality educational experience for children and young adults using both virtual reality and live performance The scene is set in a virtual Egyptian temple projected onto a wall An oracle led by a high priest avatar controlled by a live human puppeteer is brought into the presence of a live audience who act in the role of the Egyptian populace Through the mediation of an actress the audience interacts with the avatar recreating the event The series of carefully focused essays in this book provides vital background to this path breaking project in three sections After a brief introduction to educational theatre and virtual reality the first section describes the ancient ceremony and its development along with cross cultural connections Then the development of the script and its performance in the context of mixed reality and educational theatre are examined The final set of essays describes the virtual temple setting in more detail and explores the wider implications of this project for virtual heritage

Architecture, Power, and Religion David Warburton, 2012 This book explores the fundamental question of the origins and nature of monumental religious architecture The principal argument is that the origins of monumental religious architecture were basically aspatial and that the gradual incorporation of functional space into religious architecture can be related to transformations in religious thought Although the discussion ranges across the Old World the argument centers on Egypt and the Egyptian female king Hatshepsut she set the tone for the New Kingdom by tying her legitimacy to Amun and the monuments she built for him This leads into the issues of power and political legitimacy and their relevance to myths The basic contention is that the political ideologies of the Near Eastern Bronze Age contributed fundamentally to what later became the phenomenon we know as religion and that the history of the architecture must be understood in order to understand both religion and architectural space Series Articles on Archaeology Beitrage zur Archaologie Vol 7
